Ivan L. Hoff, Attorney for Plaintiff.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

NO. 4057 EQUITY.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, in Equity.

Rebecca A. Stull, plaintiff, vs Emerson B. Stull, defendant.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce a Vinculo Matrimonii, by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The Bill states that the plaintiff and defendant were married on the 24th day of February, 1892, in Carroll county, Maryland; that though the conduct of the plaintiff to the defendant has always been kind, faithful and above reproach, the said defendant has without just cause or reason abandoned her, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than 3 years and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation; that said parties have two infant children; that the defendant is a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon, this 17th day of July, 1903, ordered by the Circuit Court for Carroll County, in Equity, that the plaintiff cause a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll county, once in each of 4 successive weeks before the 18th day of August, 1903, giving notice to the said defendant of the object and substance of this Bill, warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 7th day of September next, to show cause if any he has why a decree ought not be passed as prayed.

Burns, all non-residents of this State and all residing in Piatt County, in the State of Illinois, except the said Anna May Smith and her said husband, who reside in Calhoun County, in the State of Iowa.

That said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to interests therein as above stated.

Home Remedies.

Every mother should be familiar with simple home remedies which can be used in times of need. It is not pleasant to be always dependent on a physician to ease every ache and pain.

To cure a ringworm rub the spot with milk from milkweed, which grows wild. In a few days if this is persevered in the spot will entirely disappear.

When milkweed is not to be had put a copper penny in a tablespoonful of vinegar and let it remain until it becomes green; then wash the ringworm with this liquid several times a day until it disappears.

A sharp pain in the lungs or side can be driven away by applying vaseline and mustard in the proportion of two parts vaseline and one part mustard. Rub it together and spread on a piece of linen as you would an ordinary mustard paste. This is also excellent for a severe pain in the back of the neck, and has been used with good results for breaking up influenza.

To break up a hard cold at the start, take a hot mustard bath and go to bed, being careful not to take more cold afterward.

Flaxseed tea with plenty of lemon juice and loaf sugar is very soothing to sore lungs, and will often cure a hard cough.

Equal parts of honey, olive oil and pure homemade wine made from grape juice or currants is both soothing and strengthening for a bad cough.

Physicians are advocating the use of pure olive oil for weak lungs. It bids fair to take the place of codliver oil, and is thought by many pleasanter to take.

Olives, as a food, are considered very strengthening for those with lung troubles.

A glass of water drank half an hour before each meal, and just before retiring, will frequently regulate the bowels so those troubled with constipation will be all right. Ripe fruit, as apples, peaches, pears and grapes, is a great regulator of the bowels. Those who suffer from long standing constipation will do well to take a tablespoonful of bran before each meal.

There is no better cure for biliousness than boneset tea, or that made from German chamomile. Drink freely of it for several mornings. Lemonade and any acid fruit are also excellent for biliousness, as well as raw or cooked tomatoes.

To remove the inflammation caused by running a nail into the hand or foot, apply a piece of salt pork immediately and bind the part.

Festivals, Entertainments, &c.

The Sunday School of Baust Church will hold its annual celebration in the grove of Mr. Jacob Rodkey, near Tyrone, on Saturday, August 8th, afternoon and night. There will be music by a band and singing by the school. Ice cream, cake, confectionery, &c., will be sold for the benefit of the school.

The annual picnic of Messiah Lutheran Church, in Freedom district, will be held August 8th, afternoon and night. A band of music will be present.

Mt. Union U. B. Sunday School will hold their annual celebration in the same grove they have always done, on Saturday, August 1st. A band of music, singing and several speakers, including Rev. J. P. Wilson, will enliven the occasion. The public invited.

There will be a rally of the Carroll County Epworth Union, to be held at Ebenezer M. E. Church, Winfield, on Saturday and Sunday, August 1st and 2nd. Services will begin at 3 P. M., Saturday and close with the meeting Sunday night. There will be preaching by prominent ministers and good singing. Epworth Leaguers and friends are cordially invited to attend, expecting great things of the Lord.

J. BELT TOWNSEND, President.

The Lutheran Sunday School at Silver Run will hold its annual picnic in the large and beautiful grove of Mr. J. Harvey Maus, near the village, August 15th, 1903. The immense crowds that attend these picnics annually show that the efforts of the management to make it a day of entertainment and enjoyment is appreciated. Efforts are being made to make this the greatest day of all. Drills, speaking and singing by the school. Music by the Taneytown Band. All cordially invited.

The German Lutheran Sunday School, on Deer Park road near Smallwood, will hold their annual picnic on Saturday, August 1st. If the weather is unfavorable then it will be on the following Monday. There will be several able speakers and a band of music present. All are invited to come and have a good time.

Zion Sabbath School will hold their annual festival on the 3rd Saturday of August, in the afternoon and evening.

The farmers of the four adjoining counties of Carroll, Howard, Frederick and Montgomery will hold their third annual picnic and tournament in Wildwood Park, Mt. Airy, Md., on August 6th.
