Judge Jones reserved his decision. This is one of the most important cases considered by the Circuit Court for this county for many years and excites great public interest.

A Word of Caution.

Postmaster Baughman, of this city, in requesting us to "publish a word of caution to the people of this community against the dropping of money with letters in the U. S. collection boxes," says:

"Two cents do not send a letter. A letter must be properly stamped before it is mailed. Letters with loose money found in collection boxes are liable to be held for postage and the money sent to the Dead Letter Office. It frequently happens that a number of letters are found in one box with insufficient money to pay postage on all. In such cases all of the letters must be held and the money sent to the Dead Letter Office. Postoffice officials are not only not required but are forbidden to affix stamps to mail matter. Letters properly stamped will be promptly forwarded while unstamped letters are almost certain to be delayed. The city carriers are supplied with stamps and will sell them to patrons if the proper change is offered."

Five shares Westminster Deposit and Trust Company at $175.00, par value $100.00. to D. Snider Stephan.

National Camp, P. O. S. of A.

The National Camp of the Patriotic Order Sons of America met in business session in Baltimore on Tuesday, the first session opening with an eloquent address of welcome by Prof. Wm. J. Heapes, formerly of this county, president of the Maryland State camp. In the absence of National President A. J. Colbourn, Jr., of Scranton, Pa., National Vice President Edward S. Doan, of New York City, presided.

The entire morning session was taken up with the reports of standing committees and other routine business.

The statistical reports of the national secretary and treasurer showed the order to have reached the highest mark in its history, both as to membership and financial strength. The gain in members in the last year has been very heavy, 10,000 new names having been added to the lists during the last 12 months, or almost as many as in any two previous years.

The treasurer's report on the mortuary showed a disbursement of $29,635,71.

Dedication of Firemen's Building at Hampstead.

According to previous announcement the Hampstead Fire Company's new building was dedicated on Saturday last. The day was propitious and the event attracted the attendance of a large crowd of people. The thriving town of Hampstead was in holiday attire on the occasion, almost every building in the place having been decorated with flags and bunting. The ceremony of dedication was preceded by a parade of firemen, with bands of music in the following order:

Alesia Band and Hampstead Fire Company, with the company's apparatus for fighting fires.

A delegation of the Westminster Fire Department.

The Pleasant Hill Band, heading a finely equipped fire company from Hanover, Pa., which, on the line of march, engaged in some intricate evolutions, which were skillfully performed.

The dedicatory exercises were opened with singing, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," followed with prayer, by Rev. S. F. Tholan, of Hampstead. Mr. Edward C. Tipton, then, acting as master of ceremonies, briefly stated the object of the day's proceedings to be the dedication of the Hall and further said, among other things:

"The Hampstead Volunteer Fire Engine and Hose Company No. 1 was organized in January, 1900, with 35 members, and has steadily increased, until we have nearly double the number.

"The company started with nothing but a truck, but by work and perseverance they now own a chemical engine, truck and 30 full uniforms, all of which are paid for.

"They have now gone to work and built themselves a nice home, one which is a credit to themselves and the community in general."

At the conclusion of his remarks he introduced Rev. D. M. Browning, of Hampstead, who delivered an appropriate and pleasant address of welcome to the visiting firemen and others.

After music by the Alesia Band, Hon. Wm. Long, of Hanover, who has taken a deep interest in the firemen of that place, was introduced and delivered an interesting address.

Miss Lola Fuhrman, of Hampstead, then sang, with excellent effect, "Redemption," as a solo, and Mr. John H. Cunningham, of this city, ex-president of the Maryland Volunteer Firemen's Association, made a brief, but pertinent address.

Following music by one of the bands, Rev. J. P. Wilson, of Hampstead, was introduced and made the closing address, and after a prayer, music by the Pleasant Hill Band, and the doxology, the exercises were concluded with the benediction, by Rev. S. J. Derr, of Hampstead.

At night an exhibition drill and the suppression of a sham fire were given by the Hampstead Fire Company.

A bazaar and festival is being held in the new Hall for the benefit of the company, and will continue until tomorrow evening.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW.

We pride ourselves on always having something new to offer to the patrons of this store. This is easy because we are constantly growing and adding new departments. We have added three new lines during the past year and we have another that we will soon bring out. We know that it will be a glad surprise to all and especially to the girls. Watch for it.

Banner Fashions and Fashion Sheets.

This is a most important addition to our Dress Goods Department. We have put in a complete stock of Banner Patterns, one of the best makes on the market and sold at popular prices, 10 and 15 cents, none higher. There are nearly 4,000 patterns in the lot, so we are pretty sure to have just what you want. We will also have monthly Fashion Sheets, showing all the latest styles as they come out. These are free, come in and get them.

Two Special Bargains in Hosiery.

Two special purchases, both at less than market price. 50 doz. men's heavy gray Hose, regular 10 cent grade, but some of them are seconds, no holes though and we want you to examine them and see how good they are, to sell at 6 cents. They are a real bargain.

6 Cents.

Also another big lot of boys' heavy black Hose, in ribbed goods, fast black, fine quality and worth always 15 cents, but for this lot, only 11 cents. Just the thing for school wear.

11 Cents.

Underwear Specials.

Ladies' Union Suits, never before sold for less than 50 cents, but this special lot we can sell for only 25 cents each. See them.

25 Cents.

Ladies' fine Undervests, better than other stores sell for 25 cents, here for 19 cents. If you doubt the quality of these it is only necessary to compare them. Such values as this cannot be found elsewhere.

19 Cents.

Carpets and Rugs.

Carpets are very scarce this year because of the fact that the mills could not get enough raw material to make up, but by placing our orders very early, we have protected ourselves and are prepared to offer you the best values to be found. You must see our stock before you buy. Another special lot of those pretty Brussels Rugs at 39 cents.

Ladies' Kid Gloves.

Another big lot of those fine Kid Gloves for ladies at 58 cents the pair. Every pair of these we sold last year, and we sold hundreds of them, so far as we know, gave satisfaction. It is positively the best glove bargain we have ever shown. All sizes and all colors and black.

58 Cents the Pair.

A Few of the Basement Specials.

20 cent Butcher Knives	10c.
35 cent Butcher Knives	19c.
Best Tin Cans made	35c doz.
Best Red Lunch Boxes	5c.
Granite Kettles with lids, worth 45c, only	31c.
White China Bowls, worth 12 cents, only	7c.

A number of odds and ends in Chinaware very cheap.

The New Game "Flinch."

All the rage and you are missing a good thing if you have not one for these winter evenings. Lots of fun.

50 Cents.

Daniel Items.

Miss Blanche Fossett, of Baltimore, who had been visiting her parents, has returned to the city.

Miss Bertha Jenkins is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Rev. B. W. Meeks, of Baltimore, is a guest at Mr. Horace L. Shipley's.

Gamber Items.

Columbus, Clarence and Harry Jenkins, who have been very sick with typhoid fever for the past five or six weeks, are, we are glad to say, somewhat improved.

Mr. W. S. Gamber, one of the old residents of our village, and his family contemplate moving to Baltimore county in the early future, there to engage in merchandising and farming.

Mrs. William Preston, of Baltimore, is spending a couple of weeks with friends here.

Our farmers are very busy seeding and cutting off corn. Corn is a fair crop.

Mr. D. T. Buckingham has completed the new bridge at Griffee's Ford, which takes the place of one destroyed by the flood some time since.

Mr. Robert E. Barnes opened school at Freedom with 39 scholars and says that the attendance is very good.

A couple of women of our village got into an altercation one day last week in which harsh language and hair-pulling were chief features and on last Saturday their case was tried before Justice Hill who imposed a fine of $5 and cost upon the aggressor.
