1788 December 6 — John Galloway to James Tilghman

SIDE TWO

when forged & left in the middle Cellar in the safe. we thank my Sister to have them taken out the first time she goes by the House — In conversation with Tharpe the night before I left home I told him Mr White was to find himself meaning, meat & bread. after I had left home he soon found out he was to have no milk vegetables nor nothing else as Tharpe understood me. this brought White to Annapolis. & I gave him a letter to ~~to~~ Tharpe to let him have milk vegetables Turnips. Potatoes & Cyder & also to lend of wheat which ~~have~~ he had purchased of me & he is also to have corn — I am in hopes this will set all things to rights again — with Matters every way on ~~have the~~ smooth in my absence —. I am very much pleased to have got Sally so well across the bay. It has taken some anxiety from my mind, both Sally & little Mary are perfectly well

Sally. happy with the prospect of seeing her father tomorrow — With my love to you all I am Dear Sir

Yours. Very affectly

John Galloway
