1783 June 2 Daniel Cheston to James Cheston

SIDE ONE

London 2d June 1783

Dear Brother

I wrote you by Nich. Slubey & some Other Conveyances that has presented themselves within this Month, some of which undoubtedly will reach you — By them you will learn of my having determined to proceed for Maryland as soon as ever I could bring Matters About so as to enable me to set off with Convenience — I have now the inexpressible Sattisfaction to say I have accomplished it, & purpose leaving London in about 3 Weeks from this time in the Albion Capt. Butler for Annapolis, & can Assure you I Anticipate with the most heartfelt Joy the prospect of again being with you, & perhaps forming a Connection in the Commercial Line that may be Beneficial to us both — Be Assured that nothing can Possibly give me so much real Pleasure the happy time with unfeigned Pleasure ~~tot~~ the many social Tetes, Tetes, we shall have Over a good Hickory fire Respecting Our Dear Sister Here &c &c —

2.5
1.13.9
4.11.3

Mr James Cheston
at Tulip Hill near Annapolis

May 24 By Wheatlaw — 2.2
June 23 By Bolticotter — 9.7

700
200 0/0
140
70

I could with Pleasure at this moment fill 12 dog sheets for your ~~Inspection~~ perusal but shall defer it until I have the Unspeakable Pleasure of saying Personally how much I am

Your Most sincere Affectionate Bro.
Danl Cheston

Mrs Dulany desires compliments affectionately to be Remembered to you & Mrs C. I was in hopes at one time she would have Accompanied me