TAKE YOUR OWN MEDICINE.

The doctor looked his patient o'er
And gravely shook his head,
"You mustn't carry so much steam;
You need a rest," he said.
"To burn the candle at both ends
Will wreck your system quite;
And now I must be off, you know,
I'm driven day and night."

"The law's unconstitutional,"
The lawyers sternly saith,
"And my advice is positive
To fight it to the death.
No man of spirit would submit
To such unjust attacks—
And now I must go up and pay
My occupation tax."

"And, fourthly, my beloved friends,"
The pastor said, "observe
The greatest in the gospel band
Are they who humbly serve.
Accept our creed of faith and love,
All else are heretics,
The law should give some one the power
To wring their craven necks."

"Throw it away!" the editor
Exclaimed in language strong;
"All composition should be brief,
And this one is too long.
All articles must be condensed,
Description, news, opinion."
And then he seized a pen and wrote
Two thousand words of minion.

And so in every walk of life,
Familiarity
Doth make each man repudiate
His own philosophy.
The cobbler's shoes are full of holes,
The tailor's coat is torn;
Upon the milliner's fair head
A last year's hat is worn.

The plumber's house is full of gas,
The builder's full of smoke;
The barber's classic head is bald,
The medium is broke.
When I get wealth and time enough
I'll found a school to teach
The inconsistent sons of men
To practice what they preach.

Seasonable Horse Hints.

"Tim," in Farm Journal, gives the following hints:

A mixture of corn and oats, two parts oats to one of corn, is a good working ration. Cracked corn is preferable to finely ground.

If the corn can be scalded one meal ahead it is still better.

Horses will not show the snap and nerve force as when fed wholly on oats, but with slow, steady work it is as well, and there will be a saving in cost.

Corn should never be fed to growing colts nor to road horses.

Nothing can take the place of oats and wheat bran in colt rearing.

The prejudice against clover hay should be overcome, but it must be well-made, bright hay.

It is a good practice to always slightly dampen all hay by sprinkling with water, no matter how free from dust it is.

Avoid overripe, woody hay; it is dangerous.

Sentence Sermons.

Virtue is not a matter of vocabulary.

Nothing succeeds where the soul fails.

A little silence may save a lot of sorrow.

With God life and love are synonymous.

A sharp man always cuts his own fingers.

Repentance cannot tear up the roots of the past.

No man reaches the stage of triumph but by steps of trial.

The man who takes life as a dose always finds it a bitter one.

A man makes no particular progress by patting himself on the back.

Virtue may be its own reward, but it is not its own advertising agent.

Some men expect to acquire all their good habits in their second childhood.

WISHIN' FOR RAIN.

I.

Upon the hillside an' the plaine
We've been a wishin' for the rain;
But, thank the Lord! the sun shines bright,
And earth is lovelier for the light.
In time the thunder'll beat his drum;
The rain will come! the rain will come!

II.

From north to south—from east to west,
We're never knowin' what is best!
Perhaps, if things wuz changed about,
The rain would come an' drown us out!
Some day the thunder'll beat his drum,
An' in God's time the rain will come!

Hicks' Forecats for August.

The storm conditions for the first six days of August are covered by the continued disturbances of "Vulcan," Mercury and Mars. The regular Vulcan storm period is central on the 3rd. The culminating days of the period will be the 3rd, 4th and 5th. On and touching these dates general storm conditions will develop and pass from west to east across the country. Sections which have been visited by many electrical, rain and hail storms, during much of July and August, will most likely have the same character of storms during this period. In the absence of the Mars influence the Mercury disturbance added to this regular storm period would greatly increase the chances of general, diffused rains during this period; but sections which have had little rain for weeks prior, we fear, will get more threatening storm-clouds and bluster than rain during these disturbances. The Mercury influence, blended with a regular storm period, as in the present instance, normally tends to copious and general rains; but the dominance of the Mars influence tends to fix and perpetuate local conditions which prevail at the beginning of this period. After heavy storm and bluster about the 3rd, 4th and 5th look for rising barometer, westerly winds, and cooler.

On and touching the 8th and 9th, under the influence of reactionary storm forces, intensified by the Moon's extreme north declination and conjunction with Sun, the temperature will rise to some of the highest readings of the summer, the barometer will fall and severe storms and bluster will visit many localities in their sweep from west to east. This heated spell will not break down until after the new moon on the 11th with strong probabilities that it will last into the regular storm period extending from the 12th to the 17th.

The Moon will be at New or in conjunction with Earth and Sun, on the 11th, in perigee, or nearest the Sun, on the 12th, and on the celestial equator on the 14th, the central day of a regular storm period. This period is also embraced in the on-coming Venus disturbance, which is central on the 14th. The waning influence of the Mars disturbance will also combine with the causes named during this period. It is more than probable that equatorial disturbances will make their appearance in the Gulf regions early in this period. Indications of such storms should be looked for and promptly heeded by all navigators of the Gulf and adjacent waters. Exposed interests on the southern coasts may be exposed to damage and danger, much of which might be averted by careful forethought and watchfulness. The disturbances of this period, whether or not West India storms come up from the south, may be expected over most interior parts of the country from Saturday the 13th to Tuesday the 16th, the culmination falling most likely on the 14th and 15th. Vicious thunder storms and high gales will center about Sunday, the 14th. If equatorial hurricanes or cyclones should make their presence felt about our southern coasts at this time, the storms that visit interior states a few days later will be followed by unseasonably cool weather. Otherwise the heated term will not be broken effectually until after the storms of a subsequent period.

Reactionary storm conditions will return on and next to the 19th and 20th. This period will be within the brace of Earth's autumnal equinox and near the center of the Venus period, thus increasing the probabilities of equinoctial storms on the south waters and along the southern coasts. There is almost a scientific certainty of such storms in such parts of the Earth before the end of August, making it wise for those most vitally concerned to watch the first indications of every storm period. If all the people will learn to keep the possibilities of such periods well in mind, and without trepidation or alarm calmly watch developments, the worst storms that ever come would be disarmed of much of their terror and destructive consequences.

It is well to remember that destructive Venus hail storms are almost sure to attend the storms, especially in the great northwestern grain regions, during the last half of August. We do not know what precautionary steps can be taken against such visitations, but whatever may be possible or practicable should not be neglected. Change to rising barometer and very much cooler, especially at night, will follow for some days the reactionary storms centering about the 18th and 19th.

The last regular storm period for August is central on the 26th extending from the 24 to the 29th. Within this period the Moon is at full on the 25th, in apogee on the 26th and on the celestial equator on the 28th. This period is also at the center of the Venus perturbation, and fully under the pressure on the Earth's September equinox. We may therefore confidently anticipate some very marked storm disturbances at this time. Whether hurricanes and cyclones have or have not come up from the equator to our southern waters and coasts, during previous August periods, in every probability such storms will appear at this last period. These storms will touch inland sections, and counter storm areas will be induced from northwestern extremes, bringing many heavy, and some dangerous storms throughout the southern and central states.

The indications are that the general disturbances of this last period will be followed by a general high barometer, with fierce, high widns and unseasonably cold weather out of the northwest. If frosts make their appearance over the northern to middle regions of the country during the last few days of August, our readers need not be wholly taken by surprise.

The dates upon which volcanic and earthquake disturbances are most likely to reach a maximum, generally over the globe, will be the 9th to the 3th and the 24th to the 28th of August. We will name Thursday, the 11th, Thursday the 25th as central days of these probable seismic periods of disturbance.

Our general word of caution, especially to those who are exposed to the violence of equinoxial storms on southern waters, and along our south coasts, is that the fluctuations of barometric readings be calmly and constantly watched, during all these later August periods, also during the storm periods in September. If the barometric pressure becomes very low the chances are that danger is approaching, and all persons and property imminently exposed to hurricane and high seas should be warned and safeguarded. Such disturbances may not appear in dangerous force, but the chances are many that they will. No one should be so foolish as to indulge disquieting forebodings, and no one so criminally indifferent and daring as to leave the whole matter out of all his thoughts and planning.—Irl R. Hicks. St. Louis, July 16th.
