[1785] A. Bensley to [illegible]

SIDE TWO

Evidently Summer of 1785

Prior to 1785 as Mrs Stevenson died in the autumn of that year—

My Dear Brother.

As Mr Ben has given you an account of us & our goings and as I intend to have a letter that will reach Sharp say much to you at present—I hope you recieved the things safe sent by Capt Chagey in the Autumn, for we have not heard from you since—the Cloaths shoes & hat I hope will fit if they fail any where be particular in your next—here we are quietly seated down for the summer after a Dismall Winter of ill Health & Melancholy Weather, the Sun has scarcely made its appearance yet to cheer us—I have sent you all Mr Roberts papers & our own which are very irregular, for the the old veresman in bad weather leaves as out of his round—Mr Roberts family are all well & desire kind remembrance to you & yours—the young ones are all most grown men & woman & promise to be clever—I wrote Dan an account of our Cousin Chester Loss of his son Sam who, you must remember he turn'd
