1774 JAN 24 Thomas Ringgold to [illegible]

SIDE ONE

Dear Sir Chester Town 24th Jany. 1774

Messrs Willing Morris & Co. of Philadelphia write me they will desire you to draw on them for my Acct. for £800 Currency which I desired them to forward to you by first convenient Opportunity, intending to get the favor of you to invest it in Bills. Having since had an Oppty. of accommodating the necessity of having these Bills for a few Weeks you'll please not to draw on these Gentlemen untill you hear from me. Mean time you will oblige me by quoting your Exchange your Opinion how it will govern and whether about £500 in good Bills can be readily commanded with you. Please also say the Price of Produce ——

When this Weather turns moderate I shall expect the Pleasure of seeing you here and am meantime Dear Sir

Your most Obedient Servt

Thos Ringgold

Copy

Dear Sir Chester Town 24th Jany. 1774

Messrs Willing & Morris & Co. of Phila. write me they will desire you to draw on them for my Acct. for £800 Currency which I desired them to forward to you by first convenient opportunity, intending to get the favor of you to invest it in Bills. Having since had an Oppty. of accommodating the necessity of having these Bills for a few Weeks you'll please not to draw on these Gentlemen untill you hear from me. Mean time you will oblige me by quoting your Exchange your Opinion how it will govern and whether about £500 in good Bills can be readily commanded with you. Please also say the price of Produce. ——

When this Weather turns moderate I shall expect the pleasure of seeing you here and am meantime Dear Sir Yr. most obed. Servt.

Thos Ringgolds