1774 FEB. 2 WILLIAM RANDOLPH TO JAMES CARROLL

SIDE ONE

Bristol 2 Feb.y 1774

Dear Sir

I was duly favoured with your's by Spencer I note well the Contents am much obliged for your sensible remarks therein, in consequence of which I some time ago took an opportunity of communicating my sentiments to our M.rs respecting our ballancing our Old Books & opening a new out the begining of this present year, to which he replied there was articles of partnership subsisting between him and my self which would not expire for near two years, that he could see no necessity for any alteration in matters till that Period, as such I believe everything must remain as it now stands

Capt Leyburn when here one day put a letter of Capt M.Gachen into my hand in which I observed the following paragr. I hope you will use your utmost endeavours for my interest as my future success & happiness in life depends much on your conduct this Voyage, what this may mean I cannot pretend to say it may all amount to
