1768 Feb 21 James Clerk to Samuel Galloway

SIDE TWO

Mr. John Galloway remitted a bill to us of £300 — and drew another on us for the same sum which we accepted, but as it is not yet due, remains unpaid — this will naturally return back to him. he must therefore have recourse to our Effects in Maryland for payment of it with damages and a small ballance due to him of about £80 — if Mr. Young has not money sufficient for it, it must be raised from the Nottingham Store or that at Elk Ridge Landing, and I hope Mr. Galloway will suffer no temporary inconvenience from the Event — Any Goods that may come from Charles Town, as advised by him, I will take care to have placed in proper hands, and advise him of it —

I do not write to him, I have scarcely spirits to write at all — adieu my dear Sir my kindest respects to Mrs. Cheston, the Young Ladies, Jemmy, and all the family — it is not probable I shall ever see you again in Maryland — I am very sincerely

Your Obedt Hble Servt
