Grange Picnic.

Taneytown Farmers' Grange held a farmers' picnic in Mr. Milton Ohler's grove, near Taneytown, on Saturday last at which a large number of persons was present. Michael E. Walsh, Esq., of this city, who is a member of the Hampstead grange, made a cordial address of welcome to which Mr. J. B. Alger, master of the Maryland State Grange, responded. Prof. H. J. Patterson spoke on the "Value of Legumes," of which clover is the most common and most valuable as a fertilizer of the soil. Mr. Alger spoke on the progress of the granges and of their value to the farmer. He said 50,000 members had been added to the granges of the country during the past year. The invited guests and others were served with an excellent dinner in the grove.

The Maryland Agricultural Experiment Station had a tent in which was exhibited the insects that are so destructive to farm crops, also specimens of corn seed, showing good and undesirable qualities. Professor Garner gave a very interesting talk on corn growing, illustrating with a chart showing the character of grains to select to produce certain results.

There was quite a display of farm and dairy implements and machinery, some of which were in full operation; a model silo and wire fences.

Mr. Solomon Myers was master of ceremonies at the picnic. The officers of Taneytown Grange No. 184 are: W. E. O. Hiner, master; B. L. Cookson, overseer; W. K. Fires in This County.

Two small barns on the farm of Mr. William Walsh, about 1½ miles from Carrollton Station, on the road leading to Wesley Chapel, were destroyed by fire between 9 and 11 o'clock last Sunday night, under circumstances which justify a strong suspicion of incendiarism. The buildings stood about fifteen feet apart, yet the flames burst from both at nearly the same time. Mr. Jacob Troyer, a tenant of Mr. Walsh, had put his horse in the stable of one of the barns and closed the door, and when the fire was discovered feared that the animal had perished in the flames. But the horse was found all right outside. Mr. Walsh, who was on his way home from a visit to a neighbor's when he first saw the fire, met his cows in the public road, some distance from the burning buildings. They had been put in the barnyard for the night. Apparently the incendiary had humanely removed the horse and cows from danger before firing the barns. Both structures, with most of their contents, were entirely destroyed. Mr. Walsh lost about ten tons of hay, some straw and twenty bushels of wheat. Wagons and other vehicles in the building were saved. Mr. Troyer lost a wheat fan, a lot of rye and rye straw, a lot of furniture stored in the barn, and other articles. The entire loss approximates $1,000. Mr. Walsh had $200 insurance on the buildings, and $150 on produce, in the Dug Hill Company. Mr. Troyer's property was not insured.

The dwelling house of Mr. Howard Close, at Closetown, two miles from this city, was destroyed by fire, with most of its contents, between 9 and 11 o'clock, Monday morning. Mr. Close was away from home and Mrs. Close was visiting a neighbor, a short distance from her home, when the fire began. It is supposed that the woodwork was ignited by an overheated stovepipe. Very few household effects were saved and only the walls of the building, which are of concrete, were left standing. The loss on the house is estimated at about $700 upon which the insurance was $500, placed in the Phœnix Company, of Brooklyn, N. Y., of which Mr. Charles E. Goodwin is agent. The loss on furniture, clothing &c., is placed at $200, without any insurance.

Proceedings of the School Board.

The Board of School Commissioners for Carroll county held a regular meeting in their office, Monday, August 1st, 1904. All the members were present.

History of Maryland, by Dulaney Co.; Natural Number Primer, by American Book Co.; Physiologies and Agriculture for Beginners, by Ginn & Co., were placed on the list for the public schools of the county.

The treasurer submitted his financial report for the fiscal year ending July 31st, 1904. Receipts, $77,959.69; disbursements, $73,988.93. The auditing committee, B. Frank Crouse, Esq., counsel of the board; Jacob H. Blocher, president; John B. Eppley and Theo. F. Englar went over the books in the office and reported the accounts correct and supported by the proper vouchers.

Since the new school law places the profession of teaching upon a higher plane, with prospects of better pay, the school board will endorse this effort to secure better trained professional service by raising the standard of teachers' certificates. Of the new applicants at the last examination, the county superintendent recommended only two for certificates—Mr. R. E. Fleagle and Miss Rachel Roop—both of whom have taken full courses in institutions beyond the ordinary academic or high school training.

Of those having formerly taught, or taken examination and among the new applicants, the following received certificates, or permits to teach in the county for the next year: Alice Reindollar, Bessie Franklin, Laura E. Garner, Jeanett Engel, Olive Engel, Stella D. Smith, Carrie Paynter, Marie Ridgely, Vadie Armacost, Beryl Erb, Minnie Wentz, Florence Brown, Edna Harden, Horatio Wentz, Horace Garrett, Curven Webster, Emory Hauseman, Clayton Sauble, Luther Wentz, Geo. H. Haines, William Leister, David H. Nickey and Oscar Dell.

County scholarships to Western Maryland College were awarded to Mr. Moland B. Basler, Mr. William Brown, Miss Caroline Buffington and Miss Caroline Wright Kennedy.

The following received scholarships to the State Normal School: Margie E. Hill, E. Marie Clary, and Ida M. Campbell.

The board took some action in regard to the Senatorial scholarship to St. John's College, but will make further report on the subject after the board hears from Senator Beasman.

This year the Teachers' Institute will be September 12th to 16th. It is the duty of every teacher to make special study of the institute manual, and to make careful preparation for the work done during institute week. Those who have not already received a copy of the institute manual will receive one in a few days.

It has been remarked that the poorer teachers sit far back. One way to reedeem yourself is to come up front, be present all of every meeting and take part freely in the exercises.

S. SIMPSON,
County Superintendent.

A Happy Event.

A happy event in the lifetime of most persons, is to have their friends assembled in a body, and to extend that hospitality which is so conspicuous among our American citizens. Such a happy time was witnessed at Briarwood, the hospitable home of Mr. P. J. Babylon, near Roop's Mill, on Friday evening, 29th ult., in honor of their guest, Miss B. Mae Harman. Vocal and instrumental music were a feature of the evening's entertainment. Miss Mae Harman and Miss Sarah Hoover, alternately, presided at the organ. This was interspersed with various innocent games on the lawn, which furnished amusement for the 52 persons who were present, and who were earnest in declaring this to have been the happiest time of their lives. Near the midnight hour all were ushered to the dining room, where a sumptuous repast was in waiting, and a table groaning under the weight of the many good things that are so tempting to the inner man. The manner in which the viands disappeared was evidence that the repast, so lavishly provided, was heartily enjoyed. Long after the midnight hour, the goodbyes were said with the wish that Mr. Babylon may live to enjoy many more such happy events. Those present were: Mr. P. J. Babylon, Mr. Ed. Gilbert and wife, Mr. Jas. Robinson and wife, Mr. Harry Babylon and wife, Mr. Wes. Warehime, and wife, Mr. Em'l. Bollinger and wife, Mr. Wm. Sipes and wife, Mr. Chas. Owings and wife, Mr. Wm. Robinson and wife, Mr. Clayton Hahn and wife, Mrs. C. E. Copenhaver, Mrs. Maggie Poole, Misses Mary C. Babylon, Allie and Effie Robinson, Sarah Hoover, Carrie Dickensheets, Elsie Duvall, B. Mae Harman, Gusta and Dora Zile, Florence Hull, Ada Warehime, Bertha Hahn, Etta Handley, Bertha Danner, Myrtle Cumming, Helen M. Gilbert, Mary E. Copenhaver, Goldie Owings and Edna Robinson, Messrs. Noah Babylon, Wilmer Duvall, Howard Hull, Wm. Dickensheets, John Wolf, Leslie Bollinger, Jas. Staub, Harry Young, David Harris, Masters Ralph Warehime, Paul Robinson and N. Roger Gilbert.

OFFICE OF THE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF CARROLL COUNTY.

WESTMINSTER, MD., AUGUST 1ST, 1904.

The Board of Directors of The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll County has learned with deep regret of the death of EDWARD LYNCH, our late Secretary and Treasurer, and desiring to place upon our minutes some expression of our appreciation of his character and of the loss which we sustain in his death, therefore,

Resolved, That as one of the Charter members of this Company, he gave valuable assistance to it in its organization, and has been its staunch and reliable friend throughout all its history; for many years serving as a Director, and more recently as its Secretary and Treasurer,

Resolved, That his integrity of purpose and his good judgment made him a most helpful member of this Board, and that his painstaking care and thoroughness, as Secretary and Treasurer; the accuracy with which he kept his accounts, and the clearness with which he made his statements of the Company's condition, to its meetings, commended him to the full confidence of the Board.

Resolved, That his affable disposition and his pleasant manner made him a most congenial official of our Board, and that we do most sincerely regret his death.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be entered upon our minutes, published in the papers of the town, and sent to the family of the deceased.

DIED.

Near this city, August 31st, 1094, Mrs. Elizabeth, widow of Mordecai Gist, aged 74 years, 7 months and 24 days.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad and loving memory of my beloved husband, Andrew Myerly, who died 6 months ago. Friday, August 5th, 1904.

Sleep on dear husband from pain and sorrow free;
His busy hands are folded his work on earth is done
His warpath is ended, his battle fought and won;
With the dear Saviour now he lives above.
The depth of my sorrow tongues cannot tell,
At the loss of one I loved so well.
Friends may think the wound is healed
But little they know the sorrow that's within my heart concealed.
How hard it was for us to part
And say a last farewell,
And lay him in the cold damp ground
To moulder unto dust.

By his wife, MARY MYERLY.

In Memory of my Father, Andrew Myerly.

A tear within a daughter's eye,
A daughter's breaking heart
Can only tell the agony
How hard it was to part.

Dearest Father could you speak to me,
And could you live again,
My aching heart would then be healed,
But this I wish in vain.
My heart is sad and lonely
My grief too deep to tell.

Oft to the graveyard I wander,
Flowers to strew with tender care
On the grave of my dear father,
Who is sweetly resting there.

By his daughter, MRS. ARTHUR L. WAGNER.

In Memory of Andrew Myerly.

Peace is around thee, thy sorrows are past,
Heaven has granted thee freedom at last;
Long hast thou lingered in anguish and pain,
Long hast thou struggled this victory to gain.

Then onward and upward, Oh Sprit most fair;
Bright angels are waiting thy glory to share;
Glad, glad is the greeting they'll all eagerly give,
A crown for a cross and with Jesus to live.

By his son, GEO C. MYERLY.

Why Not Cure Your
Cough or Cold?

WESTMINSTER, April 10th, 1890.

MR. JOS. B. BOYLE:

Dear Sir:—For many years I have suffered intensely, on taking cold, from a very troublesome cough, for which I have used a number of various remedies, and obtained but TEMPORARY RELIEF. During the past Spring I was again troubled with the same cough, and through a friend was induced to try YOUR Pectoral Syrup, which not only gave almost INSTANT RELIEF, but a PERMANENT CURE. It gives me great pleasure to say that I believe it to be the best remedy I ever used for the purpose for which it is recommended. Hoping that any person afflicted as I was may be fortunate enough to give it a trial, I am, Truly yours,

EDWARD LYNCH.
