SIDE ONE

Dear Sir. 2 O'Clock At Rock Hall March 28th 1774

Mr Hodges sent his men to my House with a Convict Man who say'd he had been used to wait on Gentlemen and mind their horses, and utterly averse to go by Water, as that was the Card he would by no means suit me, therefore I sent him back again immediately to Mr Hodges's with a Letter for you advising the reason I did not take him, to day just before I came here with the Beef to send over, Mr Hodges told me the fellow had just gone to my house to see if I would take him, upon which we sent to my house after him but he was not there, am affraid he has gone off with himself and have sent the Boat off without him, with the beef and money, shall do every thing in my power to have him secured a gain, I am going after him in haste D. Sir

Wishes you
