WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1903.

An editorial on "Purity and Patriotism," prepared for last week's SENTINEL, was excluded by other matter and it is impossible to find room for it this week.

A Philadelphia paper of recent date says: "A report originating in New York and alleged to be based upon excellent authority, was current yesterday to the effect that Wabash interests would support a bill in the Maryland Legislature next winter, providing for the sale of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal. It is said that the Gould interests considered the plan of using the bed of the canal as a roadbed for a line from near Cumberland to Georgetown, D. C., and that the plan met with favor. The Wabash could gain access to Washington in this way. The canal cannot be sold without the consent of the State."

Orphans' Court.

Monday, July 6th.—The last will and testament of Samuel E. Wimert, deceased, admitted to probate and letters testamentary thereon granted to Mary A. Wimert, who received order to notify creditors.

4th of July at Winfield.

The 127 anniversary of the Declaration of Independence was observed with fitting ceremonies at Winfield. At 8.30 P. M., the exercises began in the hall and opened with music by the Elite Orchestra. The first speaker was Mr. Guy W. Steele, of Westminster, who gave one of his characteristically witty and telling addresses. Mr. Oscar B. Coblentz, of Middletown, Md., was the second speaker and his address was listened to with interest and attention by the large audience. The exercises were concluded by the audience rising and singing "America." The Elite Orchestra furnished excellent music for the evening. After the conclusion of the program in the hall, refreshments were served in the basement. At 11 P. M. there was a display of fireworks, followed by a balloon ascension. The evening was an enjoyable one to all who attended.

Carrollton Items.

On Sunday afternoon, July 5, a memorial service was held in the cemetery of the Church of God, in memory of the late Rev. John Evans. The inclemency of the weather kept many away, but notwithstanding this, there was a large audience present, including several visitors from Baltimore. Mr. Evans was a highly respected preacher of this locality, and in life was honored and esteemed by old and young. The speakers for the occasion were: Messrs. Jeremiah Ebaugh, John Uhler, Randolph Taylor, and others of the church.

Last Friday evening, during a thunderstorm, lightning struck and completely demolished a large pear tree near the barn of Mr. Michael E. Walsh.

The glorious fourth was fittingly celebrated by the youths of Carrollton in the usual manner. Fireworks of all kinds were exploded, and from morn till night the town was filled with smoke and enthusiasm.

A large crowd is expected to be present at the picnic to be given by the people of Wesley church, on Saturday, 11th inst. The picnic is to be for the benefit of the Sunday School.

The rainstorms have caused many washouts in this vicinity and the crops have suffered. The wheat that had already been cut and shocked in the fields was also slightly damaged.

Mr. W. P. Blizzard has the honor of harvesting the first hay crop of this vicinity. It was taken off the land of Mr. Mules.

In Baltimore, July 3rd, 1903, at the Maryland Hospital, Mrs. Maggie, wife of Robert Haust, aged 39 years and 4 days.

We laid our Maggie down to rest,
Within the silent tomb;
Her work is ended, her pains are o'er,
We hope to meet her, to part no more.

Death has robbed us of our Maggie,
The one we loved and cherished so dear;
Can we stay the flowing tear,
For our beloved Maggie, dear.
