1782 JUNE 23 DANIEL CARROLL TO JAMES CARROLL

SIDE ONE

North End 23 June 1782

Dear Bro.

I am now Just informed that Mr. Millegan sets of from Town on his Way for America to Morrow, have therefore taken the Opportunity of informing you that I wrote you y.e 4th Inst. mentioning Particularly the reason of my still being in England & also that I had Just then procured an Appointment in the Stamp Office, since Which nothing Particular has Occured to ~~my~~ Sister, Mrs B or myself —

It is most probable you will hear of the Tragical End of our particular Freind Poor Lloyd Dulany before this reaches you, as the Bearer of this has been made Acquainted with every Particular Attended of it — He Received a mortal Wound in a Duel ~~with Allen~~ which he fought with ~~Allen of~~ the Revd Mr. Allen late of
