SIDE TWO

no reason to complain. – I am very much concern'd at the melancholy accounts you give of the unquiet & uncomfortable state of matters on your side of the water. –
I hope, by relying on your Terra firma, & making that yield you your conveniencies, you will escape the anxieties & disappointments that must attend a trading life under such circumstances. – It is hard, indeed, to wait the slow progress of a whole people's return to their senses, & to orderly government, before you can have tolerable security for the reward of your industry. – That this may not be so far a distant period as you may have reason to fear, is our most sincere wish. – Accept likewise our warmest wishes for yours & Mrs Clesters & the little ones health & happiness. –

Believe me, my Dear Sir
Most sincerely Yours
Rd Beasley
