1789 June 27 William Tilghman to James Chaston

SIDE ONE

William Tilghman
June 27 = 1789

Mr. James Chaston
Mr. Galloway.
West River

Dear Sir

In expectation of your coming here, I retained the money received from Elizabeth & Rachael Jackson on account of Mr. Beck – I send it by Mr. Galloway also £120, paid by Mrs. Earle – When you come over, perhaps you may be able to settle with her, the Sum for which Judgment should be entered against her – Hodges has paid some money to Mr. Galloway & promises the rest soon – I shall issue no Execution without your order –

My best respects to Mrs. C & the family – we hope for the pleasure of seeing them here soon –

I am D. Sir
yours &c
Wm. Tilghman
