ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOV. 3rd, 1903.

Election, Tuesday Next.

How many men placed as Mr. Williams was by the ungentlemanly utterances of his adversary, with regard to Mr. Archer, would simply have stated the plain legal aspect of the case as he did, instead of entering into details, which would have been very embarrassing to prominent democrats all over the State.

It is hard to estimate just how many votes Mr. Warfield lost by his unfortunate Stevenson Archer allusion. It has caused comment favorable to Mr. Williams and of condemnation of Warfield all over the State. It should be remembered, too, that every vote Mr. Williams gains by it means two lost to Warfield.

Voters are advised to scan their ballots carefully to see that the only marks upon them shall be those made in the squares or boxes to the right of the names of the candidates for whom they intend to vote. Ballots upon which there may be blots or blurs, or in which holes may be torn, or punched, or from which pieces, however small, may be torn, will be classed as defective and will be thrown out.

The polls will be opened on Tuesday next, November 3rd, at 8 o'clock in the morning and closed at 6 o'clock in the evening. It is highly important that every Republican vote in the county shall be polled for the nominees of the party, and no risk of failure to do this should be taken by delaying to vote till near the closing hour. Republicans, vote early and be sure you vote in a manner to insure the counting of your ballots.

Aged or decrepid persons, or those having defective eyesight should be especially careful in marking their ballots at the election on Tuesday. A trifling extension of the mark over one of the lines of the square in which it is to be made will cause the rejection of the entire ticket. See to it, Republican voters of Carroll county, that this shall not occur, in your case, on Tuesday next. In the square immediately to the right of the word Republican place a mark similar to this X and don't let any part of the mark touch a line of the square.

HOW TO VOTE.

In general outline the list of official nominations published in the SENTINEL last week and to be found on the fourth page of this week's issue, is a sample of the ballot to be voted at the election next Tuesday. We advise our Republican readers to study it carefully and to be prepared to mark the ballot, which they shall vote, correctly. To do this will require extraordinary caution. Whoever, in this county, desires to vote for every officer to be elected must make his mark in eighteen of the squares immediately to the right of the name of the party to which the candidate belongs. The word Republican occurs on the ticket eighteen times and the X properly made in each of the squares to the right of it will cause it to be a full Republican vote. The mark must be made, as nearly as possible, in this shape: X and neither of its lines must touch the lines of the box, or square in which it is to be made.

To do this will require great care, as only the indelible pencil to be found in the booth can be used. Marking with any other pencil will cause the ballot to be rejected. If in marking a mistake should be made and the voter becomes aware of it his only remedy is to return the ballot to the clerk and get another. If a mistake should be made in marking that he can get a third one, but no more, and his time in doing all this must be limited to seven minutes.

The ballot must be folded as it was when delivered to the voter and then taken to the judges of election to whom the voter must announce his name.

From all this it must be understood that undue haste in marking and folding the ballot may result in its rejection by causing it to be defective. Our advice to voters is to be deliberate and cautious and to make haste slowly. Put your mark in the square to the right of the word Republican wherever it appears, if it be your purpose to vote a full Republican ticket, and a ballot thus marked will count for all the candidates of the Republican party.

Republicans, Attention!!

Next Tuesday, November 3rd, is Election Day. See that you go to the Polls and vote for the Republican Candidates. They are all worthy of your support.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF.

It becomes more evident every day that the political contest in Maryland, in the year of Our Lord 1903, is a repetition of the battle for good government in the State in 1895. The same old Democratic Ring, with Gorman and Rasin at its head, is opposing the Republicans and Independent Democrats in their efforts to throw off the galling yoke of the same oligarchy which then ruled the State as with a rod of iron. The same methods are being resorted to now, as then, to defraud the people of the just effect of their ballots, and to turn a substantial majority into a hopeless minority.

In Baltimore a system of false registration has been discovered by the Reform League, just as that organization unearthed a similar system in 1895. Then, as now, large numbers of persons were registered as voters from the neighborhood of Marsh Market Space and then, as now, registered letters addressed to the parties whose names were placed on the lists as qualified voters, were returned undelivered, no such persons having been found at the numbers indicated as their residences. This scheme appears to have been worked for all that is in it. Dozens of persons have been registered from houses only capable of accommodating a very few, and where registered letters addressed to the parties have only been delivered to two or three of them, because the others are not now and never could have been guests at such houses.

Another scheme which was worked in the city in 1895 was the bribery of voters to abstain from registration. This year the registration of colored voters shows a decrease of several thousand from previous registrations, and the fact is attributed to the corrupt use of money to induce this result. Attempts to further diminish this vote have been or are to be made by paying voters to remain away from the polls. This corrupt practice is not confined to the State metropolis, but, according to current report, is being pursued by the Democratic managers in this county and probably in other counties also.

The introduction of the race question as an issue was another feature of the campaign of 1895. It was then everywhere charged that the success of the Republican ticket would inevitably result in mixed schools and the social equality of the races. Pictures of school houses, with white and colored children grouped in close contact about them, were then circulated among the people and, in one instance at least, exhibited to the pupils of a Carroll county school by the teacher. Now, pictures of colored people in high life in New York, with white servants waiting upon them, are being published in at least one of the daily newspapers, as an evidence of what may be expected will follow a Republican victory this fall. Of course such a condition can never arise in Maryland and the pictures are, without doubt, a slander upon the city of New York. There is, as every sensible and intelligent man and woman in the State knows, not the slightest cause to apprehend negro domination or social equality of whites and blacks in Maryland. On this point the Baltimore Sun had the following sensible opinion to express in 1895, when it was forced as an issue by the Ringites, for the purpose of stemming the then impending torrent of disaster, which in spite of all their appeals to race prejudice, overwhelmed them at the election. This is one of the things said by the Sun on the subject:

"There is no possibility of negro domination in this State, nor that the negro voters, who constitute only eighteen per cent. of our population, can ever become a ruling factor either in our State or City government. No one knows this better than Gorman and Rasin, and the only object they have in pretending to sound the alarm against the possible ascendency of the negro is to try and save themselves by raising a false alarm against a danger that in no way threatens us."

As the history of 1895 has, up to this point, repeated itself, it is to be hoped it will repeat itself in an overwhelming victory for the Republicans and Independents who are struggling to rid the State of the power of as conscienceless a set of political tyrants and corruptionists as ever disgraced the fair name of any Commonwealth. Every allegation of the desperate Ringites in 1895, touching the consequences of a Republican victory, in relation to mixed schools, race equality and negro domination, was disproved by the practical effect of the results which then followed that victory. The colored people received fair treatment, but neither sought nor desired the domination which it was charged was to follow Republican success in the State. In fact, fear of negro domination in Maryland is the most preposterous and absurd proposition ever suggested by any man or set of men. A lunatic might apprehend it, but a sensible man never.

Seven minutes is the limit of the time which a voter has in which to prepare and cast his ballot. He is entitled, if he spoils two ballots, to have a third one, and some voters are under the impression that seven minutes is allowed for each of the spoiled ballots, and seven minutes for the third one, making twenty-one minutes in all, if this shall be found necessary. This is a mistake. The voter is entitled to but seven minutes altogether, from the time he enters the booth until his ticket shall be deposited in the box. Failing to mark his ballot properly within these seven minutes debars him from the the privilege of voting. The fact should be forcibly impressed upon the mind of every voter.

Eighteen persons only can be voted for in this county and voters, having marked their tickets, should count the number of marks made by them to be sure that they have not marked too many. Be careful to vote for only one person for Governor, one for Comptroller of the Treasury, one for Attorney General, one for State Senator, four for the House of Delegates, one for States Attorney, one for County Commissioner, one for County Treasurer, one for Clerk of the Circuit Court, one for Register of Wills, one for Sheriff, three for Judges of the Orphans' Court and one for County Surveyor. If more names are marked than are to be elected for any of the offices named the entire ticket will be rejected.

The Republican ticket is worthy the support of all good citizens, because: It disfranchises no class of citizens; it has the courage of its convictions; its history is the history of the best years of the Republic.

IS MR. RAYNER A CATSPAW?

Hon. Isidor Rayner and his friends are innocent enough to take seriously the pledges of support made to him for United States Senator by Democratic candidates for the General Assembly in Baltimore. They trust the pledges which, practically and in reality, must be the pledges of the Gorman-Rasin combine. Mr. Rayner said in his letter to the people of Baltimore, three weeks ago, that "an unpledged delegation in the midnight chamber of a caucus at Annapolis means that the power has been taken away from the people and delegated to a political cabal to consign me (Rayner) to political death in Maryland." Now, if this cabal possesses such power as that described by Mr. Rayner, what is to hinder its exercise in his case, and against him, pledges or no pledges? He may believe that, in fighting the battle of the Ring in this campaign, he is advancing his own interests and laying the foundation for the realization of his ambition to represent the State in the United States Senate, but he isn't the sort of man Mr. Gorman wants as a colleague. With his splendid ability and power as a debater he might become too great a power to suit the Maryland political autocrat. And by the way, isn't Mr. Rayner's personal ambition so deeply involved in the contest as to make it necessary to discount his fervid appeals in favor of Ring success? His own interests, from his standpoint, are at stake and he is willing to aid the political "cabal" in its dishonest efforts and methods to retain power at Annapolis, upon the assumption that he will be honestly and fairly treated if those efforts shall succeed. He may, if the ends of the "cabal" shall be accomplished, come to realize that he has been made a traditional catspaw to save the chestnut for some other fellow.

CORRUPT SCHEMES.

A rumor is current that an effort will be made by the Democrats to keep a certain number of Republicans from the polls in each district by paying them to abstain from voting. Every Republican, whether white or colored, who receives such an offer, no matter how liberal, should reject it with scorn. The privilege of the ballot is above all price. It is said that Democrats are also endeavoring to keep colored Republicans from the polls in this city by giving them ostensible employment in the country on election day. Every offer of this character should be indignantly spurned.

Your vote is needed, go to the polls early and cast your ballot for the group of worthy Republican candidates.

Special importance attaches to the election of members of the General Assembly to be chosen on Tuesday next. The voters who do not want the present Chinese puzzle ballot to be made more intricate and difficult to mark should vote the solid Republican ticket. Especially should no Republican aid in furthering the scheme of the Democratic bosses to disfranchise voters. Every vote for a Democratic candidate for State Senator or member of the House of Delegates will be a vote to aid the Democratic oligarchy, with Gorman as the supreme autocrat, to carry out its schemes for cutting off the unlettered, the nervous and feeble citizens of the State from the privilege of the ballot. The Republican who thus votes will be guilty of high treason to his party.

As nearly as possible the ticket published in the SENTINEL last week and to be found on the fourth page of this week's issue is a copy of the official ballot to be cast at the election next week. Republicans are earnestly urged to study this ballot carefully. They will find the word Republican after the name of every Republican candidate, and following the word, to the right, a box or square in which to insert the mark, an X. This will be to anyone capable of reading an infallible guide to correctly marking the ballot. Every voter is earnestly enjoined, in making his mark in the square after the word Republican, to be sure that neither of the lines of the mark shall touch the lines of the box or square in which it is to be made.

As a voter is allowed but seven minutes, all told, in which to mark his ballot, it is important that he make an effort to prepare properly the first ballot handed him by the clerk of election. Carelessness or undue haste may cause the defacement of the ballot and thus make it necessary to call for a second or even a third one, and in thatcase so much time will have been consumed that haste will be necessary to complete the marking within the time limit, and thus the vote be endangered. We advise every voter to use due deliberation in marking the ballot which he first procures from the clerk, and thus avoid the necessity of calling for a second.

A voter who is blind, or physically unable to mark his ballot, can have it marked for him, but he must name every candidate for whom he desires to vote. He cannot direct the election officers who assist him to mark a full Republican or a full Democratic ticket. It will not do to say he desires to vote for the candidates of either party. He must give the name of every person to whom he wishes to give his suffrage.

Remember if you fail to fold your ticket correctly it will be thrown out and not counted.

It is said that some of the candidates on the Democratic ticket in this county, who are publicly declaiming against negro suffrage, are privately soliciting the votes of colored men to help elect them to office.

Every Republican voter is again cautioned not to use any other pencil in marking his ballot than the one he will find in the booth. If it should be too blunt to make a proper X sharpen it.
