The vernal equinox occurs today at 2 P. M., and in this latitude the days and nights are about equal, the almanacs giving the rising and the setting of the sun at 6 A. M., and 6 P. M., respectively. According to the same authority it is the beginning of spring, but it may be followed by very wintry weather.

Some handsome new walnut cases, with drawers and shelving, are being constructed in the record annex to the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for this county. The addition of these cases became a necessity as those originally placed in the room have become nearly filled with the accumulating records of the office. The work is being done by Mr. Charles B. Hunter.

A slight fire occurred in the large wash-house on the premises of the Montour House, this city, about 5 o'clock last Saturday afternoon. The prompt response of the Fire Department to an alarm probably prevented a serious conflagration, as a considerable blaze had developed in the interior of the wash-house, which is a frame structure.

While Mr. Vincent Yingling, residing on the Manchester road, near this city, was engaged in hauling logs, on Saturday last, the tie-pole became loosened and, flying around, struck him a severe blow, cutting an ugly gash in his head and bruising his shoulder considerably. The sale of the personal property of Mr. Harvey M. Petry, made near Pleasant Valley, on the 13th inst., was, in point of attendance and, in the matter of prices obtained, one of the best among the numerous sales this spring. Mr. Petry and others conversant with the matter attribute this result to the the liberal manner in which he advertised the sale, not only by hand-bills, but in the columns of this paper.

Mr. Columbus A. Shipley and Mrs. Ruth E. Wheeler, wife of Mr. Robert Wheeler, of Gamber, heirs at law of the late John C. Phillips, of Baltimore.

Crabbs, who had issued the warrant for his arrest, after a hearing committed him to the county jail, in default of bail, for the action of the grand jury, on a charge of unnatural crime. Johnson's arrest was made at the instance of State's Attorney Weant.

The Union Bridge Pilot of last week says: "A hen egg has been produced, in Copperville, this county, of the following extraordinary dimensions: It measured 8 inches the oblong way, 6 inches in circumference and weighed 3¼ ounces." But Copperville is not "in it" on the egg question, notwithstanding the production of this whopper, a hen of Mr. F. Thomas Babylon, of this city, having produced an egg of larger dimensions and weighing 4 ounces. Mr. Clayton Morningstar, near this city, has one which just matches the Copperville production in size and weight.

Mr. C. H. Stein, assistant roadmaster of the W. M. Railroad, at Union Bridge, has resigned his position to take effect April 1st and it is said will move to Baltimore.

Upon the petition of Mr. Nelson Bankard, of Pleasant Valley, the sanity of Mrs. Mary Polk, his aunt, widow of the late Col. Robert M. Polk, of Baltimore, was submitted to a jury of Circuit Court No. 2 for that city, a few days ago, which rendered a verdict declaring her sane. Mrs. Polk is about 80 years old and, it is said, owns property valued at $100,000. Messrs. Reifsnider & Grimes, of this city, were counsel for the petitioner.

When the will case of Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Baile, removed to Howard county from Carroll, was called in the Howard county Court on Thursday the plaintiffs were not present, and by default a verdict was rendered sustaining the will. Baile, cashier of the First National Bank of New Windsor, is her executor.

While Mrs. John L. Reifsnider, Jr., of this city, was driving, with two little children in her pony runabout, on Thursday afternoon, the pony from some cause became unmanageable and the vehicle was upset, throwing its occupants to the ground. The accident occurred on College avenue. The children sustained no injuries, but Mrs. Reifsnider's elbow was dislocated, her shoulder severely bruised and her face badly lacerated. She is attended by Dr. Jos. T. Hering.

Some trouble which arose between the Maryland Glass Works, in which Messrs. E. O. Grimes, E. Oliver Grimes, Jr., and Wm. B. Thomas, of this city, are largely interested, and the corporate authorities of Annapolis, has been adjusted to the satisfaction of all concerned. Oil from the works was escaping into Spa creek and, upon the city authorities objecting, the company promptly decided to erect a dam or barrier which will prevent the further flow of the oil into the water.

Messrs. Lantz Brothers and Mr. West, well known and popular hucksters at New Windsor, gathered on their routes and shipped to Baltimore, this week, 3,600 dozen of eggs, the firm and Mr. West each shipping 1,800 dozen. This is an egg product hard to beat on any other huckster route in the county. Still, some other huckster may exceed it, and if that should be the case the SENTINEL will be pleased to make a note of it. In the meantime our New Windsor friends must be regarded as the champion egg shippers of the county.

At the meeting of the County Commissioners on Monday a special pension of $5 was granted to Ellsworth Murray, of district No. 4. Messrs. Jesse Lemmon, David H. Hahn and Wm. Eckard were appointed examiners of the road petitioned for by Mr. Jesse L. Unger and others, in district No. 2. The board decided to meet for the purpose of making transfers and abatements, on the following dates: For districts No. 1, 2 and 3, April 13 and 14; districts Nos. 4, 5 and 6, April 20 and 21; districts Nos. 7 and 8, April 27 and 28; districts 9, 10 and 11, May 4 and 5; districts Nos. 11, 12 and 13, May 11 and 12.

At the sale of the personal property of Mr. Henry E. Morelock, of this city, on Saturday last, which included horses, cattle, wagons, buggies and farming implements, as well as household effects, 609 articles were disposed of in less than 6½ hours. Mr. Elias N. Davis was the auctioneer. The sale was advertised in the papers of this city and good prices were realized. A gentleman engaged in the antique furniture business in Baltimore saw the advertisement in the SENTINEL, attended the sale and afterwards informed the writer that he paid $10 more for two articles than they would have brought if he had not been here to bid on them. This incident shows the value of advertising.

March, up to date, has been marked by abundant rains, causing unusual floods in the Mississippi Valley, but, with mild weather and generally free from the severe storm conditions so freely predicted by the Prophet Hicks. In fact, temperatures have been above the seasonable average, and instead of cold waves, with hail and snow, spring-like weather has prevailed. In this locality the temperature has not fallen below the freezing point since about the 2nd day of the month, and it has been the mildest March since 1894. under the influence of these genial conditions fruit buds are well advanced and it will be remarkable if later frosts and ice do not destroy them, as was the case under similar conditions in 1894.

The exodus to the West from our county still continues. On Monday last two of our young farmer citizens, Messrs. Nevin J. Royer and David H. Geiman, with their families, left to make their permanent homes in Colorado. Mr. Royer's family consists of himself, wife and child, Mr. Geiman's of himself, wife and four children, or in all ten persons. They will locate in the vicinity of Rocky Ford, Prower county, the same locality to which their relatives, Messrs. J. Paul Royer and W. Royer Bish, removed a year ago. We learn that others will follow next spring. While we regret the loss of these residents of Carroll, because these young men were among our best citizens, they have, nevertheless, the SENTINEL's best wishes for their success in their new homes.

Mr. Jacob Wink, who gave bail for a trial before Justice William Moore, of this city, for alleged violations of the law requiring undertakers to procure permits before disposing of the bodies of deceased persons, appeared before the Justice on Saturday last and pleaded guilty in one of the two cases against him—that of having interred the body of the four-year-old child of Mr. I. G. Cullison at Greenmount, on the 29th of January, 1903, without having first obtained a permit. Justice Moore imposed the minimum fine of $10 and costs. The case against Mr. Wink for alleged violation of the law referred to, in interring the body of Mr. George W. Zepp without a permit, was dismissed by order of State's Attorney Weant, the object of the health authorities having been to give notice to undertakers, by the proceedings in the case, that they are determined to enforce the law.

Mr. Harvey F. Caylor, of Denver, Col., formerly of this county, in renewing his subscription to the SENTINEL writes that neither he nor Mrs. Caylor can get along without it, as it is to them like a weekly letter from home. Mr. Caylor says his own health has been good during the winter, but Mrs. Caylor has not been at all well. The weather at Denver, for a week, he says, had been fine, but the streets were dusty and a little rain or snow was needed to keep down the dust, swirled about by March winds, which he says are prevalent near the Rockies as well as in Maryland. It may therefore surprise Mr. Caylor to learn that here, except during the early days of the month, March winds have been only gentle zephyrs this year. Vegetation is springing up at Denver and he says there is much snow in the mountains and a bright prospect for a good year. Mr Caylor is still successfully engaged in the sale of pickles.

GEO. E. BAUGHMAN, P. M.

Three young men of this city, who were charged by Mr. John Senft, residing a short distance in the country, with having stolen a keg and three gallons of wine from him on Monday, had a hearing before Justice G. W. Crapster on Thursday, and one of them, James Swartzbaugh, was discharged. Another, Vernon Dell, gave bail in the sum of $100 to answer the charge at the May term of the Circuit Court, and the third, Herman Haines, was committed to jail in default of bail. The three young men and Russell Dell, a younger brother of Vernon, then swore out warrants against their prosecutor, charging him and his wife, Mrs. Margaret Senft, with having sold liquor to minors and also without a license. The license law permits the sale of wine manufactured by the seller without license, but not to be drunk on the premises nor to be sold to minors, and the charges against the Senfts are that they violated these provisions. Justice William Moore, who issued the warrants for the arrest of the Senfts, released them on $50 bail each for a hearing on Wednesday next.

Baseman, of this county. Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church, Reisterstown, on Monday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Baggs, of that place, and Rev. Bankert's Mill Items.

The remains of Mrs. Eliza Jane Sell, wife of Mr. Henry Sell, near Baust Church, who died on the 10th inst., at the age of 70 years, 4 months, 22 days, were interred in the burial ground of the church named, on Friday morning, 13th inst., after funeral services conducted by Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, of Silver Run, assisted by Rev. G. W. Baughman, of Uniontown. The text of the sermon, which was delivered by Mr. Hartman, was from the Book of Revelation, chapter 21, verse 4. Mrs. Sell was one of the most useful and valued members of the Reformed congregation at Baust Church, and her funeral was attended by a large throng of those who loved her for her many estimable qualities. For many years she was recognized as the leading spirit in the Church, Sunday School and Missionary Society. Her characteristics of mind and heart eminently fitted her for the performance of the various duties connected with these religious interests. She was a loving and faithful wife and mother and her kindness as a neighbor was known to all. She was benevolent by nature and in practice and no one in real need was ever turned empty from her door. Many eyes were dimmed with tears as her remains were consigned to the grave and it was realized that she was forever hidden from earthly vision; that her lips were silent forever on earth and her eyes closed in the sleep that knows no earthly waking. But there was comfort in the assurance that this was not the end; that she shall live again in that bright home where, as the text of the occasion declares, God "shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." Mrs. Sell displayed wonderful patience and sweet resignation throughout her long and painful illness which she knew was necessarily fatal. The pall-bearers at her funeral were: Messrs. Jos. Formwalt, Chas. Humpert, Aust. Benedick, John Dodro, Saml. Harmon and David Hahn. Funeral director, Mr. H. Weaver, of Uniontown.

The grip, which prevailed during the winter months, has disappeared.

We were much amused recently at the surprise of a certain physician who was very much afraid of a dog owned by a family which he visited professionally, quite frequently, the past winter, when he discovered that the canine, which he dreaded to meet, was toothless.

When the roads get in better condition and there will be less danger of the tilting of wagons and breaking of eggs, we may expect an advance in their price, provided, however, no other unforeseen accidents shall happen.

Union Mills Items.

Mr. William Frock, residing about two miles from Union Mills, had quite an experience last Saturday, in attempting to take a fat bull to Taneytown. A ring was put in the animal's nose, to which a rope was attached and he was led all right until he had gotten several miles from home when he took fright at some men, who were met in the road, and started to run. A young man named Bowersox, who had hold of the rope, clung to it bravely, and passed with the bull through two barbed wire fences, when the rope tore and the excited beast ran home across the fields. He was captured and made fast with a log chain to the hind carriage of a four-horse wagon and a second start to Taneytown was made. When they had reached about the same place where the bull became unmanageable on the first trip, he commenced to struggle violently and finally threw his body on the ground and choked himself to death.

As the wind pump at Mr. G. W. Yeiser's new residence was being raised into position, on the 18th inst., a chain that was one of the main supports broke, and the entire structure fell to the ground. Some of the parts were broken, but the damage was not serious.
