SIDE ONE

Chester Town Nov.r the 5th 1774

Dear Sir

I should have answered before now your Favour of the 29th Ult.o ~~when~~ but the Brigs Destination was not determined before to day she goes for Lisbon on Acct of the Sale of herself ~~which is determined~~ It is apprehended she will sell much better there than at Bristol and it seems to go to Bristol and not sell nothing could be brought back from thence. I wish it had suited you to have bought a Cargo of Wheat on this side the Bay and am very glad to hear your New Yorkers Cargo of Flour arrived safe at so good a Market, such Hitts makes every thing run smooth. M'Carmichals Order on Mr. Brown will be paid in all this Week which will be in time and if any Opportunity offers by
