Dear Sir

It was with great pleasure we rec^d a Letter from you dated at Huntingfield - we had been all the Evening looking out for the messenger as your Brother Daniel wrote me you where to have arrived on Sunday last - I send down Major Loyds Phaeton and one Chear which will be sufficient to bring you all up if you are wise enough to send your baggage by the Cart which brings the Beef for you to eat - all the Family are well except myself and I am much hurry - as we shall see you so shortly I shall only add we are

Yours Sincerely

John Galloway
