The only chance I had of getting a boy to stand with Godolphin has failed it is impossible to get one with you — the boy is ready to come when ever Craig chooses to take him —

Wilson's reports — Mr Tilghman when at Tulip Hill took it from the rest of the books & had in the house a reading — it is probable there in my Fathers room — He requests you would look for it & send it him — His Compliments waits on you all — we are just to sit down to drink a dish of Tea together
