WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1903.

The primary meeting of the Republican party in Westminster district will be held tomorrow, Saturday, afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock, at Mr. Hugh Doyle's shop, next door to the Firemen's Building on East Main street.

The Advocate finds great pleasure in evidences of dissension among the Republicans of this county, but perhaps only as an offset to a worse condition among the Democrats. Everybody knows that a lively little row is in progress in the camp of that party and that the revolt of a large body of Democrats against bossism is of a serious and determined character.

The Advocate's opinion of the motives of the organizers of the S. A. Williams Republican Club of Westminster, need not disturb anybody, even if it be sincerely entertained. The Republicans of Carroll county are for Mr. Williams for Governor without regard to other differences, and nobody is wearing a Williams cloak to cover any other sentiment. Mr. Williams is decidedly the best man mentioned by either party for the Governorship and it is extremely probable that he will be the choice of the Republican State convention by acclamaton.

The great Evangelist Moody once said to a body of secretaries of Young Men's Christian Associations whom he was addressing, that he would advise them, as he would advise ministers of the gospel whenever even moderate opposition to them developed in associations or congregations of which they might have the charge, to "git up and git." The slang was, as he intended it to be, very expressive and gave emphasis to the meaning which he intended to convey, which evidently was that a secretary or minister's usefulness is at an end when a portion of the people whom he serves are hostile to him, and that, if he be sincere in his devotion to the cause for which he is laboring, the only proper course for him to pursue is to stand aside and permit some other person to take his place. Mr. Moody's advice is pertinent and applicable to other than religious interests. It might be taken with profit to a political cause by a leader who has lost the confidence and incurred the opposition of any considerable number of the members of his own party. Certainly it would be if such a leader were more anxious for party success than for personal advantage.

PRIMARY CONTESTS.

Exciting and more or less bitter primary contests will be held in this city, by both parties, to-morrow afternoon. Among the Republicans the principal objective seems to be the party organization, which, as at present constituted, is not regarded as satisfactory to many members of the party. It is to be hoped, however, that the after effect, no matter what the result, will not be detrimental to party interests. So much is involved in the election to take place in November that it becomes Republicans, no matter how fierce their family quarrel may be, to close the ranks and stand shoulder to shoulder in efforts to secure the passage of an election law, at the next session of the Legislature, that will not disfranchise voters legitimately entitled to the suffrage. Outside of this district, presumably, whatever contests may take place will be of an individual character, and should not be carried beyond the county convention.

The two trains carrying Wallace Bros'. Circus collided in the Grand Trunk yards at Durand, Mich., on the 7th inst., causing one of the most fatal wrecks of the year. Twenty-three men, mostly employees of the circus, were killed and a still greater number seriously injured. The show was traveling in two sections over the Grand Trunk lines and the accident, it is said, was caused by the failure of the second train to stop in time. The two trains were running near each other and when the second train failed to slow down on reaching the yard it ran into the first at full speed. The engine of the second and four cars of the first section were completely demolished and much other valuable property was destroyed. The railroad officials unhesitatingly lay the blame for the accident on the engineer of the second train and say that he could have stopped the train in time. His defence is that the air-brakes failed to work.

A terrible catastrophe occurred at the National League baseball park in Philadelphia, on the 8th inst., resulting in the death of nine persons and the injury of nearly 300. A boardwalk which overhung the left-field bleachers gave way, under the heavy weight of an unusually large crowd of spectators, and fell to the ground. The walk, which is about three feet wide, was built at the top of the left-field seats and extended from the grand-stand to the end of the bleachers. It seems that a fight was in progress between two drunken men immediately below a part of this walk and that the overcrowding was due to the rush of the spectators to get a sight of the difficulty. The supports which held the walk to the brick wall were evidently rotten and these broke off flush with the wall, precipitating about two hundred feet of the boardwalk to the ground below.

The coronation of the new Pope of Rome took place on Sunday last and was an important event in the history of the Church. It was witnessed by a vast throng of people, estimated at 70,000, besides many of the princes and dignitaries of the Church, diplomats and Roman nobles. For the first time in its history it is said the cathedral of the great St. Peter's Church, in which the ceremony of coronation was performed, was filled with people to its utmost capacity. The ceremony was of the most magnificent character, and the great assemblage burst into unrestrained acclamations. The triple crown was placed upon the head of the new Pope by Cardinal Macchi, dean of the cardinal-deacons.

A Macedonian uprising has been growing rapidly and is reported to have reached serious proportions. According to recent dispatches from Constantinople the insurgents have burned many Turkish towns and massacred the inhabitants. It is reported that on August 5th a Turkish garrison of 52 men was completely annihilated, and the buildings destroyed by dynamite. The Macedonians affirm that they have been driven to desperation by the persecution of the Turks, and that they have determined to continue a vigorous war against their oppressors until they secure redress for their wrongs.

The season at Emory Grove was closed on the night of the 9th inst. Impressive services by the children marked the end of the meetings.

Mrs. Deliah L. Bair, mother of J. Emory Bair, and one of the oldest residents of Hanover, died at her home in that place on Sunday morning at 1 o'clock, aged 90 years, 9 months and 13 days. Death was due to a complication of diseases from which she had been suffering for a long time. She was the last of the family of the late George G. and Elizabeth Gitt.

A terrible tragedy occurred in the tunnel of a Paris electric railway, on the 10th inst., resulting in the death of over a hundred people. Two of the electric trains were running close together in the tunnel and a defective dynamo set fire to both trains, thus causing the death of nearly all the passengers. It is reported that no Americans were victims of the catastrophe.

The large plant of the Crandall-Long Furniture Campany, in the section of Hanover, Pa., known as West Hanover, was destroyed by fire on Monday night. The loss, which is estimated at $20,000, is nearly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

At a meeting of the Hagerstown Fair Association directors on Tuesday it was decided to hold the annual complimentary banquet to the members of the advisory boards on Saturday, September 19. The association is now composed of 11 counties in Maryland, Pennsylvania and the Virginias.

The Salvation Army Camp opened Thursday night at Glyndon Park. Toward sundown the Salvation Army band that will be in attendance during the camp formed into line and marched about the country roads playing the airs to which they sing their hymns.

The United States Weather Bureau has issued the following forecast for Friday and Saturday: Maryland, District of Columbia and Delaware, showers Friday and probably Saturday; fresh northeast to east winds.

Gen. Nelson A. Miles as the guest of the Maryland G. A. R. delegation, is on his way to attend the Grand Army national encampment at San Francisco. Gen. Miles is being strongly talked of for the next Commander-in-chief of the national organization.

The delegates elected by the Democratic county convention, at Towson, on Tuesday, to represent the county in the State convention were instructed to vote for Mr. Edwin Warfield for Governor.

The Department of Agriculture says: "In Iowa, Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia and Maryland the outlook for apples ranges from fair to good. In New York less than an averge crop is promised; elsewhere the crop is light."

Prof. John Ziegler, for 26 years the leader of the Pen-Mar Orchestra, died at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, on Sunday, of diabetes, with which he was attacked Friday at the Blue Mountain House.

The board of the Public Works had another hearing Wednesday on the application of the Western Maryland Railroad Company to bridge the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, and decided to refer the matter to an engineer.

Mrs. Maria Letitia Lish, who was in her one hundred and third year, died Wednesday afternoon at the Church Home and Infirmary, on North Broadway, Baltimore, of diseases incident to old age.

The board of naval officers which examined the battleship Massachusetts after the accident on Wednesday reports that the damage to the ship is serious.

William C. Bollinger, a farmer of Manchester, this county, also applied for the benefit of the bankuptcy law, by the same attorney. His liabilities are $1,159.05 and assets $25.

A Lawn Social.

One of the most enjoyable lawn socials of the season was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Zile, near New Windsor, in honor of their nephew Mr. Wm. N. Sellman, of Westminster. Everyone present seemed bent on having a good time, and even a shower did not seriously interfere with the pleasure of the evening, which was spent in vocal and instrumental music indoors, and the "old time party plays" on the lawn. About 11 P. M., all were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served in abundance. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Zile, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duvall, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Zile, Misses Mary Campbell, Grace Robertson, Gladys Townshend, Grace Royer, Clara Duvall, Fay Stoner, Ida Campbell, Ethel Ball, Beulah Robertson, Cora Harman, Bessie Bankerd, Elsie Harman, Elsie Duvall, Alice Owings, Mattie Harman, Denie Robertson, Blanche Royer, Nettie Brown, Laura and Ray Robertson, Blanche Baker, Elizabeth Bower, Messrs.
