SIDE TWO

and most probable will be at West River before the man will want it. I have delivered Barley's Bond to Mr. Tilghman who will put into the hands of some Gentleman of the Law of York County - He recommends sending B. Price's bond to Mr. Bafsil of Dover with directions to sue an attachment and he thinks there is no time to be lost - If you will send the bond to Chester I will forward it to Dover & it is probable I shall see Mr. Bafsil before I leave this place and will mention the matter to him -

Peggy Chew was married last Evening which puts Sally & myself at liberty to return home immediately which I shall do as soon as I can have ~~my~~ Sister Catherine up to meet us at Wilmington - I hope to leave this by Thursday next. having an opportunity of writing by R. Anderson to Polly tomorrow -

I am much pleased with your account of the wheat Crops. or rather their appearance & I can but make a tolerable crop this year. ~~with~~ with the assistance I shall get from my Uncle Chew who is a man in easy circumstances at Tulip Hill and I flatter myself I have as good a prospect of happiness in this world with my little Woman as is generally to be met with -

I am happy to hear Nancy has recovered her health - Sally who is very well joins me with the rest of the family in love to you all

Dear Sir I am

Yours Sincerely

John Galloway
