POINTS TO BE SEEN.

Those who are insisting that David B. Hill is the Democratic party's Old Man of the Sea are kindly requested to bear in mind that the party does not need one in this campaign. It is its own burden.—Boston Journal.

An Esopus boy swallowed a Parker button the other day and suffered intensely until it was removed. There is at least one person in this country who now knows exactly how Mr. Bryan must feel.—Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle.

The average number of failures during the last Democratic administration was about 14,000 annually. Since 1897, with a large increase in the number of business concerns, the average has been between 10,000 and 11,000 annually.—Vallejo Chronicle.

Of course, if Judge Parker is incompetent to measure swords with the alert and daring Roosevelt, or if the Democratic party is incapable of sinking its differences and afraid of making a front attack on the enemy's intrenchments lest for lack of cohesion and discipline it may break in pieces again, it might as well retire from the contest at once and become a dishonored reminiscence.—Boston Herald.

"Stand pat!" is a good cry. We prefer it and all that it means—open mills, good wages for the workingmen, protection for American citizens when abroad, new markets in the far east, the Panama canal and a navy capable of defending it—to the uncertain administration of a party whose capacity for governing in the future can be measured only by its utter incapacity and failures of the past.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Irish sentiment will naturally preponderate in favor of Theodore Roosevelt, whose personality and most marked traits are strikingly akin to what we most glory in the Irish character. He has personal independence, pluck, impulsiveness, athletic ability and physical courage. Mr. Roosevelt has a strong current of Irish blood in his veins, and it bubbles over sometimes, strongly resembling a real Irishman. Nor has he forgotten what he owes to the Irish traits in him. He is a member of the Irish Historical society and takes a pride in many other things with an Irish side to them. He has always extended the courtesies of his great office to the representatives of our race who have visited this country from time to time. No man can point a finger of suspicion at the honesty of his official career. Judge Parker may be a very nice man, but what has he ever done to appeal to us as Theodore Roosevelt does?—Irish-American Advocate.

Did His Own Toting.

In her new book, "A Story of the Red Cross," just issued by the Appletons, Clara Barton tells the following recollection of an encounter she had with Theodore Roosevelt in Cuba:

"Early in the day there came to our improvised headquarters an officer in khaki uniform showing hard service and a bandanna handkerchief hanging from his hat to protect the back of his head and neck from the fierce rays of the sun.

"It was Colonel Roosevelt, and we were very glad to meet the gallant leader of the rough riders. After a few moments' conversation he said:

"'I have some sick men with my regiment who refuse to leave it. They need such delicacies as you have here, which I am ready to pay for out of my own pocket. Can I buy them from the Red Cross?'

"'Not for a million of dollars,' Dr. Gardner replied.

"'But my men need these things,' he said, his tone and face expressing anxiety. 'I think a great deal of my men. I am proud of them.'

"'And we know they are proud of you, colonel. But we can't sell Red Cross supplies,' said Dr. Gardner.

"'Then how can I get them? I must have proper food for my sick men,' he said.

"'Just ask for them, colonel,' replied Dr. Gardner.

"'Oh,' he said, his face suddenly lighting with a bright smile, 'then I do ask for them.'

"'All right, colonel. What is your list, and when will you send for these supplies?' asked Dr. Gardner. 'They will be ready any time.'

"'Lend me a sack and I'll take them right along,' he answered, with characteristic decision.

"Dr. Gardner at once looked up a sack, and when filled it must have held a good many pounds of supplies. Before we had recovered from our surprise the incident was closed by the future president of the United States slinging the big sack over his shoulders and striding off and out of sight through the jungle."

Roosevelt and the Farmer.

[From the Orange Judd Farmer.]

Especially do the farmers of America pin their faith to Theodore Roosevelt. He knows them and their wants.

He was the first president to comprehensively grasp the problems of forestry, irrigation, good roads, rural free delivery, etc. He was instrumental in putting into force laws and policies for aiding agriculture in these and many other respects.

He appointed a commission of experts to review the land laws and to outline such reforms as would best promote the public interest in general and also the welfare of the bona fide settler, stockman, rancher and lumberman, while putting a stop to the plundering of the public domain. Roosevelt means that the public lands, waters and forests shall be the heritage of the people.

The federal irrigation policy has been wisely championed and fathered by Theodore Roosevelt. Without subjecting east or south to further agricultural competition, this irrigation policy is creating thousands of happy and self sustaining homes in the previously arid west, thereby developing a large addition to that best of all markets for our labor, capital and manufacturers — the home market.

Still more wonderful, this national irrigation policy is being carried out without expense to taxpayers. The money for it comes from the sale of public lands—$27,000,000 now available—and is paid back by the settlers upon the land irrigated.

Anti-Imperialist Fashions.

[From the New York Tribune.]

Mr. Dooley remarked a few days ago, "Th' attic of ivry Dimmycrat's house is filled with ol' policies that he wanst used—policies that have faded or punctured a tire or broke a mainspring or been run over be a band wagon." Anybody who goes into the Democratic garret and seeks the corner where the castoff garments of anti-imperialism have been thrown with the successive changes of fashion will certainly confess that Mr. Dooley in this respect understands the Democracy. For five years now the Democracy has been denouncing "imperialism," and this year it again appears in that role, with the so called anti-imperialists proclaiming it the only hope of human liberty. Yet the fashion of its anti-imperialism has changed so often and so completely that it would hardly know itself if it rigged up in its former costumes for the part.

Democrats have a surplus of hopes and a deficit in confidence.

LABOR'S SHARE OF PROSPERITY.

Savings of Labor Increase Faster Than General Savings.

Our foreign born citizens are sometimes told that the protective policy of the Republican party is for the benefit of manufacturers and employers and not for the benefit of labor. They hear it said that the "rich are growing richer and the poor are growing poorer."

That is not true. Every sensible workingman knows that it is the protective policy which keeps up wages. He knows that if protection were defeated, as the Democratic party proposes, wages in the United States would go down toward the level of wages in Europe. Protection benefits labor more than any other interests.

This can be plainly shown. Everybody knows that when labor prospers it puts its savings in savings banks and in life insurance benefit associations. The savings banks represent the savings of labor. In 1880 the total amount of deposits in savings banks in the United States was $819,000,000, in 1890 it was $1,525,000,000 and in 1903 it was $2,935,000,000. In other words, in 1903 it was nearly twice as much as it was in 1890 and three and a half times as much as it was in 1880.

Now, the whole wealth of the United States in 1903 was only a little over half as much again as it was in 1890 and only a little over twice what it was in 1880—that is to say, while the savings of labor increased three and a half times the general wealth only doubled.

This shows that the growth of labor savings was faster than the general growth of wealth. It shows that the workingmen were steadily increasing their share in the general prosperity. It completely answers the untrue statement that "the rich are growing richer and the poor are growing poorer." What is true is that the whole body of the people are growing better off, and the working people with the rest.

This can be shown in another way. England is a free trade country. The United States under Republican rule is a protection country. Take the same eight leading industries in both, such as iron and steel, cotton, woolen, boots and shoes, earthenware and glass, etc. In England from 1880 to 1900 the number of workers in these industries increased only 6 per cent, while the population during the same time increased 25 per cent. In the United States in the same period the number of workers increased 56 per cent and the population 52 per cent—that is to say, in free trade England the number of workers in the leading industries increased only one-quarter as fast as the population, while in protection United States they increased just as fast as population.

The Democratic party seeks to establish here through the election of Parker the policy of free trade England. The Republican party through the election of Roosevelt would maintain the policy of protection United States. The naturalized citizens who have come here to enjoy the benefits of the United States cannot fail to stand with Roosevelt.

THERE BY DIVINE WILL.

Bishop Thinks America Has Mission In Philippines.

[From the Washington Post.]

"As to the Philippines, speaking for myself alone, I believe that we, as a people, are in the Philippine Islands in harmony with the will of God, which is working to the redemption of the uttermost parts of the earth. Things are best as they are, first, for what we shall do for the Filipinos; second, for what they shall do for us; third, because we have reached that day in the history of the world when the orient is waking up, and I believe God wants the American nation to have a part in that great development."

The speaker was the Rev. Bishop F. W. Warne of Lucknow, India, one of the three Indian bishops of the Methodist Episcopal church, who preached recently at Foundry church in Washington to a large congregation.

ACCEPTS THE CHALLENGE.

President In His Letter Speaks For Himself and Party.

[From the New York Globe, Rep.]

He speaks for himself and party, and there is neither uncertainty nor timidity nor a shadow of evasion in a single sentence of his letter. "A party fit to govern," he says, "must have convictions," and he leaves no opportunity for any one to deny that he has both convictions and the courage to maintain them. Whether men agree with him or not they cannot fail to grasp his meaning and cannot accuse him of shuffling or equivocation.

It is not in any sense a defensive document, but rather a defiant acceptance of the Democratic challenge to show why a change is not desirable. Every point in the Democratic indictment is met, and many points not mentioned publicly in that indictment are stated and answered. The Panama canal policy, the coal strike settlement, the Northern Securities suit, the pension order, are all treated in the same frank and fearless fashion, though the Democrats have either not ventured to mention them at all or have expressed their disapproval in veiled and guarded terms.

Those advocates of Judge Parker who have been beseeching him to utter a "clarion note" will find that much desired thing in the president's letter, for it sounds through every part of it.

Open Letter to Prohibitionists and Temperance Democrats.

[By Rev. Dr J. F. Seaman of New York.]

Problem: My Respected Prohibition Brother—Your party having been at work in this state over thirty years, "voting as you pray," not electing a man to office, how long will it take you to carry the state? Your ex-Chairman Hopkins boasts having helped the Democrats defeat one of the greatest statesmen then on earth (Senator Blaine, 1884). Ringleaders and Democrat-Prohibitionists may count that good work, but certainly former sensible Republicans do not estimate such co-labor with Democrats as being prayerful voting. That was just shyster politics. Wasn't it?

There are lots of noble men in your association, too fine to be imposed upon, but some of your manipulators descend to the rottenest kind of party tricks and will do so this year "if there's anything in it." I have caught them at it.

Former Republicans and other true citizens, permit us to kindly suggest that you work and vote this year with an administration which towers high among the best past administrations in this country.

Hyder's Jewelry Store

IS STILL AT THE SAME OLD PLACE,
75 WEST MAIN ST., WESTMINSTER, Md.,

WHERE YOU CAN SEE:

The cheapest Watches that ever were sold,
Made of pure metal, both Silver and Gold;
Gold Necklaces, Chains and beautiful Charms,
And handsome Bracelets to wear on the arms.
Rings made of Silver and of pure Gold,
So cheap and beautiful for all to behold;
To see these fine goods 'tis really a treat,
And in quality and price they cannot be beat.
Now Clocks, my dear friends, I sell them so low,
A 10-dollar bill will buy a whole row;
Now facts are facts, come see for yourselves
The beautiful goods in case and on shelves.
Spectacles and Eye-glasses for young and old,
Made of good metal, both Nickle and Gold;
We will test your eyes gladly, without any fee,
So you will always be happy, because you can see.
If your glasses get broken, disabled or bent,
We'll examine them freely, without costing a cent;
If, of new frames or lenses you stand in need
We can furnish them for you, Yes, Indeed.
If any Repairing you wish to have done,
We'll do it as cheap as the work can be done;
All work done by us we warrant the best;
