V. FINDING THE CHILD.

There was silence, broken by sighs and sanctified with tears; for the joy that filled them might not be stayed. It was the unspeakable joy of souls on the shores of the river of life, resting with the redeemed in God's presence.

Then the friends mounted, and set out single file, led by the Egyptian. Their course was due west into the chilly night.

By and by the moon came up and as the three tall white figures sped, with soundless tread, through the opalescent light, they appeared like spectres, flying from hateful shadows. Suddenly in the air before them not farther up than a low hilltop, flared a lambent flame; as they looked at it, the apparition contracted into a focus of dazzling lustre; their hearts beat fast, their souls thrilled, and they shouted as with one voice, "The Star! The Star! God is with us." At Bethlehem, the morning was breaking over the mountains in the East, but so feebly, that it was yet night in the Valley. The watchman on the roof of the old kahn, shivering in the chilly air, was listening for the first distinguishable sounds with which life, awakening, greets the dawn, when a light came moving up the hill towards the house. He thought it a torch in some one's hand; next moment he thought it a meteor; the brilliance grew however until it became a star. Sore afraid he cried out and brought everybody within the walls to the roof. The more timid of the beholders fell upon their knees and prayed with their faces hidden; such as dared look beheld the Star standing still directly over the house in front of the cave where the Child had been born. In the height of this scene, the Wise Men came up and at the gate dismounted from their camels and shouted for admission.

The apartment was lighted by a lantern, enough to enable the strangers to find the mother and the Child awake in her lap. "Is the child thine?" asked Balthasar of Mary.

And she who had kept all the things in the least affecting the little one and pondered them in her heart, held it up in the light, saying He is my Son. And they fell down and worshipped Him. In a little while they arose and returning to the camels, brought gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. And this was the Saviour, they had come so far to find?

Mr. Rinehart Hoffnagle is visiting his children, in Baltimore.

Winfield Items.

The entertainment given by Winfield Academy, on December 23rd, was a very pleasing and successful event. As this was the first program the academy has furnished this year we see bright prospects for some very good entertainments before the school closes in June. The program furnished on the 23rd follows: Address of Welcome, by Manro Fossett; A Boys' Plot, a play, by 9 girls and 4 boys; music, by the Elite Orchestra; That Rascal Pat, a play, by 2 girls and 3 boys; intermission, filled with music by Orchestra.

2nd Part.—Merry Christmas Bells, song, by the school; piano duet, Miss Addie Barnes and Mr. Wm. Hughes; recitation, Miss Laura Buckingham; music, Orchestra; Blackbird Academy, negro farce, by 9 boys; Santa Claus trimming tree, tableau.

The program was a very good one, was all well rendered, and the scholars all did very creditably. Just before the last number on the program was called out, the teacher of the academy, Prof. Vernon S. Bradley, was presented with a small pachage by the scholars. It contained a $5 gold coin, Rev. A. B. Wood made the presentation in behalf of the scholars, to which the recipient replied, speaking feelingly of the pleasant relations existing between the teacher and the scholars, and between the school and the academy board.

The Winfield Literary Society will hold its next meeting on Friday evening, Jan. 8th, beginning at 7.45, when the following program will be rendered: The question, Resolved, That women have more influence upon the world than men, will be debated affirmatively by Messrs. Howard Zile and Edward Warfield, and negatively by Messrs Arthur Zile and C. E. Stem. Miss Grace Stem, Messrs. Roscoe Aldridge, J. Wm. Fleming, and Grover A Stem will recite. The Elite Orchestra will furnish music.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF

TWO OF THE LARGEST AND MOST VALUABLE AND PRODUCTIVE FARMS in Carroll County, Md., and of other Desirable Real Estate.

By virtue of the power of sale contained in the deed of Annie M. Roberts to the undersigned trustees, dated the 18th of November, 1903, and recorded among the Land Records of Carroll county, in Liber J. H. B. No. 98, folio 322, etc., the said trustees will offer at Public Sale, on at 2 o'clock, P. M., on the premises, near Westminster, Carroll county, Maryland:

First. All that tract or parcel of land known as the "Rockland Farm" and containing

238 ACRES OF LAND, MORE OR LESS.

This property fronts on the Old Turnpike Road leading from Westminster to Uniontown; is about 2 miles from Westminster, about 1½ miles from Avondale, both on the line of the Western Maryland Railroad, and adjoins the land of William G. Rinehart, and others. The improvements consist of a Two-and a-half story BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, large bank barn, large stable, with mow and stabling for 12 horses; 4 box stalls; large hay barrack, wagon shed, corn crib, hog pen, two dairies, with sufficient accommodations for a dairy farm, and one of which is supplied with cooler; a large stone and cement trough for cleansing cans and a pump under cover, together with numerous other buildings convenient for farming and dairying purposes. The land lies well, is easily farmed and is in a high state of cultivation, having been limed and heavily manured for a number of years. An abundant supply of running spring water is piped to the barn, stable and other buildings, so that excellent water is assured in all seasons without any labor. Each field of this farm is watered; and all of the land is under cultivation with the exception of about fifteen acres of fine oak and hickory timber. This property is under good fencing and has on it one of the finest limestone quarries in the county.

Second. All that tract of land known as the "Caylor Farm" and containing

169 ACRES OF LAND, MORE OR LESS.

This property adjoins the "Rockland Farm"; fronts on the Old Turnpike Road leading from Westminster to Uniontown; about 2½ miles from Westminster; 3 miles from Avondale, both on the line of the Western Maryland Rail Road; and adjoins the land of John Royer and others, and has two outlets from the buildings; one of these outlets having been opened by Judge Roberts. The land is improved by a large Two-and-one-half story BRICK DWELLING HOUSE, large bank barn, stable, haybarrack, wagon shed, corn crib, dairy and other numerous buildings suitable for convenient farming of the land. There are about seven acres of good oak and hickory timber on the place; and the residue of the land is under a high state of cultivation and in excellent condition, by reason of heavy manuring and recent liming. A never failing well of water is at the house and at the barn; and the land is well watered. There is fine fruit on the property, and the fencing is in good condition. All the buildings are in first-class shape.

Both the "Rockland Farm" and the "Caylor Farm" present an unexampled opportunity for those desiring a profitable farm for the usual farming purposes or for dairying. These properties were formerly owned by the late Judge Roberts and were kept by him as dairy and stock farms. They have been freely manured for many years and carefully farmed, and their fertility, size and unusual accommodations in the way of buildings, together with their nearness to markets, to various railroad stations and their beautiful location, make these two properties the most desirable that have been offered for sale in many years. These properties are especially adapted to the raising of stock.

Before the sale a plat and certificate of survey will be made of each property, which will be exhibited on the day of sale and which may be shortly seen at the offices in Westminster of the undersigned trustees.

Possession of the farms will be given on April 1st, 1904. The trustees or those now caring for the farms will take pleasure in showing the properties to any one desiring to see them.

Third. All that wood lot of fine chestnut timber, containing situated on the New Windsor road about one mile from Westminster, and adjoining the lands of Wm. F. Fenby and others. This is a desirable body of timber and is conveniently located for farm uses.

10 ACRES OF LAND, MORE OR LESS,

Terms of Sale:—One third cash on the day of sale or on the ratification thereof by the Circuit Court for Carroll county, in Equity, and the residue in two equal payments, one year and two years from the day of sale, with interest on the credit payments from the day of sale or all cash, at the option of the purchaser or purchasers. The credit payments to be secured by the notes of the purchaser or purchasers, with approved security, bearing interest from day of sale.

Why Not Cure Your Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.
