WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 8, 1904.

Indications at Annapolis, on Wednesday, were that if Mr. Isidor Rayner shall succeed in his senatorial aspirations it will be against the combined and strenuous opposition of the bosses. Mr. Rasin was on hand, marshaling the forces for Mr. Rayner's defeat and some incidents of the day make it apparent that his word will be law with many of the legislators. It is a reasonable surmise that Mr. Rayner has not the ghost of a chance of election to the United States Senate. If it should prove otherwise it will be a disastrous defeat for the Ring.

Maryland Legislature.

The Maryland Legislature met on Wednesday and both Houses were promptly organized, the Senate by the election of Col. Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery county, as president, and the House of Delegates by the election of Dr. George Y. Everhart, of Baltimore county. Dr. Everhart is a native of this city, and a son of the late Samuel P. Everhart. The only citizen of Carroll county yet named for an official position in either branch of the Legislature is Mr. George A. Shower, of Manchester, who was selected as sergeant-at-arms of the Senate.

Very little business was transacted, beyond the reception and reading of the Governor's message. Mr. Fuss, of this county, was appointed a member of a committee on organization, which will recommend to the speaker the names of subordinate officers of the House. Both Houses adjourned until Tuesday evening next, at 7.30 o'clock.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON W. Md. R. R.

TWO PASSENGERS KILLED.

Many Others Seriously Injured.

A serious accident occurred to the fast mail train of the Western Maryland Railroad about 4.50 o'clock on Sunday afternoon between Edgemont and the Blue Mountain House, by which two passengers were killed and 30 or 40 injured, some of them very seriously. The train was climbing the mountain, but running at the rate of 35 miles an hour when, in passing a curve, a broken rail caused the rear coach, commonly spoken of as the ladies' car, to leave the track and roll down the steep mountain side. The engine, mail and baggage cars and the smoker passed the broken rail safely and the only car derailed was the ladies'. It is therefor probable that the rail was broken by the engine or one of the other cars of the train.

The derailed car did not stop rolling after it made the fatal plunge until it was about 150 feet from the tracks and it is thought that it must have turned over not less than four times. The two persons killed were Mrs. Wm. T. Mansley, of Wilmington, Del., and a little girl named Katherine Sener, a daughter of Mr. Mandel Sener, a reporter on a Baltimore newspaper. The child was accompanied by her mother, who was cut about the head and face and who was taken to the home of her father, Benjamin Beck, at Chewsville. A little son of Mrs. Sener, aged six years, was also cut and bruised, but not seriously injured.

Among those who sustained the most serious injuries were; Mrs. H. T. Light, Mrs. T. J. Shiver, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Morningstar, of Union Bridge, all four of whom were very badly hurt. Mr. H. T. Light, of Union Bridge, had his collarbone broken. Miss Alice Frounfelter, of New Windsor, a well known public school teacher, sustained bruises of her side and face, but was not dangerously hurt. Mrs. Shiver's skull was fractured and Mrs. Light had one arm broken in three places and her face very badly cut. These ladies' are sisters. Others injured were: Miss Elva Baker, Rev. J. M. Tombaugh, H. Bankert Emmert, Joseph Scarah, Harry Martin, George Markell, Charles Markell, Joseph Sharrer, H. J. Bassetter, all of Hagerstown; Coleman Anderson, of Williamsport; Charles De F. Besore, S. H. Snyder, John Handy, of Waynesboro, Pa.; Miss Katharine Gambrill, a niece of Senator Gorman; Miss Edith Rowland, Miss Bertha McHenry, Miss Emma Harbaugh, H. S. Snader, of Baltimore; Miss Eva Morgan, of Bissell, Md., Joseph Shock, brakeman; Frank W. Cover, of Thurmont; Miss S. Kemp, Kimball, W. Va.; Emory Baker, Grimes Station; Frank L. Cross, Kennett Square, Pa.; Miss Mary Weller, Chewsville; Miss Mary Beachley, Keedysville; Ella Taylor, colored, Roanoke, Va.

The car, which was one of the fine new coaches put on the road during the past year, was so badly damaged that it was thought best to destroy it and it was accordingly burned where it lay.

The authorities of Washington county did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest in the fatal cases resulting from the accident, it having been one of those occurrences against which human skill and watchfulness could not successfully guard.

While, in one way or another, many fatal accidents have heretofore occurred on the Western Maryland Railroad, no passenger has ever before been killed or fatally injured in the cars of the road.

Letter to Mayor O. D. Gilbert, Westminster, Md.

Dear Sir: You are interested in the prosperity of your town. You can contribute to it materially, and give it a far more prosperous look at the same time.

Perhaps the public property needs a good coat of paint.

Devoe will supply that coat with two-thirds of the number of gallons required of any other. Devoe will last twice as long as any other. Devoe is all paint and full-measure. Devoe is the strongest paint known. Devoe will take care of the property, in the long run, for half the money required by any other.

The reason is stated above: Devoe is all paint and full-measure: the strongest paint known.

E D Jewell, Corry, Pa, painted his house 8 years ago with a mixed paint: took 14 gallons. Last spring he repainted with Devoe; bought 14 gallons and had 4 left. Saved $15 to $20, for painting costs two or three times as much as the paint.

Yours truly
F W DEVOE & CO
New York

SAVED FROM TERRIBLE DEATH.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed Bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at all Drug Stores.

A GOOD OPPORTUNITY

for a man and wife to work on a farm. One with no family preferred. Liberal wages. Apply to Ralph Reifsnider, near Westminster.

A VERY CLOSE CALL.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

It has been said that while New York writers possess a finished literary style, the real plots with dramatic action come from other parts of the country. However true this may be, there is a growing tendency among magazines to tap a wider region for their fiction. The January Cosmopolitan, for instance, contains a vigorous, simple story of inherited wealth by W. R. Lighton, the Nebraskan; a tale of romance in "Siohenia" by the Southern writer, Sara Beaumont Kennedy; a humorous sketch by Elliott Flower, of Chicago, and a light imaginative story by Constance Maud, a rising English authoress, to say nothing of H. G. Wells' adventurous fantastic romance, "The Food of the Gods."

WONDERFUL NERVE.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c, at all Drug Stores.

There will be a Christian Endeavor Temperance Rally at Benjamin's Reformed Church, near Westminster, on Sunday, January 17th, under the direction of Miss Beulah B. Benson, County C. E. Temperance Supt. Good speaking and music are promised. The public is invited to co-operate in this cause. If weather is inclement it will be held the following Sunday, January 24th.

DOMESTIC TROUBLES.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure. 25c, at all Drug Stores.

We miss thee from our home, dear,
We miss thee from thy place;
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face,
We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.
One more break in a happy band,
One more home that is desolate now;
One more harp in an angel's hand,
One more crown on an angel's brow.
One more form that we loved so well,
Sleeping awhile beneath the sod;
One more soul that has gone to swell
The chorus of praise to the Lamb of God.

By the Family.

Low prices do not mean much unless you get the quality. We give both. This sale is the greatest Bargain Sale we have ever had.

The low prices at which we are selling cotton goods are in some instances ⅓ and ½ less than the price at the mills today, on account of the high price of raw cotton, which is higher than it has been since the civil war.
