American Sentinel.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1904.

To the brief intimation of the SENTINEL, two weeks ago, that people were curious to see whether the Advocate, would meekly "eat crow" and swallow the Rayner dose without making a wry face, that paper responded last week in a half column editorial, recounting occasions when it objected to the course of its party and some of its public men, and retorting that the SENTINEL "never dares to criticise Republican officials or Republican policies." To this the SENTINEL need hardly deign a reply. It has not been forced, by party idiosyncrasies, to repeatedly shift its ground, as has been the case with the Advocate in its support of Democratic policies, which appear to be without a fixed status. The principles of the Republican party are well defined and not subject, at least in important particulars, to frequent and radical changes, as have those of the Democratic party. Hence, with perhaps a single exception, the SENTINEL has found no cause to criticise them adversely. It is well known, however, that in so far as the Republican party is committed to the present Civil Service system, this paper is not in sympathy with it and has not hesitated to say so, repeatedly, nor to sharply express condemnation of the interference of the officeholders' trust, which the system has created, with the primary elections and conventions of the party.

The seat of Hon. John F. Shaforth, Democrat, of Colorado, who was returned elected to the National House of Representatives from that State in 1902, was contested by Robert W. Bonynge, his Republican opponent, upon the ground that Mr. Shaforth's election was caused by illegal voting. In the course of the investigation Mr. Shaforth became convinced that the charge was well founded. He furthermore found that the fraudulent ballots could not be so clearly separated from the genuine as to show how many of the latter were cast for him and how many for his opponent. The law of Colorado provides that in such a case the vote of the entire precinct in which the illegal voting takes place shall be thrown out. Mr. Shaforth's plurality was returned as 2,792. Fraudulent ballots cast for him were found in 29 precincts, and by their exclusion this entire plurality was wiped out. Acting upon this state of facts Mr. Shaforth, on Monday, addressed the House, acknowledging that he was not legally entitled to the seat held by him and withdrawing in favor of Mr. Bonynge. It was acknowledged on all sides that he was not a party to the frauds and that he was utterly hostile to illegal methods for the purpose of carrying elections. He retires from Congress much more highly honored than if he had continued to enjoy the fruits of the illegal voting by which his election was made to appear in the returns of the ballots. The example of honesty and integrity thus set by him is worthy of imitation.

Senator Hanna Dead.

U. S. Senator Marcus Alonzo Hanna, of Ohio, died at the Arlington Hotel, Washington, D. C., at 6.40 P. M., Monday, of irregular typhoid fever. He had been in feeble health for nearly two months, but could not be induced to cease his active duties, public and private, and take the much needed rest required for his recuperation, and so when the dangerous typhoid laid hold upon him he was unable to resist its encroachments.

Mr. Hanna was a native of Ohio, having been born in New Lisbon, Columbiana county, September 24, 1837. He was consequently in his 67th year. He began his business life at the age of 20 years, in the wholesale grocery store of his father, Leonard Hanna, in Cleveland. Five years later his father died and he took sole charge of the business, which he conducted successfully until 1867. He then, at the age of thirty years, married a Miss Rhodes and, with his father-in-law, engaged in the coal, iron ore and pig iron trade, and when Mr. Rhodes died, a few years later, became the head of the enterprise and conducted it with such success as to become one of the multi-millionaires of the day.

Mr. Hanna was a devoted friend of President McKinley and was probably drawn into public life through that attachment. He became an astute and able political manager and by his energy and skill contributed largely to the success of the Republican cause in 1896 and 1900. He was elected to the United States Senate by the legislature of Ohio in 1898, to serve from March 4, 1899, to March 4, 1905. The question of his re-election entered largely into the political contest in Ohio last year, and the state was carried by the Republicans, in his interest, by a very large majority, assuring him, if he had lived, another term in the Senate.

Though engaging in politics somewhat late in life, and with limited experience in that line, he speedily took rank with the foremost leaders of the Republican party, and exhibited skill and intelligence in the management of public affairs, second to none. His death is a great loss to the party which he served so faithfully and to the country to whose interests he gave the best energies of an able and mature judgment. He leaves a widow, one son and two daughters, all married. Funeral services were held in the Senate chamber at Washington, on Wednesday, and the remains of the deceased Senator were taken to Cleveland for interment.

State Appointments.

Governor Warfield sent to the Senate, on Wednesday, the following appointments:

State Fire Marshal—Wm. C. McAfee, of Baltimore.

Fish Commissioner for the Eastern Shore—James D. Anderson, of Somerset county.

Liquor License Commissioner for Baltimore city for the remainder of a term of two years from the first Monday in May, 1902, in place of Max Ways, resigned—Bernard Wiesenfeld, of Baltimors city.

Members of the Bureau of Immigration—President, Charles N. Hargett, of Frederick county; commissioner, Henry S. Mancha, Anne Arundel county; superintendent, William T. P. Turpin, Queen Anne's county.

Republican Member Board of Police Commissioners, Baltimore—Thomas J. Shryock.

The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, the B. and O. R. R. Company and several private individuals were represented before the Senate committee on railroads and canals, at Annapolis, on Tuesday, in an effort to procure amendments to two bills pending to confer certain powers upon the Western Maryland Railroad Company to facilitate its entrance to Light street wharves in Baltimore. Judge J. A. C. Bond, of this city, represented the B. and O. R. R., and suggestions made by him were accepted by those representing the Western Maryland. It is thought the bills will pass without material amendment.

NOTES OF THE BALTIMORE FIRE.

It has been ascertained that in the great fire in Baltimore, on the 7th and 8th inst., nearly all the buildings on 73 squares were destroyed, besides 12 or 15 isolated sections, not classed as squares, on the water front. The buildings destroyed number between 2,400 and 2,500, varying in value from $500 or $600 to $300,000 or $400,000.

The aggregate loss, including buildings, merchandise, machinery and other valuables generally, is now placed at $125,000,000, and the insurance at $80,000,000. A couple of the local insurance companies have gone into the hands of receivers, but most of the insurance organizations having risks in the burned districts will pay in full. This furnishes a large basis for the beginning of rebuilding enterprises.

Large bodies of laborers are at work removing the debris from the burned district and clearing the streets for the resumption of travel and to facilitate the removal of such material as must be gotten out of the way and the introduction of material to be used in rebuilding.

The work of opening safes and vaults subjected to the great heat caused by the fire has been going on without interruption and the contents of these receptacles have, for the most part, been found intact. In a few instances the contents of safes have been found destroyed.

Plans are in contemplation by the city authorities for widening aud improving the streets in the burned district. The extension of Hanover street, north of Baltimore, is one of the projects sugested. The closing of German street, entirely, and the widening of Baltimore and Lombard streets is another suggestion. Mayor McLane, at the request of the judges of the Supreme Bench, refused to give the Morning Herald Publishing Company a permit to restore its building, at Fayette and St. Paul streets, the widening of St. Paul at that point being one of the projects under consideration.

Projects of this character may retard the progress of rehabilitating the burned district, and it becomes the duty of the authorities to decide promptly upon the extent of the changes to be made. The sooner rebuilding begins and the more vigorously carried forward the better it will be for Baltimore, and property owners should not be long delayed or handicapped by dilatory action or indecision on the part of the municipal authorities.

The Baltimore newspapers—American, Evening News, Morning Herald and Sun—whose printing plants were destroyed, are appearing regularly from the presses of papers in other cities, and preparing to resume printing in Baltimore. The Morning Herald has already received part of a new printing plant, and the News has purchased the plant of the Philadelphia Times, which is already being set up in Baltimore. This plant will print the editions of the American as well as the News, until the former can return to its old home. The Sun is also getting ready for publication in Baltimore.

THE JAPAN-RUSSIAN WAR.

It is reported that the Japanese have invested and are beseiging Port Arthur. Reports of the movements of the belligerants are meagre, but no general engagement has yet taken place. In the preliminary movements the Japanese have the advantage and are displaying great military skill.

The attitude of the United States towards the contending nations, as expressed by Secretary Hay to the Powers of Europe, is sanctioned by England, France, Germany, Austria and others. This country objects to any invasion of Chinese territory outside of Manchuria and has so notified Russia and Japan. The latter country acquiesces, but Russia has not replied. She will not, however, attempt to violate the integrity of Chinese territory against the combined opposition of all the other great powers of the world. Secretary Hay, in taking the initiative in the matter, has conferred honor upon his country.

Wheat Again Touches Dollar Mark.

Wheat touched the dollar mark in New York, on Monday, for the first time since June, 1898, after the Leiter corner. The rise was accompanied by a similar rise in corn and oats. Coffee and cotton, on the contrary, broke heavily. There has been a rise of 7½ cents a bushel in the price of wheat since January.

Capt. Frank Nolen, a prominent citizen of Baltimore, and past department commander of the G. A. R., of Maryland, died at his home at Howard Park, on Saturday last. Capt. Nolen was well known to most of the veterans of this county, by whom he was highly esteemed. He was a man of fine character and was universally respected. His funeral took place from his late residence on Tuesday and his remains were interred in Loudoun Park Cemetery.

Mr. Karl Katz, the well known York, Pa., brewer, has had ill luck in an attempt to fatten hogs for pork. Last week nearly 200 fine hogs died with cholera on his farm in Dover township, York county. The animals died so suddenly and in such numbers that Mr. Katz experienced considerable trouble in having their carcases removed.

J. Ilgenfritz, the York fireman, who was reported as killed at the Baltimore fire last week, was only seriously injured and is recovering. He is at the Maryland General Hospital in Baltimore.
