WALTER R. RUDY, Chairman.

Geo. E. Baughman, Secretary.

Ex-Gov. J. S. Hogg, of Texas, is not the only prominent Democrat, by a great many, opposed to Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, as the party's candidate for the Presidency. Col. William J. Bryan, the leader of the free silver, 16 to 1, element of the party, has announced his bitter hostility to Judge Parker and to the platform adopted by the New York convention which endorsed his candidacy. Col. Bryan hired a hall in Chicago, that he might be free from all entanglements with local Democratic factions. He invited Chicago Democrats to his meeting, and they went in such numbers that the hall would not hold them. His meeting was without a presiding officer and he introduced himself. And then he "let loose" in his usual trenchant style against the plutocratic influences behind Judge Parker, whose candidacy he utterly condemned. Evidently the Democrats do not constitute a very happy family.

HON. JOHN K. COWEN.

Hon. John K. Cowen, of Baltimore, that great lawyer and ex-president of the B. & O. R. R. Co., died at Chicago on Monday night and his remains were interred today at Millersburg, O. A large number of eminent Baltimoreans left Camden Station yesterday afternoon, by special train, to attend the funeral, which will be held in the Presbyterian Church, at Millersburg. Ex Judge James A. C. Bond, of this city, a classmate and very intimate friend of Mr. Cowen, accompanied the party and is one of the honorary pall-bearers of the deceased lawyer and statesman.

The first quarterly conference of the Deer Park Circuit will be held at Harmony Grove Church, May 14th, at 2 P. M.

John Lewis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Magin, born April 22nd, 1904, died Wednesday of this week.

Manchester Items.

Sunday last was the nearest approach to spring our section has had. It was an ideal day and brought out a large congregation to Emanuel Lutheran Church of this town to the German Communion services by the Rev. H. H. Flick. The morning and evening services at Trinity Reformed Church were conducted by the Rev. W. E. Krebs, D. D., of Littlestown, Pa.

On Sunday afternoon 28 members of Carroll Encampment No. 17, I. O. O. F., drove to the home of B. F. Bosley at Greenmount, where they formed in line in full regalia and marched to the Greenmount Church and attended services by the Rev. Zuse, who based his impressive remarks upon Faith, the first motto of the order. The church was filled to overflowing and the organization received a warm welcome not only from the officers but the minister also who grasped each one's hand in happy greeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Miller gave an interesting social to a number of friends at their home on South Main Street, on Tuesday evening, 26th inst., the anniversary of their wedding, which was solemnized 16 years ago in Baltimore. Trinity Mite Society held its weekly meeting in the home in the early evening, attending to its regular routine business, after which flinch had a period for quite a number of the party. In the close game of donkey that was played at a high tension, Mrs. H. T. J. Lamotte was donkeyized after a hot contest. The bride of 16, now hostess of the home, who always keeps abreast with the times, introduced a new feature of entertainment in an auction sale, conducted by Mr. H. T. J. Lamotte. 30 articles were exposed and brought fabulous prices, so that the sale amounted to $2137. To encourage bidding and buying each guest was supplied with a neat money bag containing 100 beans, each bean had a purchasing value of $1.00. "An Aid to Reflection" brought $30. Rev. S. M. Roeder, (a pocket mirror,) "For noisy Kids nursing" (nursing bottle) brought $55. A "diamond pin" (a dime on a pin) $116. "Woman's weapon" (a miniature rolling pin) $110. Each article was elaborately wrapped in paper; the rule of the sale was none to be opened until all were sold. At that period the interest was doubly intensified as the well named articles came forth. Each person was supplied with a neat catalogue and the articles sold by their numbers. Mr. Chas. J. Everhart was clerk and received the cash. At this period the bride and groom acted well their parts in the serving of refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee in abundance. The midnight hour was already coming in sight ere the good nights were said and kind wishes expressed for many succeeding anniversaries to the happy coupie.

Mrs. May C. Gettier entertained the boys of her Sunday School class, with a number of misses, at her home on North Main street on Tuesday evening, at a progressive flinch party, in honor of the 14th birthday anniversary of her daughter Ethel. That the masters and misses enjoyed the evening, amid the games and music, is but half saying it. At 10 P. M. refreshments of ice cream, cake, fruits, &c., were served.

Rev. S. M. Roeder assisted the Rev. Hartman, at Silver Run, in Communion services on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Hines, of Baltimore, were guests at the home of Mrs. Miraud Rudisil on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles E. Fuhrman and daughters, of Cass, W. Va., are visiting friends here during the week.

Mr. H. A. Myers, of Baltimore spent several days of this week at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. E. W. Fuhrman.

Dr. John F. B. Weaver was at the Johns Hopkins Hospital on Monday in consultation with the professors as to his condition.

Miss Lizzie Herr, of Westminster, visited her sister, Mrs. Doctor Trump, during the week.

General sympathy has gone out to Mr. Theodore Fuhrman and family on York street in the sudden death of the wife and mother. On Wednesday Mr. F., who is employed at the Washington House, went to his home about 11 A. M., where Mrs. Fuhrman was busy preparing for dinner. She requested him to bring her an armful of wood for which he went to the wood house and, returning in a few moments, found her lying on the floor dead. His outcry brought several neighbors to his help. Dr. J. H. Preston was summoned but found that death had been caused by heart trouble. Mrs. F. was a devoted wife, indulgent mother and kind neighbor and friend. She was a consistent member of the Reformed Church and always attentive to her Christian duties. She leaves a husband, four sons and five daughters to mourn her loss. She was about 60 years old. Her funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Charles Grove, near town, is quite ill at this writing. His eyesight has gradually failed him until now he is entirely blind and with dropsy and heart trouble his condition is critical.

We are glad to know that our former townsman, C. W. Stick, of Hampstead, who several weeks ago was in a critical condition from the removal of an ingrown nail, is convalescing and promises to be out in a short time.

Mrs. G. W. J. Everhart entertained her brother and sister, Mr. Geo. A. Crouse and Mrs. M. L. Morelock, at tea on Sunday last.

Mr. Geo. H. Trout, of Woodberry, was a visitor here during the week.

A German Medicine Company is giving an entertainment every evening during the week in the I. O. O. F. Hall of this place.

The members of the Lutheran Sunday School of this place will hold a festival and lunch box sale on Friday and Saturday evenings, 6th and 7th, prox., in the Hoffacker store room, on South Main street.

Friends here of Mrs. Edmund S. Everhart, of Woodberry, were informed of her being paralyzed on Tuesday evening, affecting the right side. Mrs. E. is a native of Frizellburg, this county. She is a sister of the late John C. Frizell and Judge William Frizell and was at one time a resident of this place for a number of years.

[Mrs. Everhart died at her home in Woodberry this morning.—Ed.]

Wakefield Items.

Mr. Wm. T. Robertson, of Warfieldsburg, was the guest of Mr. Samuel Robertson, Sunday last.

Mrs. Reese Barnes is on the sick list.

Mrs. Geo. P. L. Hoover visited friends in Manchester this week.

Mrs. Samuel Robertson, who was on the sick list for the past week, is able to be out again.

Preaching at Mr. Samuel Robertson's, Sunday night last, was largely attended.

Mrs. J. M. Warner and family attended lovefeast Saturday last at Meadow Branch.

Mrs. Granville Bixler and son visited friends in New Windsor, Sunday.

The weekly prayer meeting will be held this Sunday evening at Mr. Samuel Robertson's.

Misses Lottie and Nettie Mitten, of Melville, were the guests of Mrs. James, Sunday last.

Mr. Arthur Lambert, of New Windsor, threshed about the last wheat in the neighborhood for Mr. Geo. P. L. Hoover, on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Baile and sons, Reagle and Harry, visited Mrs. Geo. P. L. Hoover, Sunday last.

Frizellburg Items.

Mrs. Mary Jane Yingling died at her home here, Monday noon, after a short illness, of general debility and old age. She was about 76 years old and was twice married. Her first husband was Hezekiah Lambert, who died in 1890, leaving two children. Her second husband was William Yingling, who died in 1897, leaving no children by the marriage. Funeral services were held in the Church of God here Tuesday afternoon, after which the remains were taken to Baust's Church cemetery and interred. She was a member of that congregation, and her pastor, Rev. H. J. Macalister, officiated.

Rev. C. E. McCullough, of Uniontown, will preach in the chapel here Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Union Chapel Sunday School will be reorganized Sunday morning, at half past nine o'clock.

A Christian Endeavor rally will be held in the chapel here next Wednesday night, May 4th at 7.30. Five societies are expected to be represented. Rev. Mr. Mower, of Taneytown; S. H. Little, president of the C. E. County Union; Rev. C. E. McCullough, and probably others will make addresses. Everybody is invited.

A Delightful Surprise Party.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Nelson, near Granite, Baltimore county, was the scene of a very delightful surprise party on Monday night of last week given in honor of their daughter, Miss Mollie, by her many friends. The guests began to arrive at an early hour and were cordially received by Misses Lucy and Mollie. Parlor games and social conversation were indulged in until 11 o'clock, when refreshments were served in great abundance. Games were then again indulged in until a late hour, when the happy party, having heartily thanked their host and hostess, returned to their respective homes well pleased with their evening's enjoyment. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Sutch, Misses Lucy and Mollie Nelson, Carrie Dell, Lula Parsley, Annie Rehmeyer, Bettie Hollbrook, Ella Kelley, Clara Sutch, Louisa Hollbrook, Florence O. Rake, Lillie Nelson, Messrs. Harry Nelson, Maurice Richter, George Ehlers, Louis Bowen, James Hamilton, Frank Weiler, Norman Dell, Eugene Wheats, Leslie Ehlers, Chas. Dell, Milton Hollbrook, Chas. Alexander, Gilbert Randall, Herbert Hollbrook, Albert Kelley, Keener Nelson, Luther Sutch, Wm. Randall, Wm. Alexander and Rezin Triplet.

FOR SALE.—Life of Noah S. Zepp, an invalid for 25 years. Price 10 cents. Address, Noah S. Zepp, Melrose, Md.

A GREAT SENSATION.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similiar cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by all Druggists. Trial bottles free.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: My skin wa almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at all drug stores.

An illustrated lecture with stereopticon views will be given at Messiah Lutheran church, near Berrett, on Sunday evening May 8th, at 8 o'clock, by Mr. G. W. Yeiser, of Union Mills: Subject, the Life of Christ from the Manger to the Throne; illustrated with 150 views of Palestine. Also a number of views from Ezypt, Babylonis, Switzerland, Ruins of Herculaneum and Pompeii. Silver collection at the door. Proceeds for the benefit of Messian church.

MAKES A CLEAN SWEEP.

There's nothing like doing a thing thoroughly. Of all the Salves you ever heard of, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best. It sweeps away and cures Burns, Sores, Bruises, Cuts, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It's only 25c, and guaranteed to give satisfaction by all Druggists.

The Linwood Union Sunday School will hold their annual Strawberry and Ice Cream Festival in Hall, on Friday night and Saturday afternoon and night of May 27th and 28th. On Saturday evening a meat supper will be served. Every effort will be made to live up to our motto, which is: Seek, find, fill and let none go away dissatisfied.

A THOUGHTFUL MAN.

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c, at all Drug Stores.

MARRIED

At Bethel M. E. Church, Sams Creek, April 28th, 1904, by Rev. L. M. Bennett, Mr. Geo. W. DeVries, of Freedom district, and Miss Grace V. Stem, of Dennings.

Near Bloom, April 24th, 1904, by Elder Wm. H. Franklin, Mr. Geo. C. Stem and Miss Cora A. Carr, both of this county,

In this city, April 26th, 1904, by Rev. L. F. Warner, Mr. Mervin G. Barr, of Chicago, and Miss Anna, daughter of Mortimer Dorsey, of this city.

Near Taylorsville, April 20th, 1904, by Rev. Arthur T. Evans, Mr. Albert H. Jordan, of Gist, and Miss Bertie C. Condon, near Taylorsville.

DIED.

In this city, April 26th, 1904, Selena M., wife of Geo. F. Heiwig, aged 67 years, 3 months and 12 days.

In Pleasant Valley, April 28th, 1904, Wm. Myers, in the 64th year of his age.

Near Fountain Valley, Calvin Reuben, son of Edward O. and Katie E. Starner, died April 19, 1904, aged 7 months and 19 days, and was buried on Thursday morning, April 1st, at St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church, Rev. R. W. Doty conducting the funeral services. The pall-bearers were: Ralph D. Starner, Wm. C. Starner, Calvin S. Dell and Chas. G. Starner, cousins of the deceased.

His little crib is empty now,
His little clothes laid by,
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arms doth lie.

All is sad within our dwelling,
Lonely is our home to-day;
Calvin, one we loved so dearly,
Has forever passed away.

By his parents.

A little rosebud to us was sent,
But short his time with us was spent;
But now he sits upon the throne
And watches for his friends to come home.

God needed one more angel child
Amidst his shining band,
And so he bent with loving smile
And clasped our darling's hand.

We miss him, oh! how much,
Our God alone can tell;
He took him from our loved embrace;
He doeth all things well.

By his aunt Lydia and uncle Harry Starner and friend Bessie Riley.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

ST. STEPHEN'S LODGE NO. 95, I. O. O. F.
DANIEL, MD., April 16th, 1904.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in whose hands the life and destiny of all men rest, to summons from our midst, and to his eternal reward, Brother Horace L. Shipley, who has been an earnest supporter of Odd Fellowship, fearless in advocating the principles of Benevolence and Charity; always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need, and also a consistent member of Ebenezer M. E. Church; always ready to assist in advancing the cause of Christianity;

Resolved, While we deeply feel our loss we humbly bow in submission to the unerring wisdom of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Shipley our order has sustained a great loss; a vacancy has been caused in our rank; a gloom pervades our order, but that which has been our loss, we hope and trust will be his eternal gain, and that the brother has only withdrawn from us to enter the haven of rest.

Resolved, That as a mark of respect for our deceased brother we drape our lodge for a period of 30 days from the date of these resolutions.

Resolved, That we tender to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this their hour of affliction and, furthermore, be it

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Democratic Advocate, and American Sentinel, and a copy of them be sent to the family.

ANNIVERSARY SALE.

Ten Years ago next week we opened this Dry Goods Store.

It was a small store then; it has risen gradually to be the largest and best known store in this section of the state (outside of Baltimore,) and in many respects "their equal." It has taken a great deal of thought and hard work to bring it up to where it stands, but we feel you have appreciated our efforts, as you have helped to make this store what it is. It is a store where every error is gladly corrected; where goods are offered at the lowest margin; where a low price never meant a doubtful quality. It has been our aim to give you a thoroughly satisfactory store as good and nearly perfect as we can make it. In order to properly commemorate our tenth anniversary we are going the give away on
