Mr James Anderson
Tulip Hill

Dear Sir

My flat will take on board on Mon= =day next some Corn which I purchased of Mr Robert Anderson, he will endeavour to make up the Quantity to 20 barrells - Billy Pearce will write Mr Shaney by the flat and inform him of the exact number of barrells send. which I requeed he will measure again as the Shipper is a Negro. and Corn not plenty - I inform Billy Wad= =son I have not been able to have the three plows made every body busy so engaged with their Harvest. he must apply to Mass of Tidings without you could get them some plowshares in time from Baltimore and then I suppose Lane could do the Iron work - Ben Brice is dead. I will believe you to look after that debt - have made some enquiry but cannot get any certain account of his circumstances but have been told he has left sufficient to pay his debts. Not un= =till now have I been able to get from home early tomorrow morning I go off, tho against the opinion of Anderson. but I will stay no longer the Cloud which has for many years hung over me I flatter myself is now dispersing and I have a flattering prospect before me - I have not re= =covered so fast as I could have wish. owing to the Physick I have been taken to carry off the other
