1774 April 29 William Cooke to ?

SIDE ONE

Dr Sir.

I have commenced a suit for you in the Phor. against Wm. Stewart who desires me to acquaint you he shall be able to pay you 200£ Curr. in Sept. and he thinks a further consider. payment in a few Months after. He begs for all the Indulgence you can possibly shew him. I shall be glad of your instructions how to act — dont you think it might be well to take a Judgment this Court and give a stay of Execution till — next April:— The Judgm. may be taken without Bail, as I — conceive you will receive no benefit from having Bail, he will never keep out of the way, nor I believe leave the place till he takes his final departure. If you incline to do this, or will propose any thing else, I will shew him your letter, in which it may be proper to promise your indulgence in not ispuing execution immediately on the Expiration of the stay provided he makes his payments as promised, as that may probably make him punctual, and attentive to merit — your favour in this particular I am Sr. Yr. Hble Sr.

W. Cooke
