It is stated from Washington that inspections of the Postoffice Department were recently sent by Fourth Assistant P. M. General Bristow, to this and other counties in which rural free delivery is in operation, for the purpose of investigating the system, with the intention of abolishing it and reintroducing the fourth class postoffices. Upon the protests of Senators and Representatives in Congress, however, the President interfered and ordered that the project be abandoned.

Attention is called to the dangerous practice of flying kites on the streets of this city. This morning a runaway from that cause was narrowly averted by Mr. James E. Smith, whose horse and buggy were standing on East Main street when a lad's kite fell in front of the animal and was then pulled up and over its head. The frightened horse broke loose and was only prevented from running away by the prompt appearance and action of Mr. Smith. Other cases of accident from a similar cause are reported.

Elias Jones, a colored man, was arrested and taken from a freight train in this city, on Monday, by Chief of Police Chauncey E. Jerome, acting upon a request of Sheriff McFerren, of Franklin County, who wired Officer Jerome that Jones had stabbed Samuel Chase, another colored man, at Montery Inn, on Sunday. Jones was the cook at the hotel and Chase a waiter. It is said that the latter, while intoxicated, went into the kitchen and cursed Jones, who seized a carving knife a foot long and thrust it through Chase's body. Chase was taken to a hospital in Baltimore and Jones fled. He was described by wire to Officer Jerome, who arrested him, as stated, and took him to the county jail. Sheriff McFerren came down on Monday afternoon and took Jones back to Chambersburg, he having consented to go without requiring a requisition.

Mr. Herman Zepp, formerly of this city, met with a severe and painful accident at Connellsville, Pa., on Saturday last. From an account of the accident, published in the Connellsville Courier, it appears that Mr. Zepp, who is employed by Messrs. S. S. Snader & Co., was putting in gas fixtures in a show window and was not aware that the window was without ventilation. He struck a match to test the connection and ascertain whether there were any leaks, when, instantly, the gas which had accumulated in the window ignited and flashed over his face, neck and arms, inflicting severe and painful burns. The burns received proper treatment from Dr. H. J. Coll, of Connellsville, and a few days subsequently Mr. Zepp was able to come to the home of his mother, Mrs. Bettie Zepp, on Liberty street this city. He is now able to be about and will fully recover, but it will be a long time before the marks left by the blazing gas will disappear.

On Wednesday evening a party was given by Miss Margaret and Miss Josephine Reese, of this city, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Reese, in honor of their cousins, Misses Anna and Caroline Shriver, of Waynesboro, Pa. The feature of the evening was dancing and the young people "tripped the light fantastic toe" till nearly midnight, when an elaborate collation was served. The dancing was then continued until the sweetly melancholy strains of "Home Sweet Home" were wafted to the ears of the happy revellers, making a fitting close to a most pleasant evening. Those present were: Misses Annie and Caroline Shriver, of Waynesboro, Pa.; Miss Marie Green, of Baltimore city, Md.; Misses Nell Schaeffer, Emma Shriver, Sadie Shriver, Josephine Mathias, Marie Franklin, Eleanor Fouke, Anna Shriver, Camille Bonnotte, Julia Wells, Margaret and Josephine Reese, of Westminster; Messrs. Abner Parke, John Shriver, William Simpson, Ferdinand Bonnotte, W. Dulany Reese, and C. Gloyd Lynch, of Westminster; and W. B. Seabrook, of South Carolina.

John Royer, administrator of Mary Royer, deceased, settled second and final account.

Democratic County Conventions.

Two Democratic county conventions were held at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Monday, one for the purpose of electing delegates to the State convention and the other to nominate candidates for the General Assembly, and county officers.

The first convention was called to order by Mr. Benj. F. Crouse, a member of the State Central Committee. Mr. T. Herbert Shriver, of Union Mills, was elected chairman and Mr. Wm. Walden, of Middleburg, secretary.

A committee of one from each district, on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions, was appointed, as follows:

Taneytown, Wm. E. Burke; Uniontown, E. Lee Erb; Myers', Charles H. Knipple; Woolery's, Vernon Reese; Freedom, Wade H. D. Warfield; Manchester, Jacob A. Frederick; Westminster, Michael A. Doyle; Hampstead, J. Oliver Murray; Franklin, F. A. Crawford; Middleburg, James W. White; New Windsor, Dennis A. Smith; Union Bridge, Wm. J. Crabbs; Mt. Airy, Oscar M. Spurrier.

The committee promptly reported the credentials of delegates in proper shape, recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent, and submitted resolutions exploiting the Democratic party, and eulogizing Mr. Edwin Warfield and pledging the delegates to vote for his nomination for Governor.

Twelve delegates, with five-twelfths of a vote each, were elected to the State convention, by acclamation, as follows: B. F. Crouse, Charles E. Fink, Dr. F. T. Shaw, of Westminster; J. A. Frederick, of Manchester; Charles Jones, of New Windsor; Albert Wilson, of Franklin district; Wade H. D. Warfield, of Freedom district; W. L. Richards, of Woolery's district; T. H. Shriver, of Myers' district; Peter Buchman, of Hampstead district; Albert Jones, of Mt. Airy district, and James W. White, of Middleburg district.

The adjournment of this convention was immediately followed by the organization of the nominating convention, which was called to order by Charles E. Fink, Esq., chairman of the county central committee. Frank I. Lewis, of Mount Airy district, was made chairman, and Wade H. D. Warfield secretary.

The first business transacted after the temporary organization was the appointment of the following committee on organization: Wm. E. Burke, Taneytown; Guy M. C. Cookson, Uniontown; R. N. Koontz, Myers'; John G. Hoffman, Woolery's; Dr. M. D. Norris, Freedom; J. W. Hoffacker, Manchester; Dr. T. J. Coonan, Westminster; Peter Buchman, Hampstead; Thos. J. Gunn, Franklin; Emory L. Warner, Middleburg; Ephraim Haines, New Windsor; Henry R. Fuss, Union Bridge; T. P. Jones, Mt. Airy.

The committee subsequently reported the credentials correct and recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent. The report was adopted and a recess taken until 2 o'clock. Upon reassembling the convention proceeded to the nomination of candidates, in the order below, with the result stated:

Clerk of the Court—David P. Smelser, of New Windsor district.

Register of Wills—Dr. J. J. Stewart, of Myers' district.

State Senator—Johnzie E. Baesman, of Freedom district, the present senator.

Sheriff—William H. Wilson, of Manchester district.

County Commissioner—George E. Benson, of Woolery's district.

Judges of Orphans' Court—George R. Rupp, of Hampstead district; A. K. Myers, of Uniontown district; John E. Eckenrode, of Westminster district.

House of Delegates—Joseph H. Kain, of Mount Airy district; Jesse W. Fuss, of Union Bridge district; James D. Haines, of Uniontown district, and A. F. Oursler, of Woolery's district.

County Treasurer—Francis L. Hann, of Hampstead district.

State's Attorney—Guy W. Steele, of Westminster district.

County Surveyor—M. T. Yeiser, of Myers' district.

The following were nominated by acclamation: David P. Smelser, for clerk of the court; J. E. Baesman, for state senator; George E. Benson, for county commissioner, and M. T. Yeiser for county surveyor.

The nomination for register of wills was most closely contested and the balloting for this nomination was attended with great excitement. On the first ballot none of the three candidates—Dr. J. W. Stewart, Dr. T. J. Coonan, and Dr. C. W. Weaver—received the thirty-three votes which are necessary to a nomination. As Coonan and Stewart were in the lead Dr. Weaver withdrew and a second ballot was taken, resulting in the nomination of Dr. Stewart, who polled 35 votes to Dr. Coonan's 30.

There were three candidates for sheriff, the nominee, W. H. Wilson, receiving 49 votes to 11 for J. L. Franklin, of Westminster, and 5 for R. N. Caple, of Woolery's district.

There were six candidates before the convention for judges of the Orphans' Court, but the three were nominated on the first ballot. Myers and Eckenrode each received 60 votes, while Rupp received 46. This will make an entire change in the personnel of the court if the ticket is elected.

L. E. Lyons, of Woolery's district, also ran for the nomination for House of Delegates, but only received 23 votes.

Mr. Hann, for county treasurer, was antagonized by the present incumbent, J. E. Masenheimer, but Mr. Masenheimer only received 22 votes to the 43 for the nominee.

The surprise of the convention to those not in the confidence of the party managers was the nomination for State's Attorney. It is alleged that Mr. Weant had the assurance that, if he would refrain from making a contest in the primaries, he should certainly receive the nomination. He, it is said by his friends, consented to the arrangement and kept it in good faith, only defending himself in districts in which he was attacked. But his confidence was misplaced and his opponent in the convention was nominated by about a two-thirds vote. Treachery in the case is freely charged and the indignation of many of Mr. Weant's friends at the treatment to which he was subjected is extreme.

COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Members of the Democratic County Central Committee are chosen by the delegates to the convention from the several districts, respectively, and the new committee was thus named, as follows:

Taneytown district.—W. E. Burke, David Clousher, Dr. C. W. Weaver.

Uniontown district.—A. W. Wagner, Guy McC. Cookson, E. O. Doderer.

Myers' district.—Dr. J. J. Stewart, R. N. Koontz, A. G. Humbert.

Woolery's district.—John G. Hoffman, Lawrence E. Lyons, Frank Eckenrode.

Freedom district.—Basil Dorsey, S. D. Shipley, L. S. Bennett, Albert A. Dorsey, Wade H. D. Warfield.

Manchester district.—John R. Strevig, Albert R. Lippy, Jacob A. Frederick.

Westminster district—Charles E. Fink, William T. Lucabaugh, Harry C. Hesson, Dr. Thomas J. Coonan, Dr. J. T. Hering.

Hampstead district.—George P. Fuhrman, Peter Buchman, Lee C. Leister.

Franklin district.—T. Jeff. Gunn, F. D. Zepp, A. Q. Wilson.

Middleburg district.—William W. Walden, James W. White, E. O. Weant.

New Windsor district.—David P. Smelser, Chas. Jones, John W. Myers.

Union Bridge district.—C. D. Spurrier, Harry R. Fuss, Harry O. Haines.

Mt. Airy district.—Oscar M. Spurrier, Chas. A. Runkles, W. E. Kain.

Reformed Church Reunion.

The fifth annual reunion of the Reformed Churches of this county was held on Thursday at Silver Run, and was attended by a very large number of members of that denomination throughout the county. In addition to social features, recreation and amusements, anthems were sung by the choirs of Silver Run, Baust, Pleasant Valley and Manchester churches, and several hymns by the assembled multitude; an address of welcome was made by the pastor of St. Mary's Church, Silver Run, Rev. J. Stewart Hartman, and a response by Rev. James B. Stonesifer, of Salem charge, near this city. Rev. M. O. Noll, of Carlisle, Pa., delivered an address on "The Pedigree of Brother Jonathan." Several trombone solos were rendered by Mr. Giede, of Harrisburg, Pa.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Mary Cook.

Mrs. Mary Cook, a widow, of Littlestown, Pa., died suddenly last Sunday week after partaking of a hearty meal, aged 70 years. She was a native of Carroll county, and leaves three children—Mrs. Ida Riley, of Baltimore; Mrs. Joseph Dotterer, of Hagerstown; and Mrs. Henry Boward, of Pittsburg.

Mrs. Samuel D. Shipley.

Mrs. Shipley, wife of Mr. Samuel D. Shipley, a former resident of this city, died, at her home in Sykesville, on Saturday last, in her thirty-third year. Funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Sykesville, on Tuesday, and her remains were interred in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Mary P. Fowler.

Mrs. Mary P., wife of Mr. Noah Fowler, residing near the Pool of the Westminster Water Company, died on Tuesday of last week, after a long illness, aged 53 years. Mrs. Fowler was a daughter of the late Ambrose Hayden. Her husband survives her and she leaves one sister, Miss Susie Hayden, of this city, and three brothers, one of whom resides in Dickeyville, Md., and the other two in Chambersburg, Pa. After funeral services her remains were interred in St. John's Catholic Church cemetery, this city, on Thursday.

George Hilterbrick.

Mr. George Hilterbrick, one of Littletown's, Pa., wealthiest citizens, after an illness of several years from the infirmities of old age, died at his residence on Monday morning, aged 80 years, 8 months and 28 days. He was born Nov. 12th, 1822, in Taneytown district, this county, and was the son of John H. and Catharine Slider Hilterbrick. He was united in marriage to Miss Margaret E. Mehring by Rev. E. P. Rosenmiller, on Nov. 21st, 1854. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mehring, of Germany township, Pa. Deceased is survived by four sons, John H., near Taneytown; George W., near Littlestown, Pa.; Samuel D., near Kingsdale, Pa.; and Luther N., of Hanover, Pa.; and by two daughters, Mrs. Wm. Reigle, of Littlestown, and Mrs. Joshua Biehl, of Germany township, Adams county, Pa. Mr. Hilterbrick was a strong Republican in politics and was a member of the Lutheran church.

Mrs. Angeline Snader.

Mrs. Angeline Snader, wife of Mr. Levi N. Snader, a retired merchant and prominent resident of this city, died with startling suddenness a few minutes after 12 o'clock on Wednesday. She was preparing to take a drive, and her husband was on the porch of their residence on Green street, awaiting her appearance, when the sound of a body falling in her bed chamber attracted attention, and upon a member of the household going to her room she was found dead on the floor. Her death was caused by apoplexy and heart disease. Mrs. Snader was 72 years old. She was twice married, her first husband having been the late Uriah Greenwood, by whom she leaves one son, Bradford H. Greenwood, of Dennings. She was a daughter of the late Abraham Albaugh and the last survivor of a family of five brothers and four sisters—the late Dr. Amos Albaugh, of Baltimore county; Abraham, George P., Henry B. and David Albaugh, Mrs. Elijah Wagoner, Mrs. Isaac C. Forrest and Mrs. Amon Miller, of this county, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Wagoner having been her half sisters. Mrs. Snader was an estimable and amiable lady and had many warm friends. Deep sympathy is felt for her husband in this sad bereavement. Funeral services were held this morning at 11 o'clock, at Bethel M. E. Church, Sams Creek. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Charles E. Goodwin, Harry C. Albaugh, Dr. Eugene Albaugh, Messrs. Jesse Albaugh, Geo. W. Albaugh and Charles F. Miller, Jr.

Mrs. Mary Freeman.

Mrs. Mary Freeman, widow of the late Joseph Freeman, of Frizellburg, died at her home in that place, at 5 o'clock this morning, in her 77th year. Mrs. Freeman was a lady of estimable character, amiable and loving disposition and kind and charitable impulses. She was venerated and respected in the highest degree by the people of Frizellburg and vicinity, among whom she had lived for many years. She was a member of Baust Lutheran Church and a sincere and devout christian. Eleven children—two daughters and nine sons—survive her. They are: Mrs. John Koontz, Mrs. John Sell, Mr. Harvey C. Freeman, of Frizellburg; Messrs. John Lawrence and Charles W. Freeman, of Baltimore; Samuel W. Freeman, of Washington, D. C.; William J., George R., Frank M., Scott W., and Thomas M. Freeman, of Pittsburg, Pa. She also leaves two brothers and three sisters—Messrs. George Ramby, of Washington, D. C.; Benton Ramby, of Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Justina Hiteshew, of Hanover, Pa.; Mrs. William Carr, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Jennie Neff, of Kansas. Mrs. Freeman's husband and two of her sons, John L. and Samuel M., served in the Union Army during the Civil War. Funeral services on Sunday afternoon, from her late residence, at 2 o'clock. Interment at Benjamin's Cemetery, near this city.

WESTMINSTER - AND - MANCHESTER.

Manchester Items.

Saturday last was our busy day. Two primary meetings and two games of baseball between 12 M. and 6 P. M., made it a hustling time for both political and ball enthusiasts. For several weeks there were indications that there would be a triangular contest in the Democratic primary, and even up to the hour of balloting there seemed to be a fight on hand, but conservative counsels prevailed and there was but one ticket in the field. Only 121 votes were cast, many persons not voting after the settlement of differences. The Republican primary was held at the usual time and place, and was, as usual, a tame affair.

By 2 P. M. the crowd on the diamond became impatient and took up the cry "play ball," when the Hanover team responded to the call of Umpire LaMotte and crossed bats with our seniors. The lineup was:

Hanover.		Manchester.
Barnhart,	p.	Loats,
Bortner,	c.	Theiret,
Welsh,	1b.	Myers,
Holliday,	2b.	Hoffman,
Stall,	3b.	LaMotte,
Martin,	ss.	H. Miller,
Long,	rf.	Burgoon,
Bair,	lf.	Kneller,
Hoffman.	cf.	W. Miller.

The visitors started out with the determination to shut out the seniors and held them down until the 6th inning, and when they awoke from their nervous dreams and began to play ball, so that at the outcome they were quite jubilant. The score was:

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	t'l
Hanover.	2	1	1	0	0	0	2	0	0	6
Manchester.	0	0	0	0	0	2	2	1	0	5

About the time the above game had progressed one-half, a junior nine arrived from Hanover to play our juniors, which game followed right after the seniors, with Black and Garrett battery for Hanover, and Myers and Theiret for Manchester. It resulted in a score of 9 to 8 in favor of Manchester. Theiret, in trying to take a hot ball, had the little finger of the right hand split quite badly and two of the Hanover seniors went home with badly sprained ankles.

The ladies of Trinity Mite Society held a festival in the Hoffacker store room, on Saturday evening, which was quite a success, socially and financially. The room was decorated in the national colors and the front illuminated with Chinese lanterns. An art gallery, presided over by Miss Lotta Shower, was quite a hit, as well as a success in revenue. They netted $24.50 for church purposes.

The question of telephone poles on the street was decided last Saturday. When the C. & P. men began to dig holes on South Main street, the contractor found the opposition so strong against the street route, and the advantages of the alley route so superior on account of no trees to contend with, that the latter was taken and the poles were planted on Monday. Both corps of workmen were busy in town.

Daniel Items.

Word has been received here from Mr. R. N. Conaway announcing the safe arrival of himself and party in California. Mr. Conaway will endeavor, while at Los Angeles, to locate his aunt, Mrs. Columbus Conaway; also several cousins at that place. The route to California at first contemplated through the South was abandoned because some of the older veterans feared the consequences of the climate at this season. By this decision they will traverse the same route each way, namely the Western route. The entire trip will be made in a special Pullman sleeping car.
