LOCAL ITEMS.

Warmer fair weather is predicted by the Signal Service Bureau for tomorrow.

Dr. Jos. T. Hering, of this city, has had his residence handsomely repainted.

Mr. C. Edw. Helwig, of this city, has taken a position with the Albaugh & Babylon Grocery Company.

Mr. J. David Crowl found a stalk of corn that measured 13 feet 3 inches, in one of his fields, this week.

The Washington and Westminster turnpike, extending a few miles from this city, is receiving a coating of limestone.

A children's day service will be held at the Bethel of the Church of God in Warfieldsburg, on Sunday evening, August 7th, at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Morris Franklin, for some time past employed as decorator at Hering's department store in this city, has secured a position in Baltimore.

Governor Warfield, on Wednesday, appointed Clarence A. Cover a justice of the peace for this county, vice John Elgen, failed to qualify.

The County Commissioners were in session on Monday, but transacted only general business, including the passage of bills presented against the county.

Grace Lutheran Sunday School of this city will hold its annual picnic on Tuesday next, in the grove of Mr. Theo. F. Englar, near the city limits.

Miss Mabel Buckingham, daughter of Mr. A. W. Buckingham, of this city, has been appointed bookkeeper and cashier at the Blue Mountain House.

The railroad ticket office in this city sold 176 tickets to the Lutheran reunion at Pen-Mar. 50 were sold at Linwood and large numbers at other stations.

The Sunday School of St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city, will hold its annual picnic on Wednesday next in the grove near Roop's Mill, at Meadow Branch.

The School Commissioners of Frederick county have awarded scholarships at Western Maryland College to M. H. Haupt and Miss Hattie Bell, both of Middletown.

Those who are looking for bargains in merchandise should consult the advertisements of Westminster merchants in this week's SENTINEL. They will find many seasonable articles named at very low prices.

The officers and members of Co. H, First Regiment I. M. N. G., left this city by an early train on Monday morning, for Glenburnie, Anne Arundel county, where they spent a couple of days in target practice, returning on Tuesday evening.

Messrs. Smith & Reifsnider, of this city, have at their office a stalk of silo corn, grown by Mr. Andrew D. Reese, which measures 11 feet though it has not begun to tassel. Corn of this variety, it is said, grows to a height of 18 feet. The seed came from Virginia and the product is claimed to be a perfect corn for ensilage.

Westminster was crowded with visitors on Saturday evening and the attendance at the fete of St. John's Catholic Church was very large until a light rain made it necessary for the people to seek temporary shelter. Notwithstanding the large crowd on the streets and on the church grounds it is said that good order prevailed.

The Maryland Association of Ohio will hold its annual reunion at the Chautauqua Grounds, Franklin, O., on Thursday, August 4th. Good music, good speaking and a general good time is promised. The staff of the SENTINEL is indebted to Mr. C. J. Yingling, of Tiffin, formerly of this city, for an invitation to attend the reunion. All Marylanders will be cordially welcomed.

On Wednesday Judge Keedy, of Washington county, signed the papers incorporating the Williamsport Canning Company, of Washington county, Md. The incorporators are: Robert H. Pollock, Baltimore; Wm. B. Thomas, W. Frank Thomas, Theodore A. Kauffman and Joseph E. Hunter, of this city. The capital stock is $6,000 divided into 600 shares of the par value of $10 each. The machinery is now being installed in the company's new cannery at Williamsport.

Raising onions has become a profitable business for some of the farmers in Woolery's and the southern part of Westminster district. During the past week large quantities have been sold in this city for shipment to Baltimore, 500 bushels, it is said, having been brought in on Wednesday. One farmer on a small farm near Warfieldsburg, reports that he raised 300 bushels this season and sold them at $1.25 per bushel. The price paid the grower varies from 90 cents to $1.25, according to quality.

Mr. Harry Hughes, a young man who resides with his father on the Deer Park road in Woolery's district, met with a singular accident while pitching at a game of baseball at the church picnic at Gamber on Saturday last. In attempting to pitch a curved ball he gave his arm a twist which fractured the bone between the elbow and shoulder. Dr. S. N. Gorsuch adjusted the fracture, which will disable Mr. Hughes for some time, but will probably not have any permanent ill effect.

By an advertisement of Emory Grove Camp Meeting, in this week's SENTINEL, it will be seen that the first four days of the camp, beginning August 4, will be devoted to a Sunday School convention. This convention is to be made especially interesting by the presence of Rev. Dr. J. T. McFarland, secretary of the S. S. Union of the M. E. Church and editor of the S. S. Journal and Magazine, who will deliver two or three addresses and also suggest methods of work; and Rev. Dr. Gross Alexander, of Vanderbilt University, who will give Bible readings and preach.

Mr. John Gale, son of Mr. Anthony Gale, near this city, had his left leg broken above the knee, while attempting to mount one of the flying horses on the grounds at St. John's parochial school, on Tuesday evening. He had been turning the machinery, which propels the horses, with such energy that a high rate of speed was attained and, in attempting to mount, his leg came in contact with a tree with great violence. The bone was broken straight across. Mr. Gale was attended by Dr. J. S. Mathias, of this city, who adjusted the fracture and treated him for other injuries sustained by the accident.

Numerous showers and thunderstorms have visited various portions of this county during the past week.

The fete being held on the grounds of St. John's Catholic Church, this city, has been much interrupted by the frequent rains since it began, and, on that account, it will be continued on Friday and Saturday evenings of next week. It will be open tonight and tomorrow night if not again interrupted by inclement weather. It has thus far been well attended and the ladies in charge have spared no effort to make it attractive and pleasing.

The barn and all the other outbuildings, except a cornerib, on the farm of Mr. Charles T. Repp, in New Windsor district, with their contents, were destroyed by a fire of unknown origin on Wednesday, 20th inst. Two horses perished in the flames, and about 16 tons of hay, 10 bushels of wheat, all the farm implements, except a self-binder and a corn-sheller, a lot of harness and other articles were destroyed. The loss approximates $1,200. Mr. Repp has $300 insurance in the Montgomery County Mutual Company on buildings, but nothing on the contents destroyed. He had fortunately threshed and hauled away his wheat, which accounts for the small quantity of that grain destroyed. The farm is tenanted by Mr. George Zepp.

Mr. Wm. D. Lovell, of New Windsor, a popular deputy in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for this county, lost his pocketbook, containing $60, on Tuesday. Mr. Lovell thinks he drew it from his pocket with a couple of bank books, as he was about to make a deposit with the Westminster Deposit and Trust Company. Among other things the pocketbook contained a copper cent of the date of 1817 and this coin was found in a spittoon in the office of the company, into which it must have fallen when the book dropped on the floor. The denominations of the money lost were one $20 gold note and four $10 notes. There was in the pocketbook an accident insurance card in Mr. Lovell's name, so that the finder is aware of its ownership.

During one of the recent thunderstorms in this county, lightning struck the residence of Mr. Harry E. Ecker, near Mt. Olive Church in Mt. Airy district, damaging it seriously. Between 40 and 50 panes of window glass were broken, and the locks were knocked off the doors, which were thrown open and considerably shattered. The worst effect of the shock was felt in a small building adjoining the dwelling and used for the storage of provisions, jarred fruits, &c. The structure was literally knocked to pieces and its contents completely destroyed. Fortunately Mr. and Mrs. Ecker were absent from home or they would probably have been killed. The house took fire, but the flames were seen by a neighbor, Mr. Harry Trayer, who hastened to the scene and succeeded in extinguishing the blaze. The loss sustained by Mr. Ecker is covered by insurance in the Dug Hill Company.

Mr. Jacob Gamber, of Gamber, was struck and seriously injured by Wm. Bowers, who resides near Finksburg, on Saturday last. The trouble occurred in Gamber and, it is alleged, Mr. Gamber was endeavoring to get away from his assailant when he received a blow struck with such violence that his jaw was badly fractured on the left side. Dr. S. N. Gorsuch adjusted the fracture, but deemed the injury of such a serious nature that Mr. Gamber was sent to a hospital in Baltimore. Constable Elias N. Davis, of this city, who happened to be in Gamber when the affair occurred, with the assistance of Mr. George Zentgraf, of this city, arrested Bowers and took him before Justice John T. Hill, who committed him to jail without bail. On Monday the accused was taken before Justice Crapster and was released on bail in the sum of $500, for a hearing on the 15th of August, when, it is thought, Mr. Gamber will be able to appear against him.

At the target shooting at Glenburnie, on Monday and Tuesday, fourteen members of Co. H qualified for the 500 yard range and Sergt. Weigle and Corp. Holmes also qualified on that range. Sergt. Weigle made the marksman class with a score of 98 out of 150. Other scores have not as yet been received, but will be published next week. Co. H has had the proud honor of being designated as the "banner company" and in a speech to its members Major Fort, the executive officer, stated that they had made the best showing in appearance, conduct and shooting. Previous to his speech he said to Capt. Smith: "Captain, your company is the banner company in behavior, shooting and in every other respect and I wish to make a speech to them, as I feel that they should be complimented." The next drill of the company will be held on Monday, August 1st, and thereafter drills will be held every Monday until the Manassas maneuvers.

Masons at Pen-Mar.

The Masonic excursion to Pen-Mar on Tuesday afternoon, under the auspices of Door to Virtue Lodge of this city, was measurably successful and was thoroughly enjoyed by the excursionists. It is estimated that about 1000 Masons gathered at the attractive mountain resort and held an informal reunion. Among them were some of the most eminent members of the fraternity in the State. The private car of Vice-President Landstreet, of the Western Maryland Railroad, was attached to the excursion train and was occupied by Gov. Edwin Warfield, Grand Master Thomas J. Shryock, of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, Mayor E. Clay Timanus, of Baltimore, Vice-President Landstreet, General Passenger Agent F. M. Howell, Mayor Timanus, secretary, Harry W. Rogers, and Messrs. Charles F. Miller, Jr., Chas. C. Gorsuch and George R. Gehr. The last three gentlemen named constituted the committee of Door to Virtue Lodge which had charge of the arrangements for the excursion. The train left Baltimore at 1.15 P. M., and made stops in this city, and at New Windsor, Union Bridge and Thurmont, at each of which places numbers of Masons joined the party. A special train from Hagerstown also took many members to the park.

Door to Virtue Lodge is among the oldest Masonic organizations in the State and has an enviable standing in the fraternity. Its inception of this excursion and reunion was the means of bringing together in fraternal intercourse a large number of members of the order in this state and Pennsylvania and giving them a very pleasant afternoon and evening in the mountains. At the station in this city 150 tickets were sold.

The Smith Silo.

The use of ensilage in feeding stock has become almost a necessity and dairy farmers and others are, naturally, looking for the best silo on the market. It is a matter of local pride that the Smith silo, sold and handled by Messrs. Smith & Reifsnider, of this city, is becoming widely known as a superior one and that sales are being made at long distances from this point.

The firm has put up many in this county and has made sales in York, Adams and Lancaster counties, Pa. Early this month Mr. Joseph L. Franklin, representing the firm, went to Staunton, Virginia, and there met by appointment a number of stockmen. He exhibited a model of the Smith silo and explained its merits in competition with a silo made by the Hardey Manufacturing Company, Cobblesville, New York.

That the silo was satisfactory to the people, to whom its merits were exhibited, is shown by the fact that Mr. Franklin, as stated by the Staunton News, contracted for the construction of two silos, 18 by 30 feet, for James R. Kemper and one, 12 by 30 feet, for S. A. Porter, both of Augusta county. The firm last year sold two silos to Cornelius Driver, of Rockingham county, Virginia. The News mentioned the name of a number of prominent cattle raisers in that section of the Shenandoah Valley, who examined the model of the Smith silo, who will probably have silos erected. The agent of the New York silo did not make any sales.

Never Was Called Winchester.

It has frequently been said and is generally believed that the original name of Westminster was Winchester and that the name was changed because it was frequently confounded in the mails with Winchester, Va. When the town was first laid out this part of Carroll county lay within the lines of Frederick county, and Winchester, Va., was and still is in Frederick county of that State. The popular belief that similarity in the names of the places and of the counties in which they were located caused many mistakes in mail deliveries and led to the name of this town being changed to Westminster, appears to be without foundation. This opinion is predicated upon information for which the SENTINEL is indebted to Charles T. Reifsnider, Jr., Esq., of this city, who, upon a recent visit to Frederick, found in the clerk's office of that county a record which shows that, as far back as 1768, the place was called Westminster. That name was evidently given to it by its founder, Wm. Winchester, an Englishman, who doubtless had greater veneration for the English Westminster (part of London) than for his own name. The record found by Mr. Reifsnider is a land record, liber L, folio 472, &c., and is as follows:

"At the request of William Winchester the following plan of Westminster Town was recorded August 31, 1768, to-wit: Frederick County in Maryland, Whereas the subscriber in the year of our Lord seventeen hundred and sixty-four did lay out a piece of Ground In lots, streets and alleys, in this County on the main Road leading to Baltimore Town, near the head of little pipe Creek and the Lots to the number of forty-five being all disposed of and many of them improved, therefore for the satisfaction and security of the Purchasers the subscriber requests the clerk of this County to record this and the following courses.

WM. WINCHESTER.

"Beginning for the outlines of the aforesaid lotts, streets and alleys, at the bounded Trees of the original Tract called 'White's Level' and running thence South 30 degrees East ninety perches and then South 33 degrees West 26 perches then North 35 degrees West 86 perches to the giveing line of the original tract then with said line to the aforesaid place of beginning containing sixteen acres of land, said part is now called Westminster.

"See the plat laid down per scale of 200 feet in an inch.

The plat which accompanies the foregoing description is seven inches in length and two and a quarter inches wide, showing the town, as laid out, to have been fourteen hundred feet long and four hundred and fifty feet wide. Through the center of it, running lengthwise, was the street on which the 45 lots referred to fronted, 22 on one side and 23 on the other. This was called King street. It was crossed, near the center of the plat, by Church street and a about 600 feet southeast of that street by Bishop's alley, and 350 feet northwest of it by Store alley. Evidently this land is now what forms part of the East End of Westminster, beginning some distance southeast of Court street.

In giving the description as taken from the record in Frederick the punctuation, captilization and the orthography of that document have been strictly followed.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Annie Carr.

Mrs. Annie Carr, wife of Mr. Augustus Carr, of Bloom, this county, died yesterday morning, at the age of about 20 years. Mrs. Carr was a daughter of the late John Hollinger, of this city. Her husband and one child survive her. Funeral services will be held at St. John's Catholic Church, this city, tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Fannie S. Null.

Mrs. Fannie S. Null, widow of Abraham E. Null, died at her home near Mt. Union, Middleburg district, at 7.30 P. M., Monday, 25th inst., at the age of 85 years. Mrs. Null was an estimable lady. She was for many years a consistent member of the Lutheran Church and her remains were interred in the burial ground of Mt. Union Church on Wednesday afternoon, after funeral services conducted by Rev. G. W. Baughman, of Uniontown. Mrs. Null was a native of Taneytown district, and lived nearly her whole life in the northwestern section of this county. Her husband died about five years ago. Six daughters survive her: Mrs. C. F. Koons, of Waynesboro, Pa.; Mrs. Fannie S. Nagel, Mrs. Jennie Winemiller, Mrs. Missouri Feeser, Mrs. Alice Buffington and Mrs. Ella Crumbacker, of this county. She also leaves one brother, Mr. John Correll, near Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Jane Bowers.

Mrs. Mary Jane Bowers, a lifelong resident of this city and vicinity, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mayor Oscar D. Gilbert, at 11 o'clock on Sunday night, from the natural infirmities of old age, rather than because of actual disease. Her death was very peaceful and she passed away as quietly as if falling into a gentle sleep. Mrs. Bowers was born August 27, 1828, and was nearing the 76th anniversary of her birthday. She was the widow of the late John H. Bowers, for many years a prominent merchant of this city. Her father was the late Joseph Orndorff, of this district. Mrs. Bowers was for many years a consistent and devoted member of St. Paul's Reformed Church. She was an amiable and kind hearted lady and had many friends. She leaves five children—Mrs. Jehu Royer, near this city; Mrs. Oscar D. Gilbert, Mr. John D. Bowers, of this city; Mrs. C. W. Levan and Mrs. A. D. Garl Link, of Baltimore; and a number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Two sisters and a brother—Mrs. Elizabeth Gist, Mrs. Isadore Hoppe and Mr. Wm. H. Orndorff, all of this district—survive her. Funeral services, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. C. S. Slagle, of St. Paul's Reformed Church, were held at the residence of Mayor Gilbert on Wednesday morning, after which the remains were interred beside her husband, in Benjamin's Cemetery, near this city. The pall bearers were her grandsons and grandsons-in-law, Messrs. Ralph Royer, Ira Englar, Wm. Royer, Frank T. Myers, Ralph Reifsnider and Edw. Helwig. Among those present at the funeral from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowers, Mrs. Thomas H. Haller, Messrs. Ralph R. Bowers and Wm. C. Neidig, of Frederick; Miss M. Louise Bowers, of Mt. Pleasant, and Mr. Wm. A. Bair, of Hanover, Pa.

Daniel J. Baumgardner.

Mr. Daniel J. Baumgardner, a well known citizen and retired farmer of Westminster district, died at his home, a short distance north of this city, of apoplexy, on Sunday morning, at the age of 70 years, 4 months. He had only been ill a couple of days, having been found lying in a semi-conscious condition on the turnpike, about a half mile from his home, on Friday. He had gone with his spring wagon to his farm, about two miles distant and, it is supposed, was attacked by paralysis and fell from the vehicle. There was no evidence that he sustained any serious injury by the fall and Dr. J. H. Billingslea, who attended him, states that the cause of his death was apoplexy. Mr. Baumgardner owned a fine farm about 2½ miles from this city, where he engaged successfully in farming for many years. He also owned the property where he resided for a year or two since retiring from active life, and was, otherwise, a man of considerable means. He was a worthy and upright citizen, a member of St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church, and a firm Republican. He was childless and his wife, who was a sister of Capt. O. H. P. Mathias, of Baltimore, died 17 or 18 years ago. Three sisters—Mrs. Elsie, of this city; Mrs. Essig, of Stonersville, and Mrs. Edw. Z. Mathias, of Silver Run—survive him. Funeral services were held at St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church on Tuesday afternoon, his pastor, Rev. R. W. Doty, assisted by Rev. H. J. Macalister, of the Reformed Church, officiating. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Jeremiah Shaeffer, George U. Marker, Wm. Yingling, Abraham Leister, George Humbert and Samuel Fuhrman. Mr. F. C. Sharrer was funeral director.

Mrs. Susan Amelia Lindsay.

Mrs. Susan Amelia Lindsay, wife of Mr. Hamilton Lindsay, died on Saturday last at her residence, No. 2105 West North avenue, Baltimore, and her remains were taken to Unionville, Frederick county, for interment, on Tuesday. Mrs. Lindsay's husband was a former register of wills of Frederick county. She was a sister of Messrs. F. W. Barnes and J. Thomas Barnes, of Oak Orchard, and was an estimable and highly respected lady.

WEDDING BELLS.

Cantner-Stein.

Miss Lynn Stein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Stein, and Mr. John W. Cantner, of Waynesboro, Pa., were married at the Lutheran parsonage in that place on Wednesday evening, the pastor, Rev. C. H. Rockey, performing the marriage ceremony. The parents of the bride were former residents of this county and have many relatives here.

Hennighausen and daughters, Ruth and Elizabeth, Miss Fanny Peters, Miss Setskey Jones, Mr. Herman Hobelman and Mr. August Hinternesch.

Valuable Dog Killed.

The Gettysburg Star and Sentinel of last week tells of the killing of a very valuable dog, near Warfieldsburg, four or five miles from this city. The dog was called "Colonel," and belonged to Mr. R. L. Ehrhart, of Hanover, Pa. According to the account in the Gettysburg paper "Colonel" was a great dane, and was the best bred dog of that breed in the county and was valued at $500. While Mr. Ehrhart was camping at "Waldheim" the dog wandered away and came into this county, finally reaching the neighborhood of Warfieldsburg, where a well known citizen, thinking the animal exhibited signs of rabies, shot and killed him.

For the Sentinel.

Baseball at Taylorsville.

A very interesting game of baseball was played Taylorsville on Saturday afternoon between the Salem-Winfield Juniors and the Taylorsville team of No. 1 and No. 2 players. Mrs. John Harbaugh and daughters, Elizabeth and Elsie, left on Monday to visit friends in Westminster, enroute for their home in Baltimore.

At the lawn fete of the W. A. Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church, on Saturday evening, held at Sunnybank, the home of the Misses Mehring, on Clear Ridge, Miss Louisa Eckard opened a closed door, with the intention of entering a room, but it was unfortunately the door to a cellar way and she fell down several steps, breaking her collar bone on the right side. Dr. Kemp was called in and rendered surgical attention. She is able to be about, but suffers, not only from the fracture but from soreness, caused by the fall.

Mrs. Mary Garber is visiting friends at York Road.

Mrs. Sarah Fuss and Julia Harman have returned from their visit to relatives and friends in Littlestown and Taneytown.

On Friday Miss Lou Bare and brother, Samuel Bare, went to Waynesboro, Pa., to visit friends for a few days.

Rev. J. D. Clark accompanied Mr. Jesse F. Billmyer to Baltimore on Wednesday to Johns Hopkins Hospital, where he went for special treatment. We extend our sympathy to Mr. Billmyer and family.

On Saturday evening Elder W. P. Englar, of the German Baptist Church, performed the marriage ceremony at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hamburg, near Uniontown, for Mr. John W. Minnick, of Virginia, and Miss Florence Hamburg. They were attended by the brother of the bride, Mr. Norval Hamburg, and Miss Anna Kelley, of Uniontown.

Miss Bertha Bean, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Miss Eva E. Gilbert.

Miss Sallie Yingling and Elmer Yingling, of Baltimore, are visiting Miss Y's. sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckard.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey F. Caylor, of Denver, Col., are visiting friends in Carroll and at present are guests of Mr. C's. sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beard, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hampton Cummings and family, of Tilghmans, Md., are guests of Mrs. C's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Mathias.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slonaker, of Baltimore, visited Mr. S's. mother, Mrs. Amanda Slonaker, Saturday and Sunday and were guests of Mr. S's. sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harbaugh. They also called on some of their old friends, all of whom were glad to see them, as they were formerly residents of our village.

The Sabbath School picnic held at Providence last Saturday was well attended, and about 187 scholars were treated to ice cream and other delicacies.

Don't forget to attend the annual picnic of Mt. Pleasant Sabbath School, Saturday, July 30th, beginning at 10 A. M., and continuing during the day. A band of music and other attractions will be present.

The residents of our village have been much annoyed on several occasions lately by a lot of young men and boys who, after imbibing a quantity of "Jersey Lightning," proceed to make night hideous by loud and unseemly noises and by congregating in front of our residences and indulging in profane and obscene language. What we demand is for those in authority to appoint a constable or other officer who will do his duty against such offenders without discrimination.

We would call the attention of our road supervisors to that piece of road through our village which is traveled more than any other portion of road of its length in the district, and which is in a most miserable condition.

Mr. John Wick and Mrs. William Caple have had their houses repainted, which adds very much to their appearance. Mr. Wick has also put up a neat wire fence in front of his residence.

Mt. Pleasant Sabbath School has purchased a lot of new singing books for use in the school.

Miss Bartholow, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Daisy Pool.

Rev. S. W. Coe, a former pastor of Providence Church but now of Baltimore, attended the picnic last Saturday and was cordially greeted by his friends.

Miss Mattie Barnes, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents here.

Mr. Wm. F. Haines and wife, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. Haines' parents here this week.

Misses Ethel and Blanche Knox, of Dickeyville, have been visiting the family of Mr. Samuel Monroe.

Berrett Items.

Mr. Peyton H. Conaway and his son Ernie, of Baltimore, visited Mr. C's. parents at Berrett on Wednesday and Thursday of last week, and returned home on Friday morning.

Mrs. Francis L. Creswell and Mrs. John A. Snider, of Daniel, were guests at Mr. and Mrs. John H. Conaway's on Thursday, 21st inst.

Miss Pearl Barnes, of Baltimore, is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Basil Dorsey, at White Marsh.

Enterprise Lodge of Good Templars will hold their annual picnic, in Shipley's grove, near Daniel, on Saturday afternoon and night. Prominent speakers will be present to address the audience. If the day should be favorable they expect a large attendance.

Our farmers have commenced threshing wheat, which is of fair quality and yield, running from 15½ bushels to 26 bushels per acre. Mr. Basil Dorsey got 26 bushels and J. W. Shipley 21 bushels on stalk ground.

We have an occasional view of U. S. soldiers passing through our place, going to and from Washington, sometimes cavalry and sometimes infantry; also, we have our eyes wide open, now and then, at sight of an automobile, spinning through our town. One went through on Monday last.

For the Sentinel.

A Birthday Party.

A birthday party was given at the hospitable home of Mr. Wm. Snyder, near Lauver, on Tuesday evening, 26th inst., in honor of the forty-second anniversary of his wife's birthday. The guests began to arrive at an early hour. The evening was spent in rendering vocal and instrumental music selections with the graphophone, and roller organ. During the evening the guests were invited to the dining room, where a table was heavily burdened with refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake, confectionery, watermelon, bananas, pop, lemonade, &c., to which all did ample justice. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, wishing Mrs. Snyder many more happy birthday anniversaries. Mrs. Snyder received a number of useful presents. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mathias, Mr. and Mrs. James Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cassell, Mrs. George Stephan, Misses Susie Koontz, Bertie Lowe, Alice, Emma, Bertha and Beulah Mathias, Messrs. Edgar Ward, Frank and John Lowe, Willie Hoffman, Harry Mathias and Sterling Snyder.

Great 13c Sale.

☞ ENOUGH FOR ALL THIS TIME. ☜

25 CENT EXTRA HEAVY BUCKETS 13 CENTS, ON SATURDAY.

We are sorry that we were obliged to disappoint so many of our friends last Saturday, that we have determined to redeem ourselves and offer if possible a still better bargain this Saturday, with positively enough for all. We had a chance to buy another big bargain, and profiting by former experience we bought a quantity this time that will positively last all day. We are obliged to limit them one to a customer and none to children, and they will be sold only on SATURDAY, JULY 30, but every one calling on Saturday can get one. There will be one for everybody. We thought we had enough last time, but we could have sold four times as many. We know better now and we bought accordingly this time. These are extra heavy, block tin, extra heavy bottom, new improved heavy rim bottom, 2½ gal. milk or water buckets, worth 25c, on Saturday only 13 cents.
