MEMORIAL DAY.

Angelina W. Wray, in Harper's Bazar.

With waving of starry banners,
With music of bugles sweet,
All day through our streets has echoed
The tramp of marching feet.
From many a mountain valley,
From city and town and hill,
Around the graves where their comrades sleep
The soldiers gather still.

They think of the bitter partings
When first they marched away;
The ranks of Blue from the North-land,
From the sunny South the Gray.
Some with hearts that were eager
And hot with the fire of youth,
Some with a purpose steady
To fight for God and truth.

They think of the battle's tumult
And the cannons' sullen roar,
And the yellow glow of sunset light
When the weary fight was o'er;
When, gathered around the camp-fire,
Their yearning thoughts would roam,
And softly sweet some comrade sang
The words of "Home, Sweet Home."

They remember the solemn roll-calls,
And the silent pauses that came
When in the hush the sergeant called
Some missing soldier's name.
They remember the days of terror,
And nights that were long with dread,
When left alone on the field they watched
With the dying and the dead.

With ranks that are growing thinner
Each year the soldiers meet;
All day through our streets has echoed
The tramp of their marching feet.
Marching closer together,
Oh! loyal ranks of Blue!
In silence deep your comrades sleep,
Fcr the weary strife is through.

Marching closer together,
Oh! patient ranks of Gray!
In silence deep your comrades sleep,
And strife has passed away.
For both we mourn with loving tears;
Brave hearts on either side.
The memory of your noble deeds
Still thrills our hearts with pride.

And year by year we gather,
With wreaths and garlands gay,
To deck the graves where dreaming lie
The ranks of Blue and Gray.
And the grass shall wave o'er the low green tents,
And blossoms crown the sod,
When the last brave soldier falls asleep
In the long sweet Peace of God.

When First Observed.

In 1868 the Grand Army of the Republic first began to observe the day in a formal manner. The South adopted the custom of decorating its soldiers' graves with flowers before the Civil War closed and the practice spread to the North just after the war, but it did not become general until 1868. At that time General Logan was commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., and his order for the observance of the day was issued early in May, the 30th of May being designated for the ceremonies.

Making the Best of Life.

The average dictionary defines an optimist as one who believes that all things are for the best. One day a man wielding a hammer struck his thumb instead of the nail he had intended to hit, and a friend, happening along a while after, said: "That's too bad!" "No, it isn't; it's a fortunate happening," said the man. "It has taught me the value of that thumb as I never knew it before. There are just two hundred and fifty-seven things I have tried to do without that thumb, and found it impossible. Will you please open my penknife for me? Thank you? That makes the two hundred and fifty-eighth." That man was an optimist. A man fell out of a window on the sixteenth story of a building, and as he shot by each window on his way down, he called out: "All right so far!" He was not borrowing trouble, He was an optimist. Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch said: "Never open your umbrella until it begins to rain." She, like the man just mentioned, did not believe in anticipating evil.

"Now, children," said the teacher, "let us see what you remember about the animal kingdom, and the domestic animals that belong to it. You have named all the domestic animals but one. Who can tell me what that one is? It has bristly hair, likes dirt, and is fond of getting into the mud," Miss Fanny looked expectantly around the room. "Can't you think, Tommy?" she asked, encouragingly. "Yes'm," was the shamefaced reply. "It's me."

Letter to Jas. H. Cassell

WESTMINSTER

Dear Sir: The way to reckon the cost of paint is to put both costs together; the cost of the paint and the cost of putting it on.

It would save this country hundreds of millions of dollars a year; it would save you alone (if you happen to be a victim) several dollars a year.

See how it works. It costs as much to put-on one paint as another, don't it?

Yes, if you use the same number of gallons.

Well don't I?

No, you'll use twice as many gallons of adulterated paint as of Devoe; and you've got to pay twice as much for putting it on.

Mr. N. Avery, Delhi, N Y, has two houses alike and in the same condition. Painted one house with Devoe: 6 gallons. Painted the other house with a paint that was half adulteration: 12 gallons. Same painter, Geo. Gilbert, did both jobs. One cost $27; the other $54.

Better go by the name,
Yours truly
F W DEVOE & Co

Geo. W. Yeiser sells our paints.

A farmer journeyed to one of the large cities to witness a football game. On his return, a neighbor asked him about it. "Nothing to tell," he said. "Just let 22 big hogs out on a soft field any day, and then throw down a peck or so of corn in a sack, and see 'um go for it, and you'll know 'bout what a game of football looks like to a farmer."
