1790 James Cheston

SIDE TWO

same time I must confess his Books were not kept in Regular manner ~~and in Most cases by entries of Sales made~~ and many Omissions of Errors both for and against the Estate has been found in them — In the present case there are but few Entries of the two following I do not find in Y.e Father's acc.t Dec.r 10.th 1773. 1 Quarter beef (no weight or price) of the same Month but no Day mentioned, 09 bis of Wheat @ 6/6 Not being authorised therefore from our own Knowledge or the Books of papers of the deceased to pay the demand The next thing as Executors We have to advert to is the probate of the acc.t ~~we~~ ~~pointed out by the law the pay to Enable us, with propriety to admit the Claim, which we find very different from the one annexed to the acc.t transmitted us the fact that our evidence for want of a proper Observance probate agreable to law, would not pass the Orphans Court, and therefore, We as Executors can do no otherwise than decline paying the claim made on it~~ which we find has not been made agreable to law, would not pass the orphans Court and therefore we as Executors can do no Otherwise than decline paying the claim made on it.
