ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOV. 3rd, 1903.

Horrifying accounts of Turkish atrocities come from Macedonia. In the vilayet or province of Monastir it is said that 50,000 to 60,000 of the Christian inhabitants have been butchered by the Turks. Some of the outrages perpetrated have been of the most inhuman character. The Sultan has ordered the expulsion of newspaper correspondents from the scene, doubtless fearing that the popular sentiment may be aroused to such an extent, by the publication of these atrocities, as to force the Powers to interfere with his soldiers in their apparent purpose to exterminate the Christians. Yet the Powers, apparently apprehensive that some of them may profit more than others by such interference, hold aloof and permit the Turk, in his religious frenzy, to murder the defenceless Christians, including old men, women and children, and to pillage their villages, and burn and destroy their homes. No mere question of policy can justify the Christian Powers of Europe in refraining from taking swift vengeance on the ruthless and savage Mahomedans who are thus venting their fiendish hate upon the followers of the Redeemer of the World.

MR. EDWARD G. RICHARDSON.

The Carroll county members of the Republican State Central Committee, who were authorized by the nominating convention, recently held in this city, to fill any vacancies that might occur on the ticket, have selected Mr. Edward G. Richardson, of Wakefield Valley, New Windsor district, to take the place made vacant by the declination of Mr. C. Edgar Nusbaum as a candidate for the House of Delegates. The selection was made after consultation with the other candidates on the ticket and with the County Central Committee, and it gives general satisfaction. Mr. Richardson is a son of the late James H. Richardson, for many years a prominent citizen of this county. He was, until a few years ago, engaged in farming, and has a practical knowledge of that important industry. During the Paris Exposition he made a trip to Europe and spent two months in the French Capital. He was a close observer and acquired much valuable information. Returning home he made a tour of his own country, extending his travels to the far off Pacific coast.

Mr. Richardson's home is in Wakefield Valley, where he owns and resides on one of the finest farms in that far-famed locality. In the winters of the past three years he and his family have spent much time in Baltimore and he has thus added greatly to his knowledge of men and affairs. He is a man of intelligence and high character and an admirable candidate for the General Assembly. His nomination will materially strengthen the ticket.

Ex-State Senator Gustavus A. Dobler, of the firm of Dobler & Mudge, 113 Hopkins Place, Baltimore, died Friday afternoon of last week, at his country residence, on Carroll avenue extended, Waverly, after a lingering illness of Bright's disease. Mr. Dobler had been ill for the past four months. He was connected with many charitable and financial institutions in Baltimore, and was one of the oldest and leading members of St. Peter's English Lutheran Church. He was born in Elizabethtown, N. J., 64 years ago, and for many years he had been engaged in the wholesale paper business in Baltimore. In 1896 he was elected to the State Senate from the First legislative district as a Republican, and while a member of that body introduced and had passed several laws which have proven to be very beneficial to the state.

Maryland Collegiate Institute Notes.

Friends of Md. Collegiate Institute, of Union Bridge, will be interested to know that her fourth formal opening, which occurred Tuesday, Sept. 8th, at 10.30 a. m., proved to be the most promising she has ever known.

Many interested people, despite the rain, attended the exercises which began by singing, reading from the scriptures, 3rd chapter of Proverbs, 21 verses, by Elder T. Fike, of West Virginia, followed by prayer and song, after which Elder A. J. Garber, of Washington, D. C., in his earnest and interesting manner ably and fittingly addressed a large number of enthusiastic and appreciative friends and students upon the subject of education and the varied circumstances under which the desired end is reached. Among other things he said, in substance: Take the student of to-day, educate him liberally and practically, morally and religiously, following the natural, God-given bent of his mind.

Civilization and education go hand in hand and are to-day in a higher degree of advancement than ever before. Failure in life comes from indifference, laziness and want of integrity.

Pluck not luck, a high and steady aim, trusting in God, is the secret of success, the crown of your efforts found at the top of the hill of endeavor.

Students are fortunate to be young in this day of great educational advantages. Start right, keep right and you will end right.

If you get wrong you must begin over to get right. Take care of your principle, never sacrifice it for any purpose. Keep in view the great central source of light which, as the headlight on an engine, illuminates the path before you. Fear not though your lot in life be humble. Born in obscurity and poverty in a sterile region in Kentucky a youth of unconquerable determination in the line of noble purpose adorned the highest seat of honor in the gift of our nation; he liberated thousands from the shackles of slavery. A grateful, mourning nation inscribes his name on its historic page in everlasting honor. Thank God for our Republican government, whose highest honors lie within the possible achievement of the humblest youth. While money is to be desired to keep the wolf from the door it is not properly the controlling influence.

Mr. Garber in his closing remarks urged all students to give prominence to Bible study. It is history, prophecy, poetry, the law of life here and through all eternity. It is the best of all books. It is THE BOOK.

Murdered By a Boy.

Charles Jones, a colored boy aged 12 years, has confessed to the murder of Caroline Link, a white woman, who was found lying unconscious on the floor in the dining room of George Hoffman, No. 740 West Baltimore street, Baltimore, on the 28th ult., and subsequently died from wounds inflicted on her head with a prop stick taken from a cart. The boy detailed the several steps of his crime, which he had contemplated for a day or two, robbery of Mr. Hoffman's store having been his object. He took the prop stick from the cart the night before the murder and concealed it. In the morning he wrapped it in paper and went with it to the neighborhood of the store, where he saw Miss Link washing the window. He kept out of the way until she entered the house and then followed her. He concealed himself behind a door and as she passed it struck her on the head with the stick. She fell to her knees and attempted to rise, but he struck her again and she fell forward on her face. He heard footsteps overhead and ran to the money drawer but it was empty. He then grabbed some taffy and fled. Miss Link never regained consciousness and died on the Sunday following.

The boy became implicated in a robbery later, with two other colored boys, James Thomas and Harry Young, and it was thought that possibly they might have had some connection with Miss Link's death, although not the slightest clue to the perpetrator of the crime had been discovered. By the skillful arts of the detectives Jones was led to charge the boy Thomas with the crime and his story was corroborated by the boy Young. The detectives did not believe it, however, and finally led Jones into such contradictions that he confessed the crime and told all about how he had perpetrated it. It is a most remarkable case of youthful depravity, and the detectives are entitled to much credit for the promptness and celerity with which the young fiend who perpetrated the crime was discovered.

Miss Rosie Spicer, daughter of Mr. William Spicer, of Ekio, Baltimore county, and Mr. Henry D. Shriver, of Hanover, Pa., were married in the Methodist Episcopal Church at the former place on Thursday afternoon of last week, the pastor, Rev. J. W. Fleming, performing the marriage ceremony. After a reception Mr. and Mrs. Shriver left for Niagara and a trip through the North.

On Sunday night snow fell on the mountains between Colorado Springs and Cripple Creek, Col., and also on the Continental divide, covering the whole range to the depth of several feet and obstructing railroad travel.

A large new barn on the farm of S. Clinton Cramer, near Woodsboro, Frederick county, was burned a few days ago, with 1,500 bushels of wheat and 35 tons of hay. The barn caught from straw set on fire by the threshing engine.

Hail and lightning created a panic at a Sunday-school picnic in the Middletown Valley, Frederick county, last Saturday afternoon.

CHARLES C. GORSUCH, President. JOHN T. BROWN, Secretary and Treasurer.

N. I. GORSUCH SON Co.

INCORPORATED.

Please bear in mind that we are doing business at the same place, where for 20 years it has been our effort to please our patrons. Many of the older men, with whom we did business have been succeeded on the farm by their sons and tenants. It is to them we appeal. If you don't know us come and get acquainted with us. We propose to do the same reliable business that was conducted by our predecessor. We handle the same well known that they handled, made better than ever and especially adapted to our land. Give us a trial this fall. Exchange some Rye Straw for Fertilizer.

Brands of Fertilizer

You Will Find None Better as to Quality or Condition and Lowest Prices.

WHEAT! WHEAT!!

Don't forget us when you sell your Wheat. We can use 500 bushels a day. It takes quantities of wheat in our mill and we must have it; prices guaranteed. We also have our own make. Why buy Western Feed when you can get home-made feed, which all admit is much better, and you can get for the same price as the Western feed.

We want all the

that is grown within a radius of 12 miles from Westminster. Give us a call whenever you have any produce to sell.

Yours Respectfully,

N. I. GORSUCH SON Co.,
