1775 JUNE 17 WILLIAM RANDOLPH TO

SIDE ONE

Bristol 17th June 1775

My Dear Sir,

I should not discharge that duty I owe you as a partner nor act consistant with any declarations of friendship for you was I not as early as possible to acquaint you it is my interest & greatly yours for you to be in England as soon as possibly can, you will therefore as soon as this reaches you (If you have not already done) prosecute your passage home & if you can bring with you a sketch of our outstanding debts in Maryland I will expectite a settlement of our affairs wishing you a safe & speedy Passage home I remain very respectfully

Dear Sir

Your aff^t friend & H^ble Servt

William Randolph

Mr Randolph
June 17. 1775

Mr James Strachan
Merchant in Baltimore
Maryland

Answered