1774 APRIL 8 [JOHN PAGE] TO [STANDISH GREEN]

SIDE ONE

Dear Sir. Swanscock April 8th 1774

Inclosed you have an order on Mr. Jesse Hollingsworth for the amt. of the Beans I have sent him as they were delivered in a hurry ~~[illegible]~~ and suppose Mr. Hollingsworth doard have them measured over again could not for the sum they amtd to, they were delivered on board for 235 ℔s. at 15/ ℔. but am sure they will over Run that Measure

You'll please pay Capt. McGachin his amt. for Sundries I bought of him when I was over, out of the Money for my Beans you'll receive of Mr. Hollingsworth, and if you think the ~~[illegible]~~ servant is well enough please send him of this Boat, you well know the consequences of bring any disorder in such a family as mine therefore do by him as you think best for me, and you'll oblige ——

Dear Sir Most Humly Yrs. in haste

P. Page