Dear Sir

I received your 22d Ult. Your Letters go for London by the Sampson Capt Cooper that sails tomorrow, hired by a Number of Passengers —

I most sincerely wish you every Blessing a married State affords, as I find you are made happy in that way since I saw you. Rose and I present my respects to Mrs [illegible] she will perhaps remember to have seen me at Mr Carroll's — If Business or Pleasure should induce you hither to visit this Country, I shall be very happy to see you, and shall endavour to make the Place as agreeable as possible, & I hope time will soon be when we shall be
