1798 Oct. 28 Thomas Smyth to James Christie

SIDE ONE

[illegible] 28th Oct. 1790

[illegible] inform you [illegible] disappointed in my expectation [illegible] of raising several sums [illegible] at our Oct. Court, On my [illegible] as returnable there I had full Expectation of raising a considerable Sum — I hope Mr Wm Tilghman has paid you the amount of the Order he had on the Sheriff for £110. and Carey Tilghman the amount of my Wheat sent them which was every bushel I made for Sale from 150 bushels of seed — I must request your farther indulgence as I am using every exertion to try to raise the Ballance — I will certainly be at Annapolis on the 25th next Month and shall be glad to meet you there any Day between that Day and the 20th to try to

Mr James Christie
