1774 JAN 15 GEORGE MAXWELL TO [illegible]

SIDE ONE

Sir — Benedict Janr. 15. 1774

I have formerly been supplied with some particular kinds of Goods from Bristol, such as Cottons & other Woolens, Nails, & Iron ware &c — For which I used to pay in Tobacco at the market price or remit otherways as was most convenient — As I know not whether the House that I use to correspond with Messrs Sedgely Hillhouse & Randolph's Business I shall be obliged to you, if you will be pleased to acquaint me whether it would be agreeable to you to recommend me, or rather my Partner Mr Henry Tubman & I, to your friend Mr Stevenson for about 1 to 2500 Goods, for which you should be paid here, Tobacco to one half of the amount at the market price to go by the Ships that brought the Goods, & I should expect a year Credit for the other half, or I would agree to pay Tobacco for the whole amount, upon being allowed a proper discount I shall not be more particular, till I hear from you and in the mean time remain respectfully

Sir y most Obed Hble Servt

George Maxwell
