1774 MARCH 21 SIMON BREWERTON 2

SIDE ONE

Capt. Henery March the 21th 1774

Sr. This day I got safe out of the Capes with a pleasent gale we have been under new point Comfort ever since friday night last and has bloon verey hard ever since at 8 please to pay the pilot as customary Sr I shall make all the dispatch possable the vessel make little or no water and works verey well Capt. Murry of Chester twon is in Company ever thing is well on board Sr from your most Obedent humble servant to Comanand

Simon Brewerton