Serious Gunning Accidents.

Mr. Ad. Fridinger, residing near the Chestnut Hill Ore Mine, in Manchester district, while gunning with some friends on Tuesday, was accidentally shot by one of the number. The shot must have been fired at a considerable distance from the injured man as the charge scattered over his body and limbs and one of his hands was peppered. Dr. J. S. Zeigler, of Melrose, removed many of the shot.

Albert J. Brown, the 16-year-old son of Mrs. Margaret Brown, of Hoods Mill, died at the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, yesterday morning from a gunshot wound in the right side. He accidently shot himself while hunting and the entire charge entered his side and lodged under his shoulder.

According to the statement of his mother, he took his gun and started for a hunt about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and had gone but a short distance from his home when he killed a rabbit. In leaning forward to pick up his game he rested on the gun, placing the muzzle under his right arm. In some way he struck the hammer and discharged the the load, which entered his side just under the arm, breaking several ribs and injuring his breastbone and fracturing his shoulderblade. A portion of the right lung was also torn away. The boy was near enough to his home to call for help, and Dr. W. F. Lucas was summoned immediately, but finding the wound serious, had him taken to the hospital.

While Messrs. Munroe Yohn and Joshua Owings were gunning on Tuesday, on the premises of Mr. Yohn, near Bloom, Owings was accidentally shot in the left side of the face and left arm, and it was feared that his left eye was penetrated. It was at first supposed the shot was fired by Mr. Yohn, but as the men were only 10 yards apart and other persons who were gunning close by at once disappeared, it is now thought it was done by one of them. Owings' face and arm were riddled with shot, and one shot penetrated the eyelid. Drs. E. D. Cronk, of Winfield, and M. L. Bott, of this city, were summoned, and found Mr. Owings' eye so badly congested that it was impossible to ascertain the full extent of the injury, but they were apprehensive that the sight was destroyed. Dr. Cronk took him to the Presbyterian Eye and Ear Infirmary, in Baltimore, Wednesday morning, where it was found that the eye was so badly injured as to necessitate its removal.

PROCEEDINGS IN HONOR OF THE MEMORY OF THE LATE EX-JUDGE CHARLES T. REIFSNIDER.

The death of the late Ex-Judge Charles T. Reifsnider was officially announced in court, on Tuesday, by Chas. E. Fink, Esq., who submitted resolutions prepared by a committee of the bar, of which he was chairman, and Messrs. E. Oliver Grimes, Jr., and Francis Neal Parke his associates, expressing the regard and esteem of the members for the deceased lawyer and jurist. In supporting the resolutions Mr. Fink spoke in eulogistic terms of the life and character of Judge Reifsnider. The resolutions were seconded by Ex-Judge James A. C. Bond, Francis Neal Parke, Benjamin F. Crouse, E. Oliver Grimes, Jr., D. N. Henning, Guy W. Steele, Claude T. Smith, Ivan L. Hoff and George L. Stocksdale, all of whom spoke of Judge Reifsnider's extreme devotion to his family, his fidelity to the interests of his clients, his arduous labors as an attorney and counsellor, his kindness to young members of the bar and his benevolence and charity to all who applied to him for assistance. Judge Reifsnider's love of truth was especially referred to by some of the speakers.

Incidentally Ex-Judge Bond alluded to the fact that the death of Judge Reifsnider leaves him (Judge Bond) the only survivor of those who constituted the Carroll county bar when he became a member of it in 1867, and stated that since that time eighteen of its members have died.

Judge William H. Thomas spoke sympathetically of the deceased jurist, and said that no man could fail to note his many estimable qualities. He then ordered that the resolutions be spread upon the minutes and court adjourned for the day in honor of Judge Reifsnider's memory. The resolutions are as follows:

IN MEMORIAM.

Honorable Charles T. Reifsnider.

The unexpected death of the Honorable Charles T. Reifsnider removes a figure of prominence at the Bar of Carroll county, and in the business and political affairs of the State of Maryland, and recalls his faithful services to the people as State's Attorney for Carroll county, and then as Associate Judge of this Circuit, and so gives sad occasion to the members of the Bar of Carroll county to record in enduring form their appreciation and admiration of those virtues of heart and mind that made the late Charles T. Reifsnider a firm and devoted friend, an ardent and diligent advocate, a wise and conservative counsellor, an energetic and efficient public official, and an upright and courageous judge. Therefore, be it

Resolved, By the members of the Bar of Carroll county, that as a tribute of respect and esteem to the memory of the Honorable Charles T. Reifsnider this tribute be spread upon the records of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, and that a copy be sent to the family and published in the county papers.

Harry M. Bish

DIES SUDDENLY WITH LOCKJAW.

Harry M. Bish, son of Mr. Silas M. Bish, of this city, died at the home of his parents, on Pennsylvania avenue, last Friday afternoon, of tetanus, (lockjaw) after an illness of less than twenty-four hours. How he contracted the disease is not certainly known, as it may have been the result of either of two causes or of both combined. Several weeks before his death he burned some warts from his hands with nitric acid and susequently ran a splinter under one of his thumb nails. On the day previous to his death he attended a game of football. He did not feel well but showed no symptoms of tetanus until he stepped from the grandstand, when he said his jaws felt stiff and the muscles of the back of his neck were sore. It was thought he was only suffering from the effects of a football game in which he had participated and at first no thought of serious illness was entertained. But as he continued to grow rapidly worse a physician was summoned and found that the malady was tetanus. Other physicians were called in consultation, but every effort to arrest the progress of the disease was unavailing. Young Bish was 17 years old in July last and was a worthy young man. He was a member of Benjamin's Reformed Church, near this city, where funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. James B. Stonesifer, officiating. Deceased was also a member of the camp of Patriotic Sons of America at Tyrone, which, with the camps in this city and Pleasant Valley, performed the burial rites of the order at his grave. The attendance was the largest at any funeral service ever held at either of the Reformed or Lutheran Churches generally known as Krider's. The number of vehicles on and adjacent to the church grounds was 240 and it is estimated that 800 to 1,000 persons were present. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Clarence W. Stoner, Jos. Hunter, Wm. Black, Elmer Royer, Wm. Null, Robert Myers.

Union Mills Items.

Mr. Daniel Leppo, a son of Mr. Wm. A. Leppo, of Silver Run, died in Missouri, where he had been working on a farm for several years, on the second of this month, aged about thirty-two years. Death was caused by typhoid fever. The remains were expressed east for burial and reached Littlestown on the 7th inst., from which place they were brought to Silver Run on the same day and interred in the cemetery there. A memorial service will be held in the Reformed church, next Sunday morning, Rev. J. Stewart Hartman officiating.

Mr. Ephraim Yingling, who died in Baltimore last week, was brought up in this vicinity. His brother, Mr. Martin Yingling, and his sister, Mrs. Sarah Reinecker, who still reside here, with several other members of the family from this place, attended his funeral.

Most of our farmers have finished husking their corn and report a fair turnout notwithstanding the unfavorable weather we had during the past summer. From ten to twelve barrels per acre is about the average on good ground.

Our local sportsmen turned out in great numbers on the 10th inst., the first day of the expiration of the game law. But I don't think they returned home very heavily laden, as partridges and rabbits appear to be rather scarce with us this fall.

The Union Mills Savings' Bank building received a fresh coat of paint last week.

Carrollton Items.

The County Commissioners have secured the right of way through Mr. Atlee W. Wampler's woods, near Wesley Church and the public school house in that locality, for the purpose of straightening the county road at that point, and on Saturday last a novel scene occurred in carrying out that purpose. A number of massive oak and chestnut trees, some of which were over 12 feet in circumference, had to be removed and this was done by digging away the earth around the trees, cutting the roots, attaching a heavy chain to the trunk 30 feet from the base and then using Mr. Columbus Elseroad's 40-horse power stump puller and black mule Vola to pull down tree after tree until all were removed. Some of the trees were 75 to 80 feet high and all were drawn out of the ground, leaving no stumps behind. Those who took part in the work were: Messrs. Columbus Elseroad, John F. Snyder, Frank Shaffer, William Shaffer, Joseph Davidson, Edward Davidson, Charles Elseroad, Vivian Davidson, Clark Abbott, Samuel Elseroad, Wesley Davidson, Harry Bowman, Earl and Park Davidson and Charles Croft. Benjamin Croft, road supervisor, was present and superintended the work. The trees were saplings when the camp meeting of 1828 was held there.

Proceedings of the School Board.

On Monday, 9th instant, the School Commissioners for Carroll county held a regular meeting in their office at the court house, all the members present.

The board discussed the propriety and practicability of putting the "Rand & McNally Maps" in all the schools of the county, taking a certain number of schools per year until all the schools are supplied. The maps are the best made. They come on spring rollers in good wooden cases. The combination selected by the Board includes four large maps—the United States, North America, South America, and the Eastern Hemisphere. The commissioners have about decided that it is the next most needed improvement, and that, if the fuuds will justify such a course, we will try to supply about twenty schools at a cost of $300.00 per year until all are thus equipped.

Mr. A. J. Jordan, formerly of this county, having liberally supplied money with which to build a public school house near his old homestead in memory of his parents, Messrs. E. O. Grimes and Geo. R. Gehr appeared before the Board and stated that the house is about ready for occupancy, and formally tendered it to the School Commissioners of the county. For a number of years the school in that community has been conducted in a dilapidated tenant house belonging to Mr. Jordan, and the board decided to move into the new house as soon as convenient, and occupy it, pending some later adjustments as to deed, repairs and certain conditions connected with the contribution. In due time the commissioners will take formal action in expressing on behalf of the county their thanks to Mr. Jordan for this evidence of his attachment to Carroll county and the home of his parents. Commissioners Jacob H. Blocher, Fred. D. Miller, John B. Eppley, and Peter Buchman, in company with the examiner, rode out on Monday afternoon to see this house, which makes a fine appearance, on a commanding eminence, with extensive ground attached, ample for all public school purposes.

The board passed an order for the secretary to pay off the teachers for the fall term on Friday after Thanksgiving, 26th instant.

S. SIMPSON, Secretary.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,
EDWARD LYNCH.
