1985 Oct. 7 And [illegible]

SIDE TWO

Fanny does not improve quite so fast My Sister has been very unwell since you left us, ~~[illegible]~~ to Day she is better and down Stairs again, my Pro^r, so much better that he still hopes to Visit the back country some time this fall, I am quite hearty and hope I shall for the first time leave Chester with out imploying a Doc^r Poor Mrs Carmichel I am sincerly sorry for her family. this ~~[illegible]~~ shore is a shocking place to live at, I have heard of more deaths since I came here then I heard in twelve months at home. Mrs Cadwallader had a little one born dead, but is her self in a fair way to recover. pray write me from Baltimore & believe me to be your very Affe Ann Cheston

Vance desires his love to you the girls write for them selves Octr 7 1785

X — Murray