1774 NOV. 26 WILL[IAM] McCracken to James Clinton

SIDE ONE

Dear Sir New point Comfort Nov. 26th 1774

I got here last night after a very fatiguing and disagreeable passage in the pilot boat the people in her were so ignorant of the bay and working the boat that I was obliged to be up both day & night I got at last such a cold that I was obliged to go ashore to Coll.o Fitzhughes to get nursed I was very sick for 24 hours and so sore throat I ther was afraid I should not be able to proceed in the ship Mrs Fitzhughes care and tenderness my great knowledge in physic but I believe above all, by the goodness of constitution I got so much better as to be able to proceed in the boat about 20 hours after I got ashore at Fitzhughes I am thank God pretty well recovered I found very
