1784 June 25 Robert Ridgely to James Clarke

SIDE ONE

Northend 25 June 1784

Dear Sir

We were so happy as to be favoured this morning with yours of the 24th April. — Mr Clarke did us the pleasure of delivering it, from whom we received the agreeable particulars of all transactions at Patuxent Hill. The most welcome circumstance was that of your being in such confirmed good health. — This, with your perseverance & assiduity, will I trust soon enable you to dissipate the temporary gloom that must necessarily hang over your affairs. — As my last letter to you by the Maryland Capt Bowie, was also dated 24 April I am in hopes you are by this time in possession of it, with the Box that accompanyd it, containing the articles of your last commission. — Mr Clarke proposes returning in about a Month or 5 weeks, & by that opportunity we intend sending the Bedstead & Beagle Dogs — It gives me great pleasure to find that Dr. is in a way of
