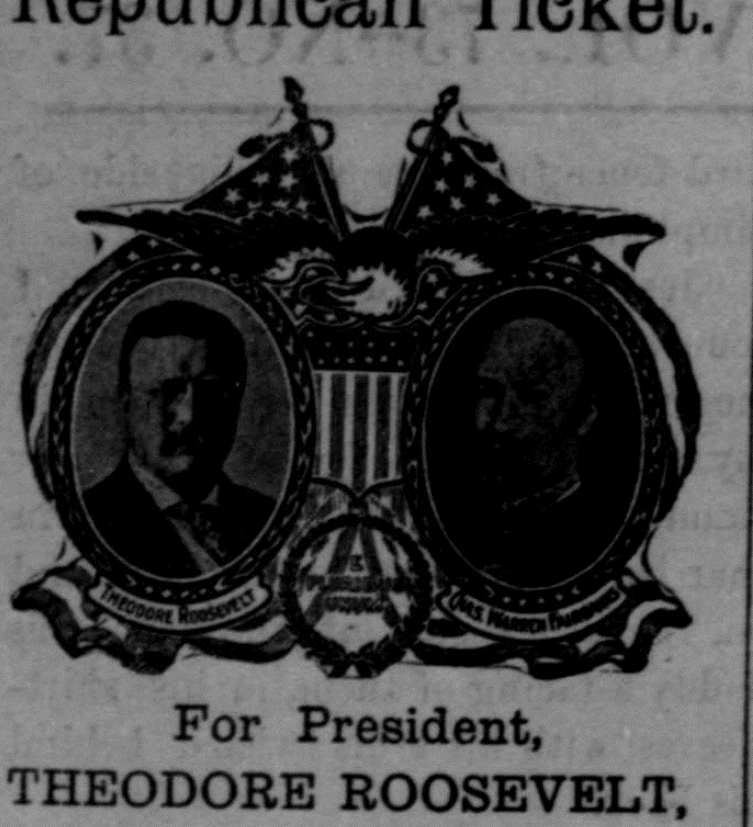
Republican Ticket.



For President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
of New York.

For Vice-President,
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS,
of Indiana.

For Congress,
ROBERT GARRETT,
OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

Eastern Democrats insist that their party has been reorganized, but they refuse to meet Mr. Bryan in a joint debate on that question.

It was an easy task that Tom Watson assumed when he exposed the falsity of Democratic claims of soundness on the money question.

It is not necessary for President Roosevelt to make any campaign speeches. The American people know where he stands on every issue that concerns their welfare.

Some one says "the Democratic party has always been an inconsistent party." Perhaps that is an error. It may be said that it has always been a consistently inconsistent party.

The advance guard of the Democratic host has reached the Republican gold standard camp. They may be expected to catch up on the tariff march of progress in about eight more years.

Judge Parker demands that we give the Filipinos self-government "as soon as they are reasonably prepared for it." Just what the Republican administration is doing, Judge—preparing them for it.

"We have been wrong eight years, and you have been right; therefore we ought to be placed in power," is the gist of the Democratic argument. Yet some people say there is no humor in a political campaign.

There is no doubt that Judge Parker thinks it expedient to declare that the gold standard is "irrevocably established," but we would like to know before the campaign is over whether Judge Parker believes in the gold standard against which he voted in 1896 and 1900.

Senator Davis is quick to declare himself as a friend of the laboring man. We are all friends of the laboring man, but what we would like to know is whether the Vice Presidential candidate would reduce the wages of labor if he had a chance to vote for a lower tariff?

"I believe incidental protection to our own industries is right and proper," said Henry G. Davis in the American Senate. This is the same Henry G. Davis who pronounced as "admirable" the St. Louis platform which declares that protection is "a robbery of the many to enrich the few."

The markets of the world for foreign imports amounts to about ten billions of dollars annually. The home market of the United States, measured by the purchasing power of the people, amounts to considerably over twice that in value and is estimated by many to be worth thirty billions of dollars during every twelve months.

We are very anxiously waiting some utterance from Judge Parker relating to his views on the tariff question. He accepts the Democratic platform which calls protectionism robbery. If he would only be a little more explicit and explain to us who is being robbed we would be the better able to judge of just where he stands and how far revision would go were he in a position to advocate a change in our present tariff.

No truer words were ever spoken than those of Senator Fairbanks in his speech of acceptance wherein he said: "President Roosevelt has been confronted with large and serious questions. These he has met and solved with high wisdom and courage. The charges made against him in the Democratic platform find an irrefutable answer in his splendid administration, never surpassed in all the history of the Republican party and never equaled by the party which seeks to discredit it."

The statement that the Republican party has always revised the tariff up and never down is false. Time and time again as the tariff has been revised by Republicans the duties on commodities have been lowered in accordance with the lower prices which have been brought about through competition and labor saving devices. A single illustration will show this. The first duty imposed upon steel rails was equivalent to $75 per ton. The last duty imposed, also by Republicans, was $7.84 per ton.

THE TARIFF HELPS THE FARMER.

Year after year since the inauguration of William McKinley and the accession of his successor, Theodore Roosevelt, and during the continued operation of our present protective tariff the farm products of the country, without regard to the quantity harvested, have netted the farmer more than a billion dollars in excess of the value received during the operation of the Wilson-Gorman tariff law under the administration of Grover Cleveland. This by no means, however, measures the increased value to our farmers, as another billion dollars must be added as the increased value of farm animals. It is not likely that the farmer either West or East, North or South, cares to change existing conditions and go back to the low values and to the cheap markets of 1894, 1895 and 1896.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

In the advertising columns of the SENTINEL the Supervisors of Election in this county give notice to voters that they will be at their office on Court street, this city, on Thursday next, for the purpose of granting transfers to voters who have changed their places of residence since the last election. The office will be open at 9 oclock.

They also announce, by advertisement, the sittings of the registrars of voters in the several districts, which will be on Tuesday, October 4th, and Tuesday, October 11th, for the purpose of registering qualified voters and erasing the names of those disqualified. There will be a third sitting, Tuesday, October 18th, for the purpose of revision only, on which day no one can be registered. These are important notices and Republican voters are earnestly urged to bear the dates in mind and act accordingly.

FAINT PRAISE FOR MR. WILLIAMS.

The Advocate last week published a communication written by Dr. J. W. Hering, of this city, descriptive of his trip to the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, over the Western Maryland and West Virginia Central Railroads, and of the ceremonies attending the notification of Ex-Senator Davis of his nomination for the Vice-Presidency by the Democratic national convention. Dr. Hering described the scenery through which he passed on the trip in a very pleasant way, and spoke very intelligently of the great importance of the line of railroad now being built from Cherry Run to Cumberland to connect the Western Maryland and West Va. Central with the Wabash system. In his account of the notification proceedings this is what he says of the speech of Hon. John Sharp Williams, the Democratic leader who was selected to tell Mr. Davis formally of his nomination:

"The speech of Mr. Williams, which was delivered in captivating style, elicited from the great crowd rounds of applause."

Referring to this speech the SENTINEL of the 19th ult. said: "If an honest consensus of Democratic opionion of the merits of this speech could be obtained we are sure it would show that intelligent Democrats, generally, are ashamed of it." Dr. Hering's allusion to it may be regarded, in some measure at least, as a confirmation of this view. What he says about it is, at anyrate, very faint praise, and does not touch its merits. "Delivered in captivating style!" Nobody doubts that. But style and sense are very different things, and a sincere and conscientious man like Dr. Hering could not very well say much about the latter quality of Mr. Williams' effort. Mr. Williams isn't a buffoon, but his speech to Mr. Davis was replete with buffoonery.

IT'S TALBOTT AGAIN.

The deadlock in the Democratic nominating convention of the Second Congressional district, which reassembled at Havre de Grace on Monday, was broken on the 220th ballot, on Tuesday, by the renomination of Hon. J. Fred. C. Talbott. Carroll county stood loyally by Mr. Fink, but the Harford delegates finally went to the perennial candidate. Evidently Mr. Talbott was the choice of the bosses and his nomination, sooner or later, by the convention was a foregone conclusion. His own repeated assertion that he was not a candidate was about the baldest piece of pretension ever indulged in by a public man, and was a verry shallow excuse for the violation of his pledge two years ago that he would not again aspire to a re-election, and further, that he would this time support the candidacy of Mr. Fink. Indisputable evidence of that pledge was presented to the convention and Mr. Steele and other delegates from this county, in vain urged the body to respect the contract and nominate Carroll county's choice. Altogether, the nomination of Mr. Talbott, under the circumstances, was about as shameless a bit of politics as has ever disgraced any party.

The convention, which assembled at noon on Monday, was in session until 1 o'clock, Tuesday morning, and then took a recess to 2 P. M. That hour came and passed, but the Harford delegates were having a conference, at the request of State Senator Robinson, who was their ostensible choice for the nomination, and a delay of an hour occurred before the convention again got to work. At the conference referred to Mr. Robinson withdrew and the Harford delegation probably reached an understanding to vote for Talbott when the proper time arrived.

In the meantime Carroll's delegates were becoming restive and Dr. Frank T. Shaw took the floor to make a motion. "Mr. Chairman," he said, "the hour for the Punch-and-Judy show of the Second Congressional district has arrived, and as the audience seems to be impatient I move that the performance be continued. I see that some of the troupe is absent, but we who are here can well play their part."

At the request of Chairman Crouse Dr. Shaw withdrew his motion, and in a short time the Harford delegation appeared, and the 219th ballot was taken without result. Then, at the instance of the Harford delegation, a recess of thirty minutes was taken and when that time elapsed the final vote nominating Mr. Tabott was recorded, the nomination was formally made unanimous and the convention adjourned. And so Mr. Fink, twice the unanimous choice of the Democrats of Carroll county for the nomination, was the second time defrauded by the selection of the bosses' candidate. Self-respecting Democrats of the Second Congressional district will show themselves a very tame spirited lot if they permit this sort of political juggling in their own party to go unrebuked, by voting for a candidate who has demonstrated that his pledges are only made to be broken.

The Western Maryland Railroad is making great progress in the construction of the connecting link between Cumberland and Cherry Run. The headings are cut through the Welton and Stickpile tunnels, the former 730 feet and the latter 1,670 feet long. The longest tunnel on the route is the Indigo tunnel, 4,330 feet. Knobley, near Cumberland, is about 1,300 feet long. In the Knobley tunnel about 1,000 feet have been cut. Much heavy work is yet to be done.

Gen. John M. Hood, president of the United Railways and Electric Company of Baltimore, and former president of the Western Maryland Railroad, returned Thursday night from a flying trip through England, Germany, Switzerland and Northern Italy.

The consistory of the Third Reformed Church, Baltimore, has accepted the resignation of Rev. Dr. Conrad C. Clever as pastor, after every possible effort to induce him to withdraw it had been made. Dr. Clever has accepted a call to Christ Ref. Church Hagerstown.

The Vermont Election.

Great Republican Victory.

Nearly 32,000 Plurality.

Points the Way to Republican Success in November.

Vermont isn't a large state but she rolls up big Republican pluralities. Returns, practically complete, show that at the election on Tuesday Charles J. Bell, Republican, was elected Governor over Eli H. Porter, Democrat, by a plurality of nearly 32,000 in a total vote of about 65,000. The result even exceeds the great victory of 1900, when the state went Republican by a plurality of 31,312. In the last State Senate there were five Democrats, but these were all lost and the body is now wholly Republican. The Democrats also lost ten members in the House of Reprerentatives. The victory was the most sweeping in the history of the State.

The Democrats throughout the country are stunned by its magnitude. They were so confident of a material reduction in the plurality of 1900 that they unhesitatingly averred their belief that the result would point the way to the outcome of the Presidential election. Any reduction, they argued, would indicate the drift of public sentiment against the Republicans. On the contrary, they agreed, that if the Republicans held their own it would show that public confidence in their policies and in the national administration was undiminished. The Republicans have more than held their own, but the Democrats are already feebly endeavoring to account for it in some other way than as an indication of political sentiment. That sort of talk is, of course, for the rank and file. The Democratic leaders know that the result of the Vermont election is the handwriting on the wall that dooms them to defeat in November.

The War in Manchuria.

The Japs have not yet succeeded in destroying Gen. Kuropatkin's army, though persistently following and attacking the retreating Russians. The slaughter on both sides has been terrific, the Russians evidently suffering most heavily. The endurance displayed by the men of both armies is amazing. The reckless courage of the Japs and the stubborn resistance they still encounter from their retreating enemy call forth the admiration of the world.

The latest report places the Russian army at Mukden, with the Japanese endeavoring to cut off their retreat farther north. Further battles may be fought before the Russians reach a defensible position.

Gen. Stakelberg's column of 25,000 men, which was cut off from the main body last week, managed to elude the Japs and escaped.

Gen. Kuropatkin is reported as thoroughly exhausted and may be compelled to retire from the command on account of physical inability to continue to carry the tremendous burden resting upon him.

Gen. Kuroki is reported killed, but the report lacks confirmation.

Another attack on Port Arthur is expected. The ammunition of the garrison is said to be nearly exhausted, a condition which, if true, will assure the speedy downfall of the stronghold.

Not an Acceptable Candidate.

That Mr. J. Fred. C. Talbott is not an acceptable candidate to a great many prominent Democrats in this county is generally admitted. This is shown by a dispatch from a Democratic source in this city, to the Baltimore Evening News of Wednesday, which says:

"The Democrats of Carroll do not take kindly to the nomination of Mr. Talbott, and Democratic business men of this city and Democrats throughout the county declare now that they will not vote for him. They declare that he has been too long in the way of other highly honorable and well equipped men of the district, carrying his county, with its large vote, in congressional conventions, through the agency of the army of office holders who hold place through his favor, and, further, that he solemnly declared two years ago that he would not be a candidate again. They also declare that he was an earnest and selfish candidate this year, though publicly saying he was not. Some of the Democrats against Mr. Talbott now will very likely change their minds before election day, but that he will run behind the Presidential ticket is a surety."

Some of the sturdiest and most pronounced Democrats in this city have declared that, while they cannot vote for Mr. Garrett, nothing will induce them to vote for Mr. Talbott.

Recently a peach dealer from another neighborhood stopped at your correspondent's house and tried to sell peaches. We told him there was a peach orchard right here in town. Peaches from a distance are not much sought after, as we have three peach orchards in the neighborhood belonging to P. J. Geiman, Nathaniel Shaffer and Amos Sauble, respectively.

The farm near Manchester owned by Mr. David Shaffer, deceased, was sold at public sale by the executors, on Thursday, Sept. 1st, to Harvey Rhodes, for the sum of $3,402.00.

The farm of Lewis Lippy, deceased, near Manchester was purchased by Mr. Henry Black, of our town, on Thursday on private terms, from the executors, Messrs. Allen and Clinton Lippy.

Mr. J. Houck, one of our phosphate agents, received 27 tons of phosphate last week.

There was a wreck on the B. V. Railroad on Friday. A defect in the road caused three cars to get off the track, including a heavily laden coal car. A force of hands got the cars on the first part of the week. Some phosphate was in the wrecked train, but we have not learned the number of tons.

We wish to congratulate Mr. Solomon Bucher and bride, who were recently united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

Wentz's Union Sunday School closed on Sunday, Sept. 4th, about 45 persons having been present. For a country Sunday School it is in a prosperous condition, numbering over 100 in membership, with $37.45 in the treasury, including the interest on the sum in the bank the past year, besides having the needed books, boards and an organ that should be the property of a thriving Sunday School. Mr. Nathaniel Shaffer deserves especial credit for the way he manages the financial affairs.

My loss indeed I deeply feel,
His voice I hear no more,
But he is singing in sweeter tones,
Upon the brighter shore.

Rest on dear husband, rest in peace,
I'll meet you over there.
I now surrender all to God,
Beside your vacant chair.

Dearest father thou hast left us,
We thy loss most deeply feel,
But 'tis God who hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

By his wife and children.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of my dear son, William S. Prugh, who departed this life two years ago, September 5th, 1902.

We miss thee from our home dear William,
We miss thee from thy place,
A shadow o'er our life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.

We miss thy kind and willing hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.

Oft I wander to the graveyard
Flowers to strew, with gentle care,
On the grave of my dear William
Who is sweetly resting there.

There is one that still will linger
Near the spot where he is laid
And will come and scatter flowers
O'er the grave that death has made.

BY HIS MOTHER.

Near Gist, August 25th, 1904, Henry Ralph, beloved son and only child of Henry W. and Almira C. Knauff, aged 1 month and 4 days.

One less at home, one more in heaven.

The little crib is empty now,
The little clothes laid by;
A mother's hope, a father's joy,
In death's cold arms doth lie.

Go little Ralph to thy home
On yonder blissful shore;
We miss thee here but soon we'll come,
Where thou hast gone before.

By his mother and father.

We had a little Ralph once,
He was our joy and pride;
We loved him, oh, perhaps too well,
For soon he suffered and died.

Now on the harp he is playing
With our mother and father who went before,
Around the throne of God is saying
Dear grandma and grandpa I have come too.

By his grandma, Catharine Frizzell.

Lines to the memory of Peter H. Cover, who passed away July 19th, 1904.

Tearfully, tenderly gaze on his face,
Of earth's dark sorrow there's not a trace,
But peace only given to hearts all pure,
The sweet peace of heaven that shall endure.

Where bright days of summer ne'er fade at eve,
No sins to o'ercome him, no cares to grieve.
He is sleeping calmly sleeping,
In a new made grave today.

We are weeping sadly weeping,
For our loved one gone away.
One by one the Lord will call us
As our labor here is done,
And when we cross the river
We may meet him one by one.

O, dear father, how can it be,
No more thy look of love we'll see,
But now we'll strive and daily pray
To meet you in eternal day.

But dearest father, art thou gone
Forever from our sight?
Shall we no more thy face behold,
So cheerful and so bright;

And is your voice forever hushed
That once we loved to hear?
Oh, no, we think we hear it now
Still sounding in our ear.
