SIDE ONE

to surround us —

I wrote you some time ago that a Ne= =gro fellow of mine was in jail he has since broke out and I think it is not improbable he may endeavour to get across the bay should he come to Tulip Hill you will order him to the Low lands to Billy Watsons — Inclosed you have a letter to me from Billy Pearce shewing which bundle of the fork eight to be used first which Billy Watson must attend to when the forks come over — should it turn out so that I may cross the bay I will do it immediately if not shall write you again very fully — with my best love to all my friends

I rec'd a letter to day from my Brother dated yesterday from Rent Island, he says he shall return again in a few days — I write to him from him about the mares — they are ready to cross the bay — I will write him shortly

Mr Tilly has a few bag ham — 7 Cannel pork — 4 of them have pickle — 1 bag an old Cannel with some tar on the side and another good fair that has no pickle and ought to be used first — have mislaid Mr. Lilly

Dear Sir

Yours and Nancys favours by Mr Darsey came to hand on Thursday last and you may easily im= =agine they gave us not a little satisfaction to hear that matters at Tulip Hill had terminated so fortunately and I would fain flatter myself this will be the last affair of the kind, I think the Gentleman is so sensibly of his Situ =ation being a happy one that I am very apt to believe he will not carry matters to extremities — Inclosed you have the letter from the Guardians which I hope will have the good effect that is wished — Tom's character begins to stand very fair on this shore and it is a pity he should lack it again, no person with us knows of this last frolick but his Mother and Grandmother and I think it will be best to keep the matter quiet if it has not already got abroad Poor Polly has been frame both of body and mind much with a very great shock but your last letter have restored her to peace of quiet again — The comforts she has in this life are very small and the pain she suffers is too great a proportion for one person, she has not been free from the Rheumatism for a long time past from which she suffers exceedingly and looks wretchedly — We have at last got the apparatus from Philadelphia and
