Dear Sir

Your favour from Baltimore by Major Smith with the money for Mr Hamsley I received but have not had an opportunity of sending it have some thoughts of making Tommy go down with it in a few days — I have the pleasure of saying that Sammy was brave when I left home which was on Wednesday; still he recovers but slowly which you may concave when I tell you he has not as yet been able to walk a step or indeed to help himself in any manner; he rides out every good day; it is of much benefit to him; he has a fever every Evening but we are in hopes they will leave him by degrees as he recovers strength — My Sister appears to be more sensible of the fatigue than she was at first her mind is more composed than I have seen it lately and the Bath I am in hopes
