DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Mary A. Worman.

Mrs. Mary A. Worman, aged 72 years, widow of Henry C. Worman, died yesterday week at the residence of her son-in-law, Clarence A. Lindsay, Unionville. She is survived by four children: Mrs. Thomas B. Sappington, Mrs. Clarence A. Lindsay and Henry C. Worman, of Unionville; Mrs. Joseph E. Roelkey, Taneytown. The funeral, which was private, was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, with interment at Linganore chapel.

John H. Zouck.

Mr. John H. Zouck, of Mount Carmel, Baltimore county, while helping his son in the potato field, Wednesday, died suddenly of heart trouble. Mr. Zouck had been away during the day, but had eaten a hearty supper and had not complained in the least of feeling ill. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Barbara E. Zouck; one son, Mr. Howard Zouck, who lived on the farm with him, and three daughters—Mrs. Emma Peregoy, of Mount Carmel; Mrs. A. R. Schultz, of Hampstead, and Mrs. Sallie Brooks, of Butler.

Americus Shoemaker.

Mr. Americus Shoemaker, an aged citizen of Taneytown, died at his home in that place last Saturday night, in his 78th year, having been born in June 1827. In early life Mr. Shoemaker followed the occupation of a huckster, but later engaged in farming. About ten years ago he retired from active life and removed to Taneytown where he resided until his death. Mr. Shoemaker was a man of stirling character and was thoroughly respected by the people among whom he spent his long life. He was a member of the Reformed Church for many years and a zealous and earnest Republican. He leaves a widow and numerous descendants, having three sons and eight daughters, all married; many grandchildren and a number of great grandchildren. Funeral services were held Tuesday and his remains were interred in the burial ground of the Reformed Church in Taneytown.

George Armacost.

Mr. George Armacost, an old citizen of Grace, in the Fifth district of Baltimore county, three miles east of Hampstead, was found dead Tuesday morning in the stable by his wife. He had been complaining of trouble with his heart, but attended the Forest picnic on Saturday, and was about as usual on Monday. He went to feed his horse at about 6.30 o'clock, but not returning for a few minutes Mrs. Armacost went to the stable and found him lying across the feed box. He had evidently just reached up to get some feed for his horse. Life was extinct. Justice Abram Cooper was called and Dr. R. C. Wells, of Hampstead, was ordered to make an examination. The conditions pointed very clearly to heart failure and an inquest was deemed unnecessary. Mr. Armacost, who was about 71 years of age, is survived by a widow, who was a Miss Ebaugh; a son, Mr. Joseph F. Armacost, who lives on an adjoining farm, and two brothers and three sisters.

John W. Weant.

Mr. John W. Weant, a prominent and widely known citizen of Double Pipe Creek, died at his home in that place on Monday night, at the age of about 68 years. He had been in failing health for some time, but resisted the encroachments of disease by his strong will and did not take to his bed until about noon on Sunday. He awaited the arrival of his son, Ex-State's Attorney Weant, of this city, who reached home about the hour named, and then calmly consented to retire to his bed and rapidly failed until death came to his relief. Mr. Weant was, for the third of a century or more a prominent and successful merchant at Double Pipe Creek, but retired from active business about ten years ago. His integrity and uprightness were fully recognized by the people among whom he lived and whose confidence he possessed to an unlimited extent. He was throughout his life an ardent Democrat and for many years a prominent member of the Reformed Church. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Hannah E. Weant, and the following children: Mrs. F. J. Shaeb, of Double Pipe Creek; Mrs. Dr. Luther Kemp, of Uniontown; Mrs. Milton O. Koons, Mr. Harvey E. Weant, of Taneytown; Edward O. Weant, Esq., of this city, and Misses Annie L. and Rhoda Weant, at home.

John C. Dell.

Mr. John C. Dell, a well known citizen of Hampstead district, died at his home near Houcksville on Tuesday morning, at the age of 64 years, 3 months, 23 days. Mr. Dell was suddenly taken ill with typhoid fever on Tuesday and his death was hastened by heart failure. He was a gentleman of fine character and his sudden death was a great shock to the people of the neighborhood in which he lived and elsewhere in this county. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Amanda Dell, and eight children, daughters and three sons. They are: Mrs. Wilson Ebaugh, Mrs. Wesley Coker, near Snydersburg, Mrs. Wm. F. Harris, of Baltimore county; Mrs. Charles Singer, of Baltimore; Mrs. Wm. Smith, at home; Messrs. John, Grant and Frank Dell, near Hampstead. He was a brother of Mr. Jerome Dell, of this city and Mrs. Cecelia Ingleman, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held on Thursday, Rev. H. W. Zuse, of the U. B. Church, Greenmount, officiating. Interment was in the cemetery of the M. P. Church, Deer Park. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. George Woolery, Daniel Rupp, Jacob Lynch, Peter Buchman, Henry Wisner and John J. Abbott.

Henry P. Myers.

Mr. Henry P. Myers, an aged and well known citizen of Myers' district, died at his home in Union Mills, about 1.30 o'clock, Monday morning. Mr. Myers was engaged in farming. He was born in June, 1824, and was consequently in his 81st year. He was a member of the German Baptist Brethren's Church and a Democrat. He was a man of upright character and universally respected. His wife survives him at the age of 81 years, and he leaves the following children: Reuben J. D. Myers, of Jackson, Mich.; John P. Myers, Mrs. Henry Herman, of Union Mills; Mrs. Albert Pratt, of Harriman, Tenn.; Jacob Myers, of Lineboro, and Austin A. Myers, of Baltimore; also two stepsons—Sylvester Mathias, of Baltimore, and Leander Mathias, of Union Mills; 14 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren. Manchester Items.

The Hampstead baseball team was here on Saturday and played a return game with our boys on the home diamond. The visitors came prepared to play ball, having had the Ridgely, Caroline county battery with good support. They went into the game to win and came out winners. The game attracted a large crowd both from here and Hampstead.

The line up was:

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loats gave a surprise party to their little daughter Myrtle, on Friday evening, on the eighth anniversary of her birthday. The surprise was complete. The little Miss was away from home in the early evening and on her return home found it all ablaze and 24 little Misses and Masters ready to greet her. A great deal of amusement was indulged in until a later hour, when abundant refreshments were served and enjoyed by the little folks.

Last Thursday, as Mr. Geo. L. Maurath was on a business trip to Baltimore county, he was accidently thrown from his runabout and had the thumb of his right hand broken, his collarbone injured and eye bruised. Mr. Benson, of Arcadia, and another gentleman who went to his aid found him unconscious. He was taken to Mr. Benson's house and restored to consciousness and was able after a time to come to his home where his injuries were at tended to and he is now able to be about.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. Herman Flick was about to bite into a peach in which a bee was concealed and was stung under his tongue. The pain at once was intense. His lips began to swell and he became numb. The family became alarmed and called Dr. Preston whose treatment effected relief, but afterward his whole system seemed to be affected and for a time it looked as if it might prove fatal. Later at night he became easier and by Monday was able to be around, though weak.

Rev. S. M. Roeder held harvest home services in Trinity Reformed Church of this place on Sunday morning. The chancel and altar were decorated with fruits, vegetables and flowers.

☞ WESTMINSTER STORE CLOSES 6 P. M., EXCEPT SATURDAY. ☜

SPECIALS

THAT WILL KEEP US BUSY DURING SEPTEMBER.

These offerings comprise only such goods as are wanted at this time and that we know will prove entirely satisfactory in every way.

Every store must be judged by three things, it's goods, it's service, it's prices. These three must go hand in hand. No matter how well a stock may be selected, if the service of that store is unsatisfactory or it's prices too high it will lack patronage. Neither will mere price cutting bring success to any merchant, unless people have confidence in him and his goods and like his way of doing business. We are constantly at work on these problems. Our aim is to please our customers. What do they like, how can we improve the store service, how can we lower this or that price. Our ever increasing trade is evidence of our success. But we want to make it still better and we ask your co-operation to the extent that you tell us of our mistakes, and that you will always feel free to make any suggestion as to how we may serve you better.
