F. Crouse; recitation, Miss Martha I. Schaeffer; solo, P. C. Walter M. Graham; music, Orchestra; closing ode, members.

Mr. John Royer, of Uniontown district, lost his pocketbook in this city last week and has not yet recovered it. It contained $41 in money, a check and other papers. Mr. Henry Grace, near Spring Mills, also lost his pocketbook last week, in this city and, if found, it has not yet been returned to him. It contained $21 in money. It is extremely probable that both these pocketbooks have been found by persons lacking in honesty, as their owners could very readily have been ascertained from their contents. The law makes the use of money, found in this way, larceny, unless it be impossible, by employing proper methods, to discover the person or persons to whom it belongs.

Mr. J. H. Bennett and Mr. Victor McIlhenny, of Seven Stars, Pa., visited Rev. and Mrs. P. J. Shriver, last week. Mr. Bennett is Mrs. Shriver's father.

Mr. Reese Shipley is erecting an addition to his stable.

Freedom District Items.

Several of our farmers have cut their barley, which is said to be only an average crop. From the appearance of the wheat now the yield will be from 15 to 20 bushels per acre.

The roads in this section are in worse condition than they have been for the past five years. Many of the bridges are not safe to cross with traction engines and often machine men are obliged to run several miles out of their way in order to avoid them.

Tax Collectors and Tax Levy.

At their meeting this week the County Commissioners appointed collectors for the several districts of the county, for the ensuing year, as follows:

Taneytown, Tobias H. Eckenrode.
Uniontown, Emanuel Fisher.
Myers', C. E. Baumgartner.
Woolery's, John G. Hoffman.
Freedom, Byron Dorsey.
Manchester, Jacob Rupp.
Westminster, Joseph L. Franklin.
Hampstead, John S. Stricklin.
Franklin, George E. Wright.
Middleburg, Wilson L. Crouse.
New Windsor, John C. Buckey.
Union Bridge, George P. Buckey.
Mount Airy, William H. Dempsey.

These are all reappointments except those for Taneytown and Myers' districts. In Taneytown district Mr. Eckenrode succeeds Mr. Henry Galt, and in Myers' district Mr. Baumgartner takes the place of Mr. John D. Feeser.

The commissioners also, at the same meeting, made the tax levy for State, county and road purposes for the current year. The levy for county purposes was made at 45 cents on $100, divided as follows: For school purposes, 20 cents; for courts, justices of the peace and officers' salaries, 12 cents; for the alms house, pensions and insane paupers, 7 cents; miscellaneous, 6 cents. The levy for road purposes is as follows:

Taneytown, 14 cents.
Uniontown, 10 cents.
Myers', 12 cents.
Woolery's, 17 cents.
Freedom, 18 cents.
Manchester, 13 cents.
Westminster, 10 cents.
Hampstead, 18 cents.
Franklin, 18 cents.
Middleburg, 11 cents.
New Windsor, 9 cents.
Union Bridge, 15 cents.
Mount Airy, 13 cents.

The changes in the levy for roads from last year are: One cent increase in Westminster and Middleburg districts, and one cent decrease in Manchester, Franklin and New windsor districts.

The State tax is 17 cents on $100.

WEDDING BELLS.

Hahn-Smith.

Mr. Charles S. Hahn and Miss Albertie M. Smith, both of Mt. Airy, were married on Wednesday of last week, the ceremony having been performed by Rev. O. C. Marriott, of that place.

Eakle-Fauble.

Miss Jenesse Fauble and Mr. Martin W. Eakle were married on Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride, in Union Bridge. The groom is of Hagerstown and a passenger brakeman on the Western Maryland railroad.

Clary-Shivers.

At Mt. Airy, Mr. Lycurgus Clary, aged 56, and the widow of the late Washington Shivers, aged 50, were quietly married at the bride's home on Sunday, June 6, by the Rev O. C. Marriott; on Monday evening a party of fully 100 serenaders surrounded the house and gave them an old time serenade.

Rowe-Welty.

Mr. Matthew Rowe, of Bark Hill, this county, and Miss Mary J. Welty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. I. Welty, near Woodsboro, were married at the Reformed parsonage in Union Bridge, on Thursday evening of last week, by Rev. H. J. Macalister, in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the contracting parties. They will reside at Bark Hill where the groom owns a farm.

Brilhart-Zimmerman.

A pretty wedding occurred Tuesday morning at Fountain Stream, Carroll county, the home of Mr. David H. Zimmerman, when his accomplished daughter, Miss Violetta, became the bride of Mr. David J. Brilhart. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. R. W. Doty, of this city, pastor of Salem Charge, Lutheran Church. Mr. and Mrs. Brilhart left on the 9.15 train from Westminster for New York and other Northern cities. The bride wore light blue crepe de chine, trimmed in lace.

Bufter-Franklin.

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Minnie L. Franklin, daughter of Mrs. Mary Franklin, of Union Bridge, was married to Mr. Thomas Bufter, of Baltimore, at the residence of the bride's mother. The ceremony was performed by the bride's grandfather, Elder William H. Franklin, of Sams Creek. The bride wore a gown of white organdie and carried bride's roses. After the ceremony a reception was held and wedding luncheon served. Mr. and Mrs. Bufter will reside at 1611 Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore.

Valdes-Buckingham.

Miss George Hood Buckingham, daughter of Mr. A. W. Buckingham, of this city, and Mr. Juan de Dios Valdes, of Monterey, Mexico, were married at the parsonage of the Catholic Church, Millville, N. J., by the pastor, on Friday, 12th inst., in the presence of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Day, of Millville, and, immediately after the ceremony, left for the groom's home in Monterey. The wedding was something of a surprise to the many friends of the bride in this city. The groom has been a student at Western Maryland College and has numerous friends among the students of that institution.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Rachel S. Garver.

Mrs. Rachel S. Garver, wife of Mr. Herman L. Garver, deputy treasurer of Frederick county, died after an illness of six hours, at her home near Utica Mills, last Friday morning, of apoplexy. She was about fifty-three years old. She was an estimable lady and much beloved by her devoted family and a large circle of friends. Mrs. Frank M. Stevens, of this city; Mrs. Edward S. Keeney, formerly near Finksburg, and Misses Jennie E. and Maud E. Garver, at home, are her daughters. Her funeral took place at the Lutheran Church, Utica Mills, the pastor, Rev. J. U. Asper, formerly of this city, officiating.

New Windsor Items.

A runaway which might have resulted in the death of Fred Lambert, son of Mr. A. E. Lambert, happened Tuesday afternoon. While Fred was hitching up to haul sawdust from the sawmill of Mr. C. J. Hibberd the horse became frightened and dashed up the street with the wagon upsidedown. The animal became tangled in the harness and was thrown. It received many scars and scratches about the body. The shafts and sideboards of the wagon were completely demolished. Later the horse was caught by Mr. Jacob Frounfelter.

Mr. E. S. Gundy, an agent for the Maccabees, is here trying to organize a lodge. He has secured about twenty members so far.

Children's Day exercises at Winter's Church were held last Sunday evening and were very successfully rendered. The program consisted of recitations, singing and an address by the pastor.

Miss Mabel Galbreath, one of our college students, has been the guest of Miss Cora Buffington and Miss Marcia DeVilbiss during the week.

A party of about twenty from this locality attended the saengerfest in Baltimore, Tuesday.

Mr. A. H. Matthews, a Brooklyn broker, boarding at the Dielman House, has been in Brooklyn for the past two weeks attending to business.

Some of the boarders who have returned to the Dielman House for the summer, are: Mrs. A. M. Abbott and two daughters, of Washington, D. C.; Mr. L. H. Dielman and wife, of Annapolis; Miss Harrison, of Baltimore; Mr. A. H. Matthews, sister and son Henderson, of Brooklyn, and Mrs. W. O. Hulme and son, of Annapolis.

Miss Elsie Birely, of Frederick, is visiting Mrs. J. Wm. Snader.

Gamber Items.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Grimes, of Gamber, on Wednesday, 17th inst., at high noon. The contracting parties were Lottie B., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grimes, and Mr. J. Walter Gimpel, of Howard county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joiner, of the Episcopal Church, under an arch of ferns and daisies. The bride was attired in white gauze over white satin and carried a white prayer-book. The groom wore the conventional black. The bride was attended by Miss Adele Harrison, of Baltimore, who wore white Paris muslin over green taffeta. The best man was Mr. Edward Gimpel, of Sykesville, brother of the groom. Immediately after the ceremony luncheon was served, when the bridal party left for an extended trip North. The bride's traveling costume was of blue broadcloth. They received many valuable and handsome presents. Only the immediate members of the two families were present.

The Ladies' Mite Society of Mt. Pleasant M. E. Church met on Saturday at the residence of Mrs. Geo. H. Barnes. The society has a membership of 71 and expects in the near future to raise it to 100. They contemplate holding a lawn fete on the church lawn on or about August 22nd.

Miss Della M. Barnes is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. A. F. Gamber and Mrs. Margaret Arbaugh are on the sick list.

Carrollton Items.

Sunday was to have been children's day at Wesley M. E. Church, but owing to the bad state of the weather the services were postponed until next Sunday. Ample preparations were made by those having the affair in charge and very many were disappointed and stayed indoors.

The incessant rain of the past week has put the farmers away back in their farm work. Many washouts have occurred in the corn and potato fields, the past week, but corn, wheat, rye and potatoes are all looking beautiful and healthful and a large yield is anticipated in these regions.

A stroll over Mr. Michael E. Walsh's farm showed many improvements which add greatly to the appearance of the place. The old worm fencing, binding on the farm on the road from Carrollton Station to Wesley and Hampstead, has been removed, thus giving a better view of the homestead and farm place, all of which entitle Mr. Lynch, the manager of the farm, to much credit.

Mr. Bedjamin Croft and his son Charley have been working on the county road the past few days and have put the road in good repair. Mr. Wm. Taylor and force have also been repairing the road on the side leading from and toward Patapsco from the Carrollton road.

Mr. Marion Green, the enterprising huckster of this community, has erected a new hog stye with room over it for the storage of some of his crops.

Mr. Benjamin Croft, the veteran farmer of these regions, has a field of very tall rye. It measures between six and seven feet.

Mr. D. W. Mules and family have returned to the country, having spent four months in Baltimore, which was not only detrimental to Mr. Mules' own health but also to that of his wife and children.

The old flouring mill, once owned and run by Mr. Spahr, a short distance from Wesley Church, has been put in repair. A new shingle roof adds to the appearance of the mill building which is now owned and operated by Mr. Hering.

Mrs. E. Leppo and daughter have had their house made bright looking by several coats of paint.

The recent heavy rains carried away a portion of the bridge which spans the falls near Mr. Joel Ebaugh's home, on the road leading to Wesley Church.

Monday last Benjamin Croft, with his son Charley and Mr. John F. Snyder, repaired the bridge so that travel could be resumed.

The Children's day services held at Pleasant Grove M. E. Church last Sunday afternoon were largely attended and a very fine program was rendered.

Members of The Church of God here are talking of remodeling their Bethel. They propose to make some important changes in it.

The C. E. Society of the Church of God will hold memorial services for Rev. J. W. Evans on Sunday, June 28th, at 2.30 P. M. Rev. Evans was a prominent member of this society and all his friends are invited to be present.

Mr. Louis Evans, Mrs. J. Uhler and Mrs. Dora Shipley are visiting friends in Baltimore.

The Church of God will hold a Church reunion and memorial services in their Bethel on Sunday morning, June 28th, at 10.30. Friends and relatives will decorate the graves of their friends who are buried in the adjoining cemetery.

The C. E. festival held last Saturday evening, was a success in every way.

The Church of God will in a short time pay off the remaining debt on the parsonage.

Porter's Items.

Strawberry season is about over. There was an abundant crop. Cherries were very scarce and rotted on the trees before they ripened.

Mr. H. L. Bushey visited friends in Harrisburg and West Fair View, last week. He reports having had a very pleasant trip.

Miss Bessie Painter, of Harrisburg, Pa., is visiting her friend, Mrs. L. M. Bushey.

The ice cream festival held at Messiah Lutheran Church, last Friday night, was largely attended. All in attendance seemed to enjoy themselves very much. The Hood's Mill Band furnished the music.

Mr. J. W. Eyler, of Middleburg, has put up a very handsome iron fence around the cemetery of Messiah Lutheran Church. Much credit is due to Messrs. Jonas Ebbert, Robt. C. McKinney, the Dorsey Brothers and others for their liberal donations and work.

Union Mills Items.

Miss Lydia Hartman, of Littlestown, Pa., is visiting Miss Esta Stewart.

Rev. and Mrs. Perry Koontz and children, Jessie, Sarah and Catharine, of Yoe, Pa., spent several days last week visiting friends and relatives in and near this place.

Miss Leola Burgoon is visiting friends in Westminster.

Miss Naomi Stonesipher, of Littlestown, Pa., is visiting Miss Helen Bankert, near this place.

Barn Raising—Large Company.

About 60 men assembled at the home of Mr. Eli T. Yingling, at Parr's Ridge, on Thursday, 11th inst., for the purpose of raising his large new barn. All went very pleasantly, as the timbers all fitted with exactness under the skillful management of Mr. Edward Wise, of Snydersburg, the contractor. At 11 o'clock a bounteous dinner was served, consisting of everything imaginable. To say that all did ample justice to the feast would be putting it mildly. After dinner the men finished the work and at 3 o'clock refreshments were served. Supper was served at 5 o'clock after which all departed to their homes wishing their host and hostess many happy social events. Those present were: Messrs. Charles Snider, David Stephan, Howard Leister, Daniel Shaffer, Jacob Brown, Jacob Brehm, John Gettier, John Brown, John Shultz, Abraham Leister, Horace Ebaugh, Geo. A. Leister, Geo. Brown, Andrew Smeach, Peter C. Wentz, Noah Miller, Aaron Shaffer, William Ebaugh, Charles Hunt, Thos. Yingling, Rev. R. W. Doty, Adam Shaffer, Noah Sullivan, John Barnhart, Lee Snider, Abraham Snider, Horatio Flishman, Jacob Mathias, Edward Wise, Simon Giggard, Wm. Stansbury, John Yingling, Wm. Wet weather is seriously interfering with farm work. Much grass has been cut but for the reason stated, has not been cured.

Children's day services were held in Emanuel Lutheran Church on Sunday morning. The altar and surroundings were tastefully decorated, and the following program was excellently rendered: Song, Awake, by school; responsive reading; prayer, Rev. Flick; recitation, Welcome, Fern Kahn; song, Rejoice, school; class exercise, Rainbow, in full costume; song, On Welcome Day, school; recitation, Mildred Hanson; Solo, Myrtle Buchman; song, His Name is Love, school; recitation, Noah Folk; exercise, Primary Department; solo and chorus, The Golden City; recitation, Children's Day, M. Theiret; song, school; class exercise, by boys; recitation, Treva Burgoon; chorus, school, Hail Him; address, Rev. Flick; offering for Orphans' Home; solo and chorus; doxology and benediction.

On Friday evening, 12th inst., a number of Misses went to the home of Mrs. Washington Musselman, on North Main street, as a surprise to Miss Eva Bixler, a granddaughter of Mrs. M., who was passing the twelfth anniversary of her birthday. All were pleasantly received, and enjoyed a good time in the games of the evening, and were excellently entertained at refreshments, ere the goodnights were said. Those present were: Myrtle Buchman, Margaret Shaffer, Margaret Loats, Anna Lau, Helen, Mary and Julia Roeder, Ethel Gettier, Corinne Sherman, Mary and Amanda Rittase, Fern Kahn, Alice Blocher.

Eight-year-old Ray Hoffacker enjoyed a pleasant evening at her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker, Wednesday, with a company of her little girl friends, who had come as a surprise in honor of her birthday. That the little girls had a good time is putting it mildly. They were nicely entertained by Mrs. H. and her friends.

A nice home wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, at 2 P. M., at the home of Mr. John E. Leese, on North Main street. The contracting parties were his oldest daughter, Miss Minnie Leese, and Mr. Jacob R. L. Wink. Promptly at the appointed hour they marched into the parlor to the music of the wedding march, by Miss Grace Leese, sister of the bride, where the Rev. H. H. Flick united them in the holy bonds of wedlock. The bride was gowned in white Persian lawn trimmed in lace, and carried a bouquet of carnations. The groom wore the conventional black. After congratulations refreshments were served to the guests, the immediate families and their friends. They left by the evening train for Baltimore and a trip to Rehoboth Beach. We extend to them our best congratulations.

True to promise the Medford boys were on hand on Saturday and were entertained at dinner by our team at the Washington House, after which they crossed bats on the home diamond. Line up:
