LOCAL ITEMS.

Election Next Tuesday.

Only routine business was transacted by the County Commissioners, at their meeting on Monday.

Election day, Tuesday, 8th inst., will be a legal holiday and banks and public offices will be closed.

Mr. H. C. Albaugh's First National restaurant, East Main street, near the railroad, this city, is being repainted.

Mr. John A. Stem has sold his restaurant on East Main street to Mr. Jesse F. Stem, of Liberty street, who has taken possession.

The young people of this city enjoyed the usual custom of corn throwing and other diversions common to Hallowe'en, on Monday evening last. Nothing unseemly occurred.

Mr. W. Thos. Welling, of Baltimore, who served in Co. A, 6th Md. Vols., has had his U. S. pension increased to $10.00 per month. He was a former resident of Uniontown, this county.

During the month of October there were received for record, at the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court, 42 deeds, 20 mortgages and 9 bills of sale, and 30 marriage licenses were issued.

Mr. David J. Witter, of this city, has purchased from Mr. Theo. H. Biggs the latter's house and lot on Pennsylvania avenue and will occupy it at once. The exact price paid has not transpired, but exceeds $2,500.

As it is impossible to find space this week for a proper report of the great C. E. State convention held in this city on Wednesday and Thursday a full report of the proceedings will be given next week.

President Roosevelt has issued his proclamation setting apart Thursday, 24th inst., as a Thanksgiving Day, "to be observed as a day of festival and thanksgiving by all the people of the United States, at home and abroad."

The Republicans of Hampstead and vicinity will hold a grand rally in Firemen's Hall, in that place, tomorrow evening, beginning at 7.30 o'clock. The speakers will be N. B. Studebaker, S. S. Ford and Oliver M. Ruark, of Baltimore, all entertaining orators.

A pole of the United Telephone Company fell with Wm. Zentgraft upon it on Friday last and injured one of his limbs considerably. He jumped as the pole was falling but it came in contact with his leg after he reached the ground. Fortunately the injury he sustained was not serious.

Mr. Charles V. Wantz has had the front of the Wantz Building, near the railroad, this city, repainted, the work having been done by Mr. Charles M. Stouch and his corps of workmen, who are now also repainting the residence of Mr. Charles E. Goodwin, on East Main street.

Mrs. Samuel O. Miller exhibited in this office, on Tuesday, a bunch of small ears of corn, numbering in all sixteen, which was grown in one husk. Mrs. Miller found the curious growth in the cornfield of her father, Mr. David H. Warehime, near the Wakefield Roller Mills.

A party of young people from Reisterstown gathered at the home of Miss Lorena Yingling early Monday evening and formed an omnibus party to Finksburg. They were masked and visited a number of families in Finksburg before alighting at the home of Miss Edith Horner, where they were entertained.

The closed season for rabbits and partridges in this county will end on Wednesday next and from the 10th inst., to the 24th of December, game of these species may be taken. The season for taking squirrels, which is now open, will close on the 30th inst. Nonresident gunners require a license in this county, which can be procured at the cost of $10.

A large Republican meeting at Union Bridge, on Wednesday evening, was addressed by Hon. Melvin G. Winstock, of Oregon, and Robert Garrett, Esq., Republican candidate for Congress, whose speeches were greeted with enthusiastic applause. Great interest was manifested by the large gathering in the discussion of the important issues of the campaign.

Among the names which are on Dr. Worthington's petition on file at the State House, are: Messrs. Harry D. Dorsey, E. J. Hammond and W. L. Hammond, of Hood's Mill, this county, asking for his pardon from the penitentiary. Dr. Worthington was convicted and sentenced for malpractice, in a case in which a former resident of this county was involved. The Governor refused to grant the pardon.

The explosion of a coal oil lamp at the residence of Mr. Martin Harchenhorn, Liberty street, this city, on Wednesday night, came near causing a serious fire. None of the family was in the room when the explosion took place and they were unaware of the danger until a couple of gentlemen who were passing the house rushed in and suppressed the blaze. A neighbor of Mr. Harchenhorn who saw the flames had given the alarm.

Mr. Frank J. Harbaugh, of Hagerstown, a freight conductor on the Western Maryland railroad, was killed early Wednesday morning at Fairview, near Emory Grove. He was walking on top of the train and was struck by an overhead bridge, his skull being crushed. His dead body was found on top of a car by the train crew and taken to Hampstead. He was 35 years old and married.

Messrs. Essich and Yeiser, trustees, sold at public sale, on Saturday last, twenty acres of woodland belonging to the estate of the late Daniel J. Baumgardner, in lots, the first parcel, containing 7 1-16 acres, having been purchased by Mr. Edward T. Witte, at $80 per acre. The remainder was sold in lots at the following prices: No. 1, to Jacob Gummel, at $48; No. 2, to Howard S. Witter, at $48.25; No. 3, to Jos. H. Lippy, at $59.50; No. 4, to Geo. O. B. Hann, at $65.50; No. 5, to J. Frank Switzer, at $57. Geo. L. Stocksdale, Esq., was the solicitor.

Mr. James P. Hooper, constable for Franklin district, is minus his horse and runabout, which were stolen about 11 o'clock, last Saturday night, from the premises of his brother, J. D. Hooper's, hotel on the Liberty road. Constable Hooper had hitched his team at the hotel and when he discovered that it was missing, supposed the horse had in some way gotten loose and would be found in the neighborhood. In this, however, he was disappointed and active effort has failed to give him any clue to the whereabouts of the team.

Election, Tuesday, November 8th, 1904; polls will be open from 8 A. M. till 6 P. M. Don't fail to vote for Rosevelt and Fairbanks and Robert Garrett.

The Baltimore American says: "Rev. Thomas Atkinson, rector of St. Barnanas' Protestant Episcopal Church, this city, has been elected rector of Ascension parish, Westminster, Md., but has not as yet announced his decision regarding the call. Rev. Mr. Atkinson is perhaps the best-known Protestant Episcopal clergyman in this city. He has been archdeacon for sometime, and lately declined an appointment from Bishop Paret as diocesan missionary. He has received a number of calls from various parishes, but has been persuaded to decline all of them by his congregation, by whom he is much beloved. Rev. Mr. Atkinson has largely increased the membership at St. Barnabas' Church since he assumed the pastorate, and the edifice has also been greatly improved."

As this is the last issue of the SENTINEL previous to the election many items of local and general interest, correspondence &c., are omitted to give as much space as possible to affairs political. Among the matters thus excluded are the proceedings of the great convention of the Maryland C. E. Union, held in this city on Wednesday and Thursday, and which was so largely attended that the M. P. Church, in which Wednesday's day sessions were held, was inadequate to the accommodation of the delegates and other Christian Endeavorers who were present from all over the State in large numbers, and the remaining sessions were held at Alumni Hall. Mr. George K. Mather, of this city, president of the Union; presided in a very efficient manner, so that the convention succeeded in transacting the large amount of business projected by the program. The most interesting feature of the convention was the presence of Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., president of the World's C. E. Union and founder of the organization, who delivered several addresses, and Mr. William Shaw, secretary of the same Union.

Jurors Drawn.

On Monday Judge Wm. H. Thomas drew the following jurors for the November term of the Circuit Court, in place of others excused, whose names are also mentioned:

Uniontown District.—Edward Geiman, in place of Wm. P. Englar.

Myers' District.—Wm. J. Geeting, in place of Milton F. Little.

Freedom District.—Amos M. Arrington, in place of James B. George.

Sale of Bank and other Stocks.

On Tuesday last Mr. J. Thomas Roop, auctioneer, sold at public sale, at the Union National Bank of Westminster, the following bank and other stocks: 10 shares Westminster Hardware Company, to Mr. George W. Albaugh, at $56, par value $25; 10 shares of Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Westminster, to Ivan L. Hoff, Esq., at $19, par value $10; 20 shares of same, to same, at $19.10; 10 shares of same, to same, at $19.25; 20 shares of same to Mr. George W. Albaugh, at $19.20; 5 shares of same, to same, at $19.25; 10 shares of Union National Bank of Westminster, to Mr. George M. Parke, at $51.10, par value $25; 10 shares of same, to Mr. L. W. Caples, at $51.05; 9 shares of same, to Mrs. Margaret E. Tracy, at $51; 2 shares of Westminster Deposit and Trust Company, to Mr. Alfred Stevenson, at $174, par value $100; 1 share of same, to same, at $171; 8 shares of same, to Mr. George W. Albaugh, at $165; total of sales $5,124.25.

Johns Hopkins, 0; W. Md., 0.

The game of football between Johns Hopkins University and Western Maryland College, on Lawyer's field in this city, on Saturday last, ended in a tie score of 0 to 0, but it was an interesting contest. Hopkins fumbled at the kick-off and Weeks took the ball to the 40-yard line. In the second rush Roberts had his knee wrenched and Henry came in, Thomas taking Henry's place at tackle. Western Maryland made several hard rushes and was within three yards of a touchdown when the half ended. In the second half the locals got to the Hopkins' 35-yard line when held for downs. Then came a scrap over a decision, and the game was ended, Hopkins leaving the field. Henry, for Western Maryland had the ball when he fell and cried, "down," but the ball was torn from his grasp and the referee gave it to Hopkins. In the dispute which ensued blows were given and received and a free fight seemed imminent. It was prevented, however, and after Hopkins, unopposed, had made a touchdown and Western Maryland, also without opposition, had made two touchdowns, the referee decided the game as stated. Some of the spectators declared that the home team was literally robbed of the game by the improper ruling of the referee.

WEDDING BELLS.

Hindman-Straw.

Miss Mabel E. Straw, second daughter of Mr. Wilson R. Straw, of Union Bridge, and Mr. Wm. D. Hindman, of Chester county, Pa., were married in the Presbyterian Church, New London, in that county, on Thursday, 28th ult. The groom is a prosperous Chester county farmer. The wedding was a great surprise to most of the friends of the bride in this county, few of whom had any knowledge that it was impending.

Wolff-Newcomer.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Thursday of last week at 12.30 P. M., in the Lutheran Church at Harney, Md., when Miss Douglass, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Newcomer, of that place, became the bride of Dr. William E. Wolff, of Arendtsville, Pa. Promptly at the appointed time the bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, and proceeded to the altar, where they were met by the officiating minister, Rev. L. A. Bush, of Boonsboro, Md., brother-in-law of the bride, who performed the ceremony under an arch of chrysanthemums, assisted by Rev. W. G. Minnick, pastor of the bride, and Rev. D. T. Koser, of Arendtsville, Pa., pastor of the groom, the ring service being used. The maid of honor was Miss Carrie Stine, of York, Pa., who gave the bride away and the bridesmaids were Misses Phoebe Newcomer, sister of the bride, and Edith Wolff, of Dry Run, Pa., sister of the groom. The best man was Dr. Herman, of Middleburg, Pa., and the ushers were Allen Trostle, of Arendtsville, Pa., and Norman Hess, of Harney, Md. The bride was very tastefully dressed in white silk chiffon and Irish point lace, and carried bride's roses, and her attendants wore Persian lawn and carried chrysanthemums. The presents were costly and numerous consisting of cut glass, silver, china, linen and a check for $1,000 from the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Fleming, of Taneytown. They will reside in Ardentsville, Pa.

Bear in mind this important fact: Only two crossmarks are necessary to vote the ticket—one opposite the names of the candidates for president and vice president, and one opposite the name of a candidate for Congress.

Porters Items.

There will be preaching at Messiah Church Sunday evening, at 7.30 o'clock, by Rev. Shultz, of Hooversville, Pa.

A daughter of Wm. and Ella Jenkins, of Baltimore, aged about 17 years, died recently at her grandfather, Mr. John K. Shipley's, near Gaithers; interment at Messiah Cemetery, on Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. R. Trenwith and Andrew B. McKinney and L. M. Bushey have returned from the World's Fair. Mr. Bushey stopped at Martinsburg, W. Va., to attend the Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Mr. F. T. Keefer has painted his house, which adds greatly to its appearance.

Corn husking is progressing this fine weather.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Samuel Fox.

Mrs. Samuel Fox died, at her home near Keysville, on the 26th ult., after a lingering illness, aged about 78 years, leaving her husband and large family of adult children. Rev. G. W. Enders, Jr., of Union Bridge, her pastor, conducted the service at her funeral.

George Everhart.

Mr. George Everhart, a citizen of Myers' district, died at his home at Silver Run on the 21st ult., at the age of 76 years, 5 days. Mr. Everhart was a veteran of the Civil War, having served in Co. H, Cole's Maryland Cavalry. He was formerly and for many years a resident of Bachman's Valley. He leaves an aged widow and several adult sons and daughters. Mr. George H. Everhart, of this city, is one of the sons.

Mrs. Margaret E. Carmichael.

Mrs. Margaret E. Carmichael, who was paralyzed on a street car in Baltimore, as noted in the SENTINEL last week, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. F. Going, in that city, on Monday, without having regained consciousness. Mrs. Carmichael was a daughter of the late Jacob Hoff, of Baltimore and has a number of relatives residing in this city and vicinity, where she was well known. She was the widow of Wm. Carmichael, who at the time of his death was a retired Baltimore merchant. Funeral services were held yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Going, 2222 North Charles street, and her remains were interred in Greenmount Cemetery.

Mortimer Dorsey.

Mr. Mortimer Dorsey died at his home in this city, yesterday afternoon, after a short illness, aged 68 years, 3 months and 14 days. Until five years ago Mr. Dorsey was engaged in farming on the border of Carroll and Howard counties, when he retired and removed to this city, where he has since resided. Mr. Dorsey was a son of the late Mortimer Dorsey, of Howard county, and a grandson of Richard Dorsey, who, at the age of 23 years, was a colonel in the Revolutionary Army under Gen. Washington. He is survived by a widow and the following children: Mrs. Robert W. Galt, of Bruceville; Mrs. Mervin G. Barr, of Chicago; Misses Lizzie H. and Adella Dorsey, of Baltimore; Messrs. Thaddeus C. Dorsey, of Boston, Mass.; Harry S. and Richard P. Dorsey, of Baltimore. Two brothers, Messrs. Wm. and Richard H. Dorsey, and one sister, Mrs. Rebekah Griffith, also survive him. His funeral will take place at his late home, at 10.30 o'clock, Monday morning. Mr. Dorsey was his father's youngest son, and was born in Howard county in 1835.

John A. Krouse.

Mr. John A. Krouse, a native and lifelong resident of this city, died at his home on East Main street, on Friday evening last, at the age of about 75 years. He was a son of the late John Krouse and, though spelling his name differently, a nephew of the late William Crouse, and a cousin of Rev. Wm. A. Crouse, of this city. In early life he was a cooper and then became a bricklayer. Later he engaged in huckstering and farming, but for a number of years had retired entirely from business, his eyesight having failed, causing partial blindness. He never married and leaves an only sister, Miss Henrietta Krouse, with whom he resided and who is the last survivor of her father's family. Mr. Krouse was a member of the Reformed Church, and, politically, a Democrat. For more than half a century he was a member of Salem Lodge, I. O. O. F., and his brethren attended his funeral in a body and performed the burial rites of the order at his grave. The funeral services of the church were held at his late home on Monday, Rev. J. B. Stonesifer, pastor of Carroll charge, Reformed Church, officiating, after which the remains were interred in Westminster Cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Wm. H. McCollum, J. E. Smith, John Bernstein, Wm. E. Frizzell, L. P. Manning, Thomas Turfle; F. C. Sharrer, funeral director.

Our printer recently received a large order for job printing from a firm which has several other printing offices in its locality.

Once more the need of a church is before us. If our young people want to attend religious services during the day or evening they must go 2½ or 3 miles in either direction.

Residents of this locality are respectfully requested to give to your correspondent any items of news in their possession. He has written for the local papers for the past 17 years and it is an easy matter to find the writer.

Nearly a dozen prominent farmers in our immediate neighborhood are not served by R. F. D. as their neighbors are. Efforts will be made to have them served as we are sure Uncle Sam does not willingly show partiality.

On Saturday afternoon our quiet little town was enlivened by music. The Carroll County Reed Band gave us some excellent selections, and a number of political speeches enlightened our people on the issues of the election.

Mr. John Baumgardner is digging a well on his premises north of town.

Mr. Henry Wilson's sale was well attended and things brought good prices.

Among the recent visitors at M. C. I. were Mrs. Samuel Jennings, Misses Rachel Roop, Florence Brown, Cora Beard and sister, Mr. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Ellen Lantz, Miss Bessie Mumaw.

Judge Phelps, in Part 2 of the Criminal Court of Baltimore, on Tuesday, sustained a demurrer in the case of John H. Tag, indicted for a violation of the barber law passed by the legislature last winter, which he declared unconstitutional. This probably settles the question, although the State may carry it to the court of Appeals. Judge Phelps' decision does not relieve violators of the law from prosecution outside of his jurisdiction, and some other tribunal might hold a different opinion. Practically, however, it seems to be the general opinion of the legal profession that the law will not stand the constitutional test.

NOVEMBER 2, 1904.

Maryland Synod, Lutheran Church.

The Maryland Synod of the Lutheran Church met at Martensburg, W. Va., on Thursday, 27th ult., when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. W. H. Dunbar, D. D., of Baltimore; secretary, Rev. John C. Bowers, of Baltimore; treasurer, Cornelius Eckhart, of Washington, D. C.

It was the 85th annual meeting of synod and over 200 ministers and lay delegates were in attendance.

Two thousand dollars was expended in the education of students for the ministry during the past year and a balance of $650 remains in the beneficiary fund. An additional sum of $1700 was voted for this work for the ensuing year.

The sum of $2,176 was contributed during the year towards the support of the Tressler Orphans' Home at Loysville, Pa.

Delegates to the General Synod, which will meet at Pittsburg next year, were elected as follows:

Clerical—Luther Kuhlman, D. D., L. A. Mann, D. D., P. H. Miller, D. D., W. S. Freas, D. D., H. H. Weber, D. D., U. S. G. Rupp, M. D. Gaver, J. S. Simon, J. L. Frantz.

Lay—Charles Cushwa, F. P. Stieff, H. C. Himes, W. F. A. Kemp, O. C. Warehime, D. H. Schultze, G. W. Yeiser, A. K. Wagner, Harry Donnelly.

The report of Treasurer Eckhart showed that there had been received from all sources during the year $25,620, and that the disbursements had been $24,200, leaving a balance of $1,420. The receipts were not as large as last year's, but the Synod expressed gratification that such a splendid showing should be made under the circumstances.

The report from the theogical seminary at Gettysburg showed that 40 students are studying for the ministry at that institution and that 20 were graduated at the close of the last year. It was announced that a chair of pulpit elocution would be added, $10,000 for this purpose having been given by J. Harry Fritz, of Somerset, Pa.

Rev. Marion T. Kline, D. D., corresponding secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, stated that the work in India had grown to such proportions that the General Synod must either increase the force in that field or allow the work to be restricted to a scope within the present availiable funds and the force of missionaries.

One of the most impressive services of the meeting of the Synod was the ordination of four young men to the ministry. The candidates were Philip Mullen, G. H. Easterday, O. E. Bregenzer and J. J. Scherer, Jr. At the same time S. H. Culler, R. S. Poffenberger, A. G. Null and F. A. Hightman were elevated to the grade of licentiates. The Sermon on ordination was delivered by Rev. G. W. Muller, D. D., whose subject was "The Qualifications for the Gospel Ministry."

A CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our high appreciation of the hearty co-operation accorded our Endeavorers by the people of Westminster and vicinity, in the entertainment of the State Convention which has just come to a close. The people of this city, regardless of denominational preferences or church affiliations, have rallied to our support with generous hospitality and helped make this great gathering one of the most successful, most delightful and we trust most helpful of all the splendid Christian Endeavor conventions that have been held in the State of Maryland. The society of the Methodist Protestant Church, having taken the initiative in the matter and feeling therefore the large share of responsibility, wishes to thank all most heartily, and hopes the convention may prove a blessing to the people of Westminster as well as our visitors.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,
Near Westminster, Md.

By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, sitting as a Court of Equity, wherein David E. Royer and others were complainants and John W. Royer and others were defendants, being No. 4184 on the equity docket of said court, the undersigned, as trustees in the decree mentioned in said cause, will sell on the premises, on SATURDAY, NOV. 12th, 1904,

COMMENCING AT 10 O'CLOCK, A. M., the following real estate, being the balance of the real estate of the late Jehu Royer, deceased, and situated on one of the tributary streams of Meadow Branch, in Carroll county, and about one mile west of Westminster, Md., the HOME FARM, containing about about 12 ACRES of which are in TIMBER, mainly Oak and Chestnut.

The land is highly improved, unexceptionally productive, 2,500 BUSHELS OF GRAIN having, in a single year, been raised on this farm. Aside from this it is probably one of the most desirably located farms in the county. It lies between and borders on the Uniontown and on the Meadow Branch turnpikes, affording easy access to Westminster. A stream of water extends through nearly the entire length of the farm. The land is rolling and easily cultivated.

It adjoins the farms of Mrs. Sallie Morelock, John T. Cassell, Uriah Bixler, John D. Roop, Samuel Roop, Levi Black and others, a section of country known as one of the most fertile in Western Maryland. It also adjoins the property of the well known Meadow Branch Meeting House and is almost contiguous to the large flouring and grist mill of John D. Roop, on Meadow Branch.

A large and unfailing spring of water flowing into the tributary stream above referred to is in the farm house yard and near the main dwelling.

All of the farm is conveniently fenced, and the fencing is in good condition.

The improvements consist of a large two-story with a large two-story STONE BUILDING attached, with porches front and rear, and all in good condition. The dwelling, recently repainted, contains 12 LARGE ROOMS, upper and basement kitchens. Near the upper kitchen door is a well of unusually excellent water.

The BARN, also recently repainted, is a 70x45 feet, bank frame structure with stalls sufficient for 30 head of stock. Water in the barn yard is forced up by a ram from the waters of the large spring near the farm house. The building is in good condition and practically needs no repair. There is also a large Wagon Shed, Granaries, Corn Cribs, Wood House, Carriage Sheds, Hog House, Spring House (brick) and all other outbuildings only found on a first-class, well conducted farm.

West of the barn, but unworked for some years, is a large Limestone Quarry near which is a spring of excellent water.

A LARGE ORCHARD

of choice fruit in good condition is within easy reach of the dwelling. Other fruit is distributed over the place.

The TENANT HOUSE, situated on the southeastern end of the farm, is a one-story Frame and Basement Building with a well of water near the basement door.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

For the probable convenience of purchaser or purchasers the Home Farm has been divided into two parcels, one known as Part No. 1, containing the buildings, the other as Part No. 2, unimproved, by a line running from a point on the Uniontown turnpike to a point intersecting the Meadow Branch turnpike, which latter part will contain about 60 ACRES. Part No. 1, containing the buildings and improvements generally, consequently contains about 154 ACRES. Both of these will be first offered separately after which the property as a whole will be offered.

40 ACRES OF WOODLAND.

There will also be offered on the same day, and after the sale of the farm, in lots of about 5 ACRES each, 40 acres of WOODLAND, the same lying in the Furnace Woods and near the Pleasant Valley public road, with which it is connected by a road running direct to the land. These lots are distant about three miles from the Meadow Branch Church. They adjoin the lands of the estate of the late Wm. G. Rinehart, Theo. Cummings, Uriah Babylon and others. The timber on same is mainly chestnut and oak.

A plat of the farm in its entirety, divided, and of these wood lots will be exhibited on the day of sale. In advance of sale it can be seen by calling on A. H. Huber, one of the trustees, at the office of Chas. Schaeffer's Fertilizer factory, Green St., Westminster, Md.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money cash, or on the ratification of the sale by the court, the balance in two equal payments, the one payable in one year, the other payable in two years from the day of sale, to be secured by the notes of the purchaser or purchasers, with security to be approved of by the trustees; or all cash, as the purchaser or purchasers may elect. Upon the payment of all the purchase money the deed or deeds will be executed.
